This book is respectfully dedicated to the memory of Bill O'Donnell and Randy Blair, two highly accomplished broadcasters who passed away during the off-season.

Mr. O'Donnell announced Orioles' games on television and radio for 17 years before he succumbed after a long illness at age 56 on Oct. 29. Mr. Blair came to WJZ-TV in 1978 and served as sports director until his sudden death at age 32 on January 8.

Both men brought dignity yet unending enthusiasm to the broadcasting profession in Baltimore. They will be missed by the Orioles organization and sports fans alike.

1982 ATTENDANCE NOTES: Despite the fact that Baltimore played just 74 home dates (7 postponements due to weather), the fewest in the American League, the Orioles' home attendance of 1,613,031 was the third highest in club history, surpassed only in '80 (1,797,438) and '79 (1,681,009). The Birds' average attendance of 21,798 per date was seventh in the A.L.

It marks the eighth consecutive season and 16th time in 29 years that the O's have gone over the one million mark in home attendance.

Baltimore's home opener against Kansas City on April 5 drew 51,956, the largest crowd ever for a regular season game at Memorial Stadium. The club also attracted over 50,000 on two of the three dates in the final series against Milwaukee, 51,883 for a two-night doubleheader on October 1 (second largest regular season crowd ever and largest for doubleheader) and 51,639 on October 3 (4th largest regular season attendance). That series drew 150,757, highest ever for a three-date meeting at Memorial Stadium. Baltimore has two other 100,000 plus series in '82.

On the road, the Orioles played before a club record 1,622,109 fans, breaking the mark set in '80 (1,608,616). It's the 16th time in the last 17 years (missing only in the shortened season of '81) that the O's have had a road attendance of over one million. A three-game series at Milwaukee, Sep. 24, 25, 26 drew 140,679, fourth largest for a three-date road series in club history. A crowd of 53,568 attended the Sep. 25 game, the Birds' largest away crowd of the year.

30 HOME RUN CLUB

Six different Orioles have hit 30 or more homers in a season 13 different times. Boog Powell accomplished the feat four times, Frank Robinson three times, Jim Gentile and Eddie Murray twice each and Gus Triandos and Ken Singleton once each. Triandos was the first Oriole to achieve that mark when he hit 30 homers in '58, earning him a share of the A.L. record for a catcher that stood until '82, when Detroit's Lance Parrish hit 32 to set a new standard.

By Year: 1958-Triandos (30)...1961-Gentile (46)...1962-Gentile (33)...1964-Powell (39)...1966-F. Robinson (49) and Powell (34)...1967-F. Robinson (30)...1969-Powell (37) and F. Robinson (32)...1970-Powell (35)...1979-Singleton (35)...1980-Murray (32)...1982-Murray (32).

Frank Robinson's club record 49 homers in '66 was the only time an Oriole had led the league in home runs until '81, when Murray tied three others for A.L. top honors with 22.

100 RBI MEN

During the O's first seven years ('54 thru '60), nobody drove in 100 runs...Then, in '61, Jim Gentile broke the barrier with gusto while accumulating 141 rbi, still a club record.

Since then, six different players have driven in 100 runs 12 times: Boog Powell (3 times); Brooks and Frank Robinson, Ken Singleton, and Eddie Murray (twice each); Lee May (once).

By Year: 1961-Gentile (141)...1964-Brooks (118)... 1966-Frank (122), Powell (109) and Brooks (100)...1969-Powell (121) and Frank (100)...1970-Powell (114)... 1976-May (109)*...1979-Singleton (111)...1980-Murray (116) and Singleton (104)...1982-Murray (110).

Note: Murray became the fourth Oriole to lead the American League in runs batted in with 78 in '81.

LONG HOME RUNS/MEMORIAL STADIUM: The longest "measured" home run ever hit in Memorial Stadium was a 471' drive by Harmon Killebrew on May 24, 1964 off Milt Pappas over the hedge in left-center field. . . This exceeded by two feet the only other blast that has ever cleared the hedge. . . That was one by Boog Powell 469' to the same area off Boston's Don Schwall on June 22, 1962. Aside from these there have been three balls hit into the hedge (approximately 450'), by Mickey Mantle in 1954, by Powell in 1965 and by Frank Robinson in 1967.

Frank Robinson is the only player to have hit a ball completely out of Memorial Stadium. In the second game of a doubleheader with Cleveland on May 8, 1966, Frank hit a Luis Tiant offering over the left field stands and into the parking lot beyond, a drive that measured 451' on the fly and rolled to a stop 541' away from home plate.

GRAND SLAM NOTES

1982: The Orioles tied the club record with eight grand slams in 1982 to lead the major leagues for the second year in a row. No other club in either league had more than five. Seven of the eight slams were hit at Memorial Stadium: two by EDDIE MURRAY and one each by BENNY AYALA, TERRY CROWLEY, DAN FORD, JOE NOLAN, and CAL RIPKEN. GARY ROENICKE has the club's only bases-loaded homer on the road (see details above). Starting Aug. 15, '81, Baltimore has hit 13 grand slams, 12 at Memorial Stadium.

AYALA, CROWLEY, AND FORD hit their slams as pinch-hitters, giving the O's the American League record and a share of the major league mark for pinch grand slams in a season. It's been accomplished four times in the National League: San Francisco ('73 & '78); Chicago ('75); Philadelphia ('78).

There was a total of 71 grand slams hit in 1982, 48 in the American League and 23 in the National.

The lone grand slam against the Orioles was hit by New York's DAVE WINFIELD off DENNIS MARTINEZ on Sep. 13 at Baltimore.

Previous Years: The O's eight slams tied the CLUB RECORD accomplished twice previously: in '70 (including one each in ALCS and WS) and in '79 (all in regular season). . . Individually, BOOG POWELL is the club's all-time leader with seven slams while MURRAY, JIM GENTILE and BROOKS ROBINSON have six each. . . LEE MAY has hit the most bases-loaded homers at Memorial Stadium, five.

GENTILE hit five slams in 1961 to set an A.L. record and tie the major league standard set in 1955 by the Cubs' ERNIE BANKS.

GENTILE is one of seven to have hit two in one game and was the first of three to do so in consecutive plate appearances. That event took place on May 9, '61 at Minnesota (off PETE RAMOS and PAUL GIEL).

Subsequently, the Tigers' JIM NORTHROP hit back-to-back slams in '68, then two years later, the Orioles' FRANK ROBINSON hit consecutive slams at Washington (RFK Stadium) in the 5th and 6th innings on June 26, '70.

BROOKS ROBINSON blasted bases loaded homers in consecutive games in '62: on May 6 at Dodger Stadium vs. California (KEN McBRIDE) and May 9 at Baltimore vs. K.C. A's (ED RAKOW).

DAVE McNALLY, who hit one in the third game of the '70 WS off Cincinnati's WAYNE GRANGER, remains the only pitcher ever to hit a world series slam. . . MIKE CUELLAR was the first player to hit a grand slam in ALCS competition, connecting off Minnesota's JIM PERRY in game one of the '70 series at Metropolitan Stadium. That was the only slam in ALCS history until '82 when DON BAYLOR of California hit a bases loaded homer off the Brewer's MOOSE HAAS in game four at Milwaukee. . . The Dodgers' RON CEY and DUSTY BAKER are the only two to hit slams in the NLCS (both in '77).

Opponents: In 29 years, the Orioles have "out-slammed" their opponents 100-60 (including a 57-28 advantage at Memorial Stadium).

Seven opponents have hit two career slams against the O's (nobody has hit more), including three who have hit both at Memorial Stadium: ROY SIEVERS (Was.), MOOSE SKOWRON (N.Y.) and MIKE EPSTEIN (Was.). . . The other "two-timers" are RICO PETROCELLI (Bos.), RAY BOONE (Det.), DARRELL PORTER (Mil.), and COOKIE ROJAS (K.C.).

Grand Slam Gophers: A total of seven opposing pitchers have yielded two grand slams each to the Orioles (no one has allowed more than two) . . . DON AASE of the Angels is the only active on that list (to LEE MAY on May 5, '79 and to DOUG DeCINCES on Aug. 27, '81, both in Baltimore).

Among Orioles' pitchers, MILT PAPPAS was the most generous. He gave up six bases loaded homers during his tenure in Baltimore while DAVE McNALLY was victimized four times. Among the current O's, only DENNIS MARTINEZ (to JEFF BURROUGHS in '81 and DAVE WINFIELD in '82) and SAMMY STEWART (to BUMP WILLS and TONY ARMAS, both in '80) have yielded more than one career slam. JIM PALMER, MIKE FLANAGAN, and TIPPY MARTINEZ have never thrown grand slam "gophers".

The Orioles produced at least one 20-game winner for 13 consecutive seasons from '68 thru '80 to establish a new major league record. The O's shared the previous mark with the New York Giants, who had Christy Mathewson to produce twelve straight 20-win seasons from 1903-14.

In 1971 four Baltimore pitchers reached the 20-win plateau. The only other foursome in the entire history of major league baseball to have achieved the feat were four hurlers from the 1920 White Sox (51 years earlier): Urban "Red" Faber-23, Claude Williams-22, Dickie Kerr-21 and Ed Cicotte-21. Despite that achievement, the White Sox finished second that year, two games behind Cleveland.

The four Orioles all won their 20th games within six days: McNally was the first on 9/21; then in a series in Cleveland, the other three joined him: Cuellar (9/24-1st game-clinched division title), Dobson (9/24-2nd game), and Palmer (9/26).

Steve Stone is the earliest 20-game winner in club history, winning his 20th game on August 19 en route to team record 25 victories in '80. Three other Orioles' hurlers have recorded their 20th wins in August: McNally (8/25) and Cuellar (8/27) in '71 and Palmer (8/30) in '75.

§ Johnson and Zuverink were beaten by Jack Harshman who also pitched one-hitter. . . . Bertaina defeated Bob Meyer who also threw one-hitter. . . . Score in both games was 1-0.

NO-HITTERS BY OPPONENTS

Two no-hitters have been pitched against the Orioles in the 29 years they have been back in the American League, both by the Angels. Bo Belinsky was the first, on May 5, '62 at Dodger Stadium, winning 2-0 over Steve Barber . . . In 1975 Nolan Ryan no-hit the Orioles on June 1 at Anaheim Stadium, defeating Ross Grimsley, 1-0.

BIGGEST LIFETIME WINNERS-LOSERS vs. ORIOLES

Winners: Whitey Ford, the Yankee Hall of Famer, still holds the distinction of having beaten the Orioles more often than any other even though he has been retired since '67. . . Ford was 30-16 lifetime against the Birds.

He is followed by "Catfish" Hunter (26-24), Mickey Lolich (25-19), Billy Pierce (23-11), Early Wynn and Frank Sullivan (both 21-8), Jim Kaat (21-21), Earl Wilson (20-9), Luis Tiant (20-21), Jim Perry (20-22) and Camilo Pascual (20-23).

Losers: Hunter, the second biggest winner against the O's, is also the biggest loser (24) . . . It wasn't always thus. . . At one time, he was 23-16 vs. the O's, then lost eight of his last 11 decisions (from '76 thru '78, and had no record in '79).

Others oft-beaten by the Birds are Tiant and Jim Perry (22), Fritz Peterson (14-21). Kaat (21), Lolich (19) and Sam McDowell (9-19) . . . Probably the least successful opponent was Jim Colborn, formerly of Milwaukee, K.C., and Seattle, who was 3-17 lifetime. . . Rudy May is 3-14, Len Barker 3-7, Milt Wilcox 2-11, Geoff Zahn 1-8.

Notes: In '82, Eddie Murray ended the Orioles' two-year Gold Glove drought by winning his first award for fielding excellence. It marked the first time that a Baltimore first baseman has captured a Gold Glove in the 26-year history of the award.

With a total of 46 Gold Gloves since the inception of the award in '57, the Orioles lead the majors by a substantial margin over Cincinnati and St. Louis, which are tied for second with 37 each. Other leaders are Philadelphia-29 and Boston, Chicago White Sox, New York Yankees, and Pittsburgh-28 each.

Baltimore won at least one Gold Glove for 20 consecutive years from '60 thru '79, capturing four in a season five times, two on three occasions, and two in six different seasons. Multiple Orioles' individual winners: Brooks Robinson-16 (tied with Jim Kaat for most ever by one player); Paul Blair and Mark Belanger-8 each; Jim Palmer and Bobby Grich-4 each; Dave Johnson-3 and Luis Aparicio-2.

The Gold Glove Awards are presented by The Sporting News in cooperation with the Rawlings Sporting Goods Company to those players considered to be the best at their positions by vote of league managers and coaches. Selection is based not only on consistency (i.e., fielding percentage), but also on range, overall ability, and effectiveness.

MINIMUM SALARY

The minimum major league player salary is $35,000 for 1983. It will increase to $40,000 in 1984.

This award is presented annually by the Sports Boosters of Maryland to the most valuable Oriole player by vote of sportswriters and broadcasters who cover the club on a regular basis.

In 1982, Eddie Murray received all 15 first place votes to win the award unanimously for the second straight year. Jim Palmer was second and Cal Ripken placed third in the voting, which is done on a 5-3-1 scoring system.

It was Murray's third overall selection (all in the last five years), giving him the distinction of being one of only four players to win the "mvo" that many times. Brooks Robinson was a four-time selection ('60, '62, '64, '71) while Frank Robinson ('66, '67, '71) and Ken Singleton ('75, '77, '79) are three-time winners. Brooks and Frank shared the honors in 1971, one of only two occasions that there has been a tie in the voting (Paul Blair and Mike Cuellar in '74 was the other time).

Stu Miller, Boog Powell, and Palmer have each been selected twice. Past winners:

TRIPLE PLAYS

After completing a triple play in each of three consecutive seasons ('77 thru '79), the Orioles have been shutout in that department the last three years. The club had executed just five triple plays in their first 23 years in Baltimore.

The Birds' last two triple plays ('78 & '79) were of the "around the horn" variety involving Doug DeCinces, Rich Dauer, and Eddie Murray. Brooks Robinson started the other three Orioles' "around the horn" triple plays, all in a five-year span from 1969-73. The complete list of O's triple plays:

Jun. 10, '79—at Bal.—Buddy Bell "gitp"... 5-4-3 (D. DeCinces, R. Dauer, E. Murray).

Sep. 9, '78—at Tor.—Rick Cerone "gitp"... 5-4-3 (D. DeCinces, R. Dauer, E. Murray).

Jun. 3, '77—at K.C. John Wathan hit a sac fly to Pat Kelly in right. Fred Patek was caught off 1st and was out, Kelly to Mark Belanger to Billy Smith back to Belanger. Belanger then noticed Dave Nelson standing off 3rd base. He ran at him and tagged him out, completing the game-ending triple play and giving the O's a 7-6 win—9-6-4-6-6.

Sep. 29, '73—at Det.—Frank Howard "gitp"... 5-4-3 (B. Robinson, B. Grich, T. Crowley).

Jul. 7, '73—vs. Oak. at Bal.—Gene Tenace "gitp"... 5-4-3 (B. Robinson, B. Grich, E. Cabell).

Aug. 6, '69—vs. K.C. at Bal.—Eliseo Rodriguez "gitp"... 5-4-3 (B. Robinson, D. Johnson, B. Powell).

Apr. 9, '59—at Was.—Ed Fitzgerald line drive... 3-6-3 (B. Boyd, C. Carrasquel, B. Boyd).

Aug. 3, '55—vs. K.C. at Bal.—Art Ceccarelli "gidp" then runner was thrown out at home... 3-6-2 (G. Triandos, W. Miranda, H. Smith).

The Orioles have hit into 13 triple plays in 29 seasons, the last victim being Gary Roenicke against Oakland at Baltimore on May 7, '79. He grounded to third baseman Wayne Gross, who started an "around the horn" 5-4-3 triple play, the first executed against the Orioles since 1972. On four of the 13 occasions that Birds' opponents have completed triple plays, Brooks Robinson has been the batter. Brooks grounded into one, lined into another, and two were "gidp's", with a runner then being thrown out between third and home.

The Orioles won more than 100 games in each of three straight seasons—'69 (109), '70 (108) and '71 (101). Only two other clubs have achieved this feat in the history of major league baseball: the '29-'30-'31 Philadelphia A's (104-102-107) and the '42-'43-'44 St. Louis Cardinals (106-105-105).

—THE BIRDS AND THE BROWNS—

The Baltimore Orioles were charter members of the American League when it began operation in 1901. However, after two seasons the club was moved to New York where it ultimately became known as the New York Yankees.

The franchise from which the current Orioles descend came into the A.L. in 1901 representing Milwaukee, but in 1902 was transferred to St. Louis and named the Browns. In 52 seasons (1902 thru 1953) the Browns were, perhaps, the most unsuccessful team in major league history. They were 3,416-4,465 (.433) and finished in the second division 40 times. They won their only pennant in 1944 then lost the world series in six games to their home town rivals, the Cardinals.

In June, 1951, Bill and Charles DeWitt sold their controlling interest to Bill Veeck who operated the club for the next 2½ seasons. On September 29, 1953, he sold his shares to a group of Baltimore businessmen who brought major league baseball back to this city after a 51-year lapse.

DETAILED SUMMARY ORIOLES 1982 SEASON

Final Record: 94-68-1 (.580)—Second in A.L. Eastern Division, one game behind Milwaukee.

Home: 53-28-1 Road: 41-40 vs. East: 47-31-1 vs. West: 47-37

ARTIFICIAL TURF: In '82, the Orioles were 9-10 in the 3 A.L. ballparks with artificial turf (K.C. . . . 0-6; Sea. . . . 3-3; Tor. . . . 6-1). Baltimore's lifetime record on the carpet is 92-91. The O's are 88-87 in A.L. stadiums (Chi. . . . 27-24 ('68-'75); K.C. . . . 19-36; Sea. . . . 18-13; Tor. . . . 24-14) and 4-4 in Cincinnati and Pittsburgh in 3 world series ('70 Cin. . . . 2-0; '71 Pit. . . . 0-3; '79 Pit. . . . 2-1).

The Birds were 5-3 on the carpet in '81, 9-10 in '80, and 14-7 in '79 (including world series).

BATTING/HOME RUNS: The Orioles' team batting average of .266 was 7th in the A.L. and tied for the club's 2nd highest ever. . . The Birds batted .264 in 83 1st-half games and .268 in 80 contests after the all-star break. Baltimore was 3rd in the league with 179 homers, also tying for the 2nd highest total in team history, 2 behind the club record set in '79. The O's hit 92 homers in the 1st half and connected 87 times in the 2nd half.

For the 2nd consecutive year, Baltimore led the major leagues in grand slams. The Birds hit 8 home runs with the bases full to tie the club record established in '79 (regular season only). No other major league club had more than 5. Seven of the 8 slams were hit at Memorial Stadium: Ed die Murray, April 5 vs. Kansas City; Benny Ayala, May 29² vs. Toronto (pinch hit); Dan Ford, June 14 vs. Milwaukee (pinch hit); Terry Crowley, August 8 vs. Kansas City (pinch hit); Joe Nolan, August 24 vs. Toronto; Murray, Aug. 26 vs. Toronto; Cal Ripken, September 14² vs. New York. Gary Roenicke hit the lone road slam, May 10 at Oakland. Of the O's 13 grand slams in the last 2 seasons, 12 have been hit at home.

In other batting categories, Baltimore led the American League in intentional walks (52), was 2nd in total bases on balls (634) and on-base percentage (.344), 4th in slugging (.419, club record), 5th in runs (774) and total bases (2328, club record), and 7th in hits (1478).

CLOSE GAMES/LATE-INNING WINS: The Orioles' combined record of 44-31 (.587) in one and two-run games was the best in the American League. Baltimore had the league's top mark in two-run games at 24-13 (.649) and was 5th in performance in one-run contests at 20-18 (.526).

The O's came from behind to win on 45 occasions and were 36-33 in games decided in the 6th inning or later. Over the final 44 games (starting August 20), 17 of the club's 33 wins were the result of coming from behind, including 9 of the last 14. In that 44-game span, the Birds were 14-6 in contests decided in the 6th or later.

Baltimore won 6 games in "sudden death" at Memorial Stadium with all 6 decided by home runs delivered by 6 different players. The O's were also beaten in "sudden death" 7 times on the road.

The Orioles finished with a 9-4 (.692) record in extra-inning games, 3rd best in the circuit.

DAY/NIGHT: Baltimore had the league's 2nd best record in day games at 24-14 (.632). Under the lights, the club was 70-54 (.565), 4th best in the A.L.

DESIGNATED HITTERS: Orioles' designated hitters combined for a .254 (158-for-621) average with 15 homers and 78 rbi while finishing 2nd in the A.L. with 92 walks. Most of the dh chores were performed by Ken Singleton, who batted .250 (137-for-548) with 14 homers, 73 rbi, and 83 walks in 148 games. He set club records for walks and doubles (27) by a dh and had more games and at bats in that capacity than any Oriole except Tommy Davis (155 games and 623 at bats in '74).

The only other Orioles to see some action (more than one at bat) as designated hitters were Benny Ayala, .359 (14-for-39), 1 hr, 4 rbi; and Terry Crowley, .226 (7-for-31), 1 rbi.

DAYS IN EACH POSITION: 1st (7), 2nd (31), 3rd (78), 4th (13), 5th (14), 6th (15), 7th (21). Baltimore's largest lead was a half game, last achieved on Apr. 10. Following that, the O's did not return to 1st place until October 2, when they shared the top spot with Milwaukee. The club's greatest deficit was 9½ games, which occurred on May 10 & 12.

DOUBLEHEADERS: The Birds participated in 9 doubleheaders, more than any A.L. club except Cleveland and Detroit (11 each), winning 2, losing 2, and splitting 5. The sweeps came in Baltimore's final 2 twinbills of the year, September 14 vs. New York and October 1 against Milwaukee. The losses occurred on April 17 at Chicago, the O's only doubleheader on the road, and August 6 vs. Kansas City. The club split its only daytime doubleheader and was 2-2-4 in twin-nights.

FIELDING: The Orioles led the majors with a .984 fielding percentage, committing a major league low 101 errors in 6195 total chances. It marked the 7th time in the last 9 seasons and the 11th occasion in the last 20 campaigns (starting '63) that the Birds have topped the A.L. in fielding. In all, Baltimore has finished 1st or 2nd in fielding percentage 18 times in the last 23 seasons (starting '60).

INDIVIDUALS: Gold Glove winner Eddie Murray led A.L. 1st basemen in fielding for the 2nd consecutive year with a .9971 percentage (4 e in 1370 tc), just ahead of Milwaukee's Cecil Cooper at .9967. Due to the fact he missed 14 games defensively with injuries and family illness, Eddie was just 4th in the league in assists (97) and 5th in putouts (1269) and total chances. His career fielding average is .995 (34 e in 7520 tc), best ever for an Orioles 1st baseman.

Rich Dauer finished 2nd in percentage among qualifiers at 2nd base with a .987 (7 e in 536 tc) mark in 124 games. At 3rd base, Dauer did not commit an error in his 1st 47 games (86 tc) and finished with a .991 percentage (1 e in 115 tc) in 61 contests. Although he did not qualify for the title, he had the highest fielding percentage among third basemen playing in 10 or more games. Cal Ripken fielded .973 (6 e in 223 tc) in 71 games at 3rd base, including a span of 44 consecutive errorless games (137 tc) from April 24 thru June 14. Ripken moved to shortstop on July 1 and had a .972 (13 e in 457 tc) fielding percentage in 94 games there.

John Lowenstein did not commit an error in 204 outfield chances to finish 2nd among A.L. outfielders to California's Brian Downing (0 e in 330 tc). Al Bumbry led the Orioles with 9 outfield assists and was 3rd in the league in putouts (404) and 4th in chances (419).

HOME AND AWAY: Baltimore was 2nd in the league with a 53-28 (.654) home record, the 6th straight time and 12th overall that the club has had a .600 winning percentage or better at Memorial Stadium. The O's have had a winning record at home for 10 straight years and in 24 of their 29 seasons in Baltimore. In '82 the Birds won 22 of their final 27 games at home starting August 7. On the road, the Orioles finished 41-40 (.506), tied for 2nd best in the A.L. and was one of only 3 clubs with a winning record away from home. That marked the 14th time in the last 15 seasons (starting '68) that Baltimore has been above .500 in road games.

INJURIES: Once again, the Orioles were hit hardest by injuries to the pitching staff. Sammy Stewart was hampered by soreness in both knees (torn fibers and tiny bone chips) and underwent an extensive rehabilitation program during his stay on the disabled list, June 22-July 15. Tim Stoddard spent the 1st month of the season (Apr. 5-May 5) on the d.l. with tendinitis in his right shoulder, then tore ligaments in his right knee in a fall on Sep. 6 that required surgery and sidelined him for the rest of the season. Don Stanhouse was disabled from May 15-June 26 with tendinitis in his right shoulder. Each of the above players also spent time in the minor leagues recuperating on "rehabilitation assignment," Stanhouse and Stoddard at Rochester, Stewart at Hagerstown.

Scott McGregor was bothered most of the 2nd half with weakness and tightness in the muscles in his left shoulder, a condition that forced him to miss 2 starts in August and go just 2-5 after August 1. Mike Flanagan was hampered by a pulled groin muscle and a bruised left bicep in early May. Jim Palmer was bothered at various times by arm and neck problems. Steve Stone started the year on the disabled list with recurring tendinitis in his right elbow and shoulder before announcing his retirement in early June.

Otherwise, the Orioles' only major injury was sustained by Eddie Murray, who was hampered from late April until early June with tendinitis in the back of his left hand and wrist. That problem forced him out of the starting lineup for 17 of 25 games between May 6 and 30 and resulted in a .153 (13-85) batting performance from April 28 thru June 8. Al Bumbry pulled a muscle in his right leg in May and was slowed much of the season. Dan Ford, Gary Roenicke, and Lenn Sakata also missed short periods of time with assorted problems. See individual biographies for more details on injuries.

LEFTFIELD PRODUCTION: The Orioles' leftfield position combined for a .283 (172-608) average with 41 home runs and 123 runs batted in last season. The major contributors were John Lowenstein, .322 (101-314), 24 hr, 65 rbi; Gary Roenicke, .249 (47-189), 12 hr, 38 rbi; and Benny Ayala, .258 (17-66), 4 hr, 14 rbi. These figures include only when a player is actually in leftfield or pinch-hitting for the leftfielder.

MONTH-BY-MONTH: April: 6-12 (.333), May: 17-12 (.586), June: 15-9 (.625), July: 16-11 (.593), August: 18-14 (.563), September: 19-9 (.679), October: 3-1 (.750), Total: 94-68 (.580).

PINCH-HITTING: Baltimore received a great deal of production from their pinch-hitters in '82 as the club set an American League record for pinch homers with 11 while driving in 45 runs, the 2nd highest total in O's history to the '55 squad (49). While falling one short of the major league record for pinch homers (set by Cincinnati, '57), the Birds established an A.L. record and tied the major league mark with 3 grand slams from pinch-hitters. Baltimore led the league in pinch homers, was 2nd in at bats (188), hits (47), rbi, walks (25), and slugging (.468), and finished 3rd behind California (.338) and Toronto (.271) with a .250 pinch average. The 188 at bats were the most by Orioles' pinch-hitters since '68 (190).

INDIVIDUALS: Benny Ayala batted .375 (9-24) with 2 homers and 10 rbi, placing 2nd in the circuit in rbi (tied) and slugging (.708) and 3rd in batting among pinch-hitters with 20 or more at bats. He hit a pinch grand slam on May 29² off Toronto's Jerry Garvin, while his other pinch homer on Sep. 6 at New York set the A.L. record. In his 4 seasons with the O's, Ayala is hitting .272 (22-81) in a pinch-hit capacity with 5 homers and 24 rbi.

Terry Crowley had the lowest pinch average of his big league career at .200 (7-35), but hit a pair of homers (including a "sudden death" grand slam off K.C.'s Mike Armstrong on Aug. 8), led the league with 9 pinch walks and tied Ayala for 2nd with 10 rbi. Crowley has a career pinch hit average of .268 (103-385) with 5 homers and 66 rbi, and his 103 pinch hits place him 8th on the all-time list and 2nd among active players to Los Angeles' Jose Morales (108). . . With Baltimore, Crowley's lifetime pinch average is .285 (79-277) with 5 homers and 54 rbi.

Other notable pinch hit performances: Rick Dempsey, .375 (3-8), 1 rbi. . . Jim Dwyer, .261 (6-23), 2 hr, 2 rbi. . . Dan Ford, .235 (4-17), 1 hr, 4 rbi. . . John Lowenstein, .294 (5-17), 1 hr, 6 rbi. . . Gary Roenicke, .278 (5-18), 2 hr, 6 rbi. . . Lenn Sakata, .333 (3-9), 1 rbi.

PITCHING: The Orioles were 7th in the league with a 3.99 earned run average, the 3rd highest in club history and the highest since '56 (4.20). The O's had a 3.98 era in 83 games before the all-star break and a 4.00 mark in 80 2nd-half contests. Baltimore allowed the 2nd fewest runs (687) and was 5th in complete games (38) and fewest hits allowed (1436).

O's starters were 68-46 with a 4.03 (465 er/1039.1 ip) earned run average while the bullpen went 26-22 with a 3.89 (183 er/423 ip) era and 34 saves.

TIE GAME: The Orioles were involved in their 9th tie game in club history and 1st since '64 on June 16 at Memorial Stadium when the contest between the Birds and Milwaukee was called after 9 innings, because of rain, with the score tied, 2-2. It was an official game with all records and statistics counting and was replayed as part of a two-night doubleheader on Oct. 1. It was the only tie game in the major leagues last season. All 9 of the O's lifetime ties have been at home.

STREAKS, WINNING AND LOSING: Baltimore won a season high 10 straight games from Aug. 28 thru Sep. 7. The club also captured 7 in a row on 2 occasions, July 21 thru 28 and Aug. 20 thru 27, and 5 straight twice. One of the 5-game streaks was a home series sweep of New York from Sep. 13 thru 16, just the 3rd time in club history that the Birds have swept a 5-game series.

The team's longest losing streak was 9 from Apr. 13 thru 23, the O's longest since '76. Baltimore also had spans of 4 and 5 straight defeats.

WINS: With their 3rd consecutive 2nd place finish, the Orioles have now finished 1st or 2nd in 14 of the last 17 seasons (starting '66). Baltimore has won more games than any major league club in the past 26 years (starting '57) with a 2332-1765 record (.569). The Yankees are 2nd (2289-1820, .557) and Los Angeles is 3rd (2275-1842, .553).

The O's also own the majors' best record in the last 3 seasons (starting '80) at 253-176 (.590), the last 5 years (starting '78) at 445-304 (.549), and the last 10 seasons (starting '73) at 908-647 (.584).

The Orioles have had 15 consecutive winning seasons (starting '68). The only big league club with a longer streak is the Boston Red Sox, who have been over the .500 mark in 16 straight campaigns (starting '67). Baltimore has won 90 or more games in 12 of the last 15 years (starting '68), 15 of the last 19 (starting '64), and 16 of the last 22 (starting '61). In each case, it's a major league best.

----- BIRDS' BIGGEST DEAL -----

In November-December 1954 the Orioles and Yankees engineered a 17 player deal, one of the biggest in baseball history. General Manager Paul Richards sent the following players to New York: pitchers Mike Blyskal, Don Larsen and Bob Turley; catcher Darrell Johnson, first baseman Dick Krykoski, shortstop Billy Hunter, and outfielders Ted del Guercio and Jim Fridgeley. . . The Birds in turn acquired the contracts of: pitchers Harry Byrd, Jim McDonald and Bill Miller; catchers Hal Smith and Gus Triandos; second baseman Don Leppert, third baseman Kal Segrist, shortstop Willie Miranda and outfielder Gene Woodling.

SOMETHING MAGIC HAPPENED . . .

CHRONOLOGY OF THE '82 SEASON

Slow starts and fast finishes have become almost as much a part of this city's baseball tradition as the "Baltimore chop." It seems like every year the Orioles come back from Florida, win big before a large crowd on opening day at home (they're 14-3 in their last 17 openers), then go into a swoon that can last anywhere from a couple of weeks to four months.

Then, along about late August or early September (sometimes earlier but not usually), the O's begin to play the kind of baseball they've been famous for these past 26 years—a period during which they've won more games than any other baseball team in the world.

That's the general outline, and 1982 was different in only one respect. The late season rush was longer (6 weeks and 43 games) and more dramatic than usual. Frankly, it was almost unbelievable. . . . Some even called it magic. . . . Orioles Magic.

GALA OPENING

The O's hosted the American league opener before the largest regular season crowd in Memorial Stadium history (51,956) and blasted Kansas City 13-5 (it was the 3rd straight year they had opened at home and beaten the Royals). It was a memorable afternoon which featured 16 hits including an Eddie Murray grand slam, Cal Ripken's first big league homer, Dan Ford's first four-bagger in an Orioles uniform, and another homer by the veteran Gary Roenicke.

SPRING FEVER

Talk about fast honeymoons. The O's plunged almost immediately into a 9-game losing streak (their longest in 6 years), and, with the season only 2½ weeks old, they were 2-10.

Murray, the Orioles' resident superstar, dominated the American League in April—.441 average (30-for-68), .506 on-base percentage (39-for-77), and a .794 slugging average (54 tb, 68 ab). And, Rich Dauer, a notoriously poor April hitter in the past, batted .375 (24-for-64), but they had little help from their friends.

The rookie Ripken was emblematic of the O's struggle. After his opening day heroics (home run, 3-for-5, 2 rbi), Cal went into a 4-for-55 skid that lasted thru May Day. Ken Singleton, one-half of the O's often awesome switch-hitting duo of the past five years along with Murray, was also in a serious slump carried over from the previous year and did not hit his first homer until the season was a month old. On April 30 the O's were 6-12.

COMING BACK—SLOWLY

Things were better in May (17-12), and, despite a hand injury that kept Murray out of the lineup for an extended period, Singleton's loss of power and the struggling newcomer Ford, the O's finally crept over .500 to stay on the 6th of June.

By this time, Baltimore fans were witness to the emergence of a rookie 3rd baseman. He reminded them a bit of another youngster who had come up in '55 and had gone on to captivate them for a generation. Young Cal had turned it around.

There was a unique quality about this club that surfaced in the early going. You could call it the "left field cooperative." Manager Weaver skillfully blended the talents of John Lowenstein, Gary Roenicke, and Benny Ayala through selective platooning, and that trio produced eye-popping combined totals (only while playing left field) of 41 home runs and 123 rbi.

Nearly everybody says, "Baltimore will be in it because of its pitching," and Weaver always said, "What it takes to win is pitching, defense, and 3-run homers." Well, 3-run homers, and better, he got. The O's led the league in grand slams for the second straight year, and nearly half of their 179 homers (ranked 3rd in A.L. behind Milwaukee-216 and California-186) were hit with at least one man on.

Pitching, in the early season, was another story. Steve Stone retired with a sore arm without throwing a single pitch in anger, and the other veteran starters (Jim Palmer, Mike Flanagan, Scott McGregor, and Dennis Martinez) were wildly inconsistent. The bullpen, on the other hand, was consistently ineffective.

Then in July, Tippy Martinez decided to take the bull(pen) by the horns and during that month almost singlehandedly restored its tarnished image. In 16 appearances that month, Tippy hurled 19 scoreless innings, won 2, saved 5, and registered 7 "holds." For that achievement, he was chosen "pitcher of the month" in the American League.

Meanwhile, another interesting resurgence was developing. Jim Palmer, the 8-time, 20-game winner who had been sentenced to the bullpen for a time in May, was quietly putting together some numbers for the first time in four years.

He was released from the "pen" on May 25, split his next two decisions as a starter, then reeled off victory after victory until the string had reached 11 in a row, matching the longest winning streak of his illustrious career.

On Thursday, July 1, a significant change was made in the O's defensive alignment. Despite considerable controversy, Weaver took the young man who had played so well at 3rd base and moved him one spot to the right, to shortstop, where a couple of post-Belanger moves had not panned out. The kid was up to the challenge.

By the all-star break, the O's were in 3rd place with a modest 44-38 record, but were only 3½ games back of the division-leading Brewers.

Just after intermission, the O's put together a seven-game winning streak, and things were looking up. On July 28, they were 54-41 and only two games behind. Then, the bottom nearly fell out.

RELAPSE

Over the next three weeks (starting July 29), the baseball season, for all intents and purposes, almost ended in Baltimore. Playing a heavy road schedule, the Birds lost 16 of 23, reaching the depths on August 19, when they took a 9-3 pasting at the hands of the Twins in Minneapolis. It was the fifth straight loss for an ailing Scott McGregor.

The groggy O's were now 7½ games back and the prospects were, indeed, bleak. What they didn't know was that the pennant race was to begin tomorrow.

THE LAST SIX WEEKS

Over the years, Weaver's Orioles have been big winners down the stretch and this was no exception (in 15 years Weaver teams compiled a .638 w-l percentage in Sep.-Oct.).

Suddenly, the Orioles got hot and won 7 in a row (for the 2nd time). They lost one, then won 10 straight. . . They were 17-1, then 23-4, then 27-5 (the best long stretch in club history), and finally, on the next to last day of the season, they had gone 33-10 (.767), in a 6-week stretch and were tied for first place.

Murray, the leader of this club and unquestionably its most valuable player, hit 13 homers and drove in 45 runs during those 43 games; Cal Junior chipped in with 31 rbi and 11 homers in that same period (Cal set O's rookie records for home runs-28 and rbi-93 in a season), and settled in at shortstop; the irrepressible John Lowenstein, on a season-long high, continued to hammer home runs at a personal record pace (his 24 homers were twice his best previous output). Everyone contributed, even rookie Glenn Gulliver, a former Tiger farmhand, who came up from Rochester in mid-July because of his knack for getting on base (He reached safely in 42 of his 46 starts. . . Despite a .200 batting average, he had a .363 on-base percentage, thanks to 37 walks).

With McGregor hurting and Tim Stoddard out for the rest of the year following an injury in early September, the gentleman from New Hampshire, Mike Flanagan, who had been beset by injury since his '79 Cy Young year, became the Flanagan of old.

Sammy Stewart stepped into Stoddard's short relief role, and the youngest player in the majors (for most of this year) rookie Storm Davis (age 20), was thrown into the breach when things got tough and became a winning pitcher. . . They said he was a clone of 3-time Cy Young winner Jim Palmer, in his pitching mannerisms, and it remained for the ever-witty Flanagan to nickname him "Cy Clone."

The exciting run for the pennant reached one of several zeniths during a week in mid-September which started with 5 straight wins over the Yankees and ended with a game-winning homer by Rich Dauer in the 10th inning against Cleveland on "Thanks Earl" Day before 41,000 emotionally charged fans at Memorial Stadium. Dauer's blast was the last of many tributes to the retiring manager on that beautiful Sunday afternoon. There wasn't a dry eye in sight.

ON THE BRINK OF ELIMINATION

On September 20 (the day after the dramatic "Thanks Earl" Day victory) the O's downed Detroit at home, 3-1, to run their record since August 19 to 27-5.

In the next three days, however, the wheels nearly fell off the cart. In two losses to the Tigers and one to the Brewers at Milwaukee on Friday the 24th, the O's were out-scored 36 to 12 and now trailed the Wallbangers by 4 big games.

On Saturday, Palmer hurled a 4-hitter to rout Pete Vuckovich, 7-2, and the next afternoon Dennis and Tippy Martinez combined to beat Mike Caldwell, 5-2. The big story in that game, though, was the game-saving 8th-inning throw by rookie centerfielder John Shelby.

The O's took a 3-1 lead into that inning, but Robin Yount narrowed the gap to 1 with an rbi single and pushed the tying run, in the person of Bob Skube, to 3rd base with one out. Cecil Cooper then hit a fly ball to medium center. . . Shelby backed off the ball, took a running start, caught it and threw a perfect strike to Rick Dempsey to nail Skube and end the inning. . . The O's scored 2 more in the 9th and won it, 5-2.

After those 2 straight wins at County Stadium, the Birds flew to Detroit where they lost 9-6 on Tuesday, and 3-2 Wednesday on John Wockenfuss' 9th-inning home run. Meanwhile, the Brewers had beaten Boston twice and their magic number was down to 2. There was now almost no margin for error.

In the final game at Detroit, Thursday the 30th, the Birds overcame a 5-2 deficit with a dramatic 4-run 9th-inning rally, and that 6-5 victory combined with the Red Sox' win over the Brewers set the stage for the showdown in Baltimore.

OCTOBER WEEKEND

FRIDAY

The O's were still breathing, but the pulse was faint as they faced the prospect of beating Milwaukee in both ends of the Friday doubleheader just to "stay alive" (the June 16 9-inning tie had to be replayed in its entirety, necessitating the doubleheader).

To accomplish that mean feat they had to beat Milwaukee's top two winners, Vuckovich and Caldwell again, and beat them they did (Baltimore had a 5-0 combined record against that pair in '82).

In the opener they pounded Vuckovich and 3 successors for 15 hits and an 8-3 win behind Dennis and Tippy, and in the nightcap a strong route-going 6-hitter by rookie Davis plus 4 home runs off Caldwell (by Murray, Ripken, Sakata, and Shelby—his first in the big leagues) produced a 7-1 win. A crowd of 51,883, 2nd largest in club history, chanted "sweep, sweep, sweep," and the noise was deafening throughout the long and satisfying evening.

SATURDAY

Having already violated overwhelming odds with the doubleheader sweep, the O's chances of winning Saturday and forcing a tie with one game to go seemed even slimmer. But, the Birds came through, jumped on Doc Medich, Moose Haas, and Dwight Bernard for 18 hits and won going away, 11-3, as Scott McGregor and Sammy Stewart combined on a 6-hitter.

It was the O's fifth straight win over the Brewers, and in those first three weekend games they out-scored them 26-7 and out-hit them 46-24. Rich Dauer was 7-for-13 with 4 rbi in the 3 games; and Jim Dwyer, thru Saturday, had reached safely 13 straight times.

SUNDAY

Now the entire season boiled down to that one final game, Jim Palmer vs. Don Sutton.

Palmer struggled into the 6th yielding 3 home runs along the way, 2 of them to A.L. "mvp" Yount who later added a triple off Tippy, while Sutton held the O's to one run thru 7. . . a home run by Glenn Gulliver, his first in the majors.

Two walks and a two-out rbi single by Terry Crowley (his 103rd career pinch-hit) in the 8th had brought the O's within 3 when Joe Nolan came on as a pinch-hitter. He stroked an opposite field fly ball down the left field line that would have produced two more runs EXCEPT that (1) 3rd base umpire Rich Garcia called it foul, and (2) Ben Oglivie made Garcia's call academic anyway by making a brilliant sliding catch in the corner to end the inning. The Brewers scored 5 times in the 9th to put it away and capture their first divisional title.

FOND FAREWELL

While the eastern division champs were celebrating in the middle of the field, the 51,462 in attendance remained in their seats. What followed was perhaps the most heart-warming and emotional display of home-town affection ever displayed at Memorial Stadium.

They stayed to cheer for the retiring Earl Weaver and his players, and they watched as the gracious winning manager, Harvey Kuenn, came over to the O's dugout to congratulate Earl for a great fight and superb career. Then, after the curtain calls had been completed, Earl and his players retreated to the clubhouse, but the fans stayed on and chanted, "We want Earl." They wanted one more chance to honor the man who had provided so much excitement and enjoyment over the past 14½ years.

Finally, after dispensing with his mandatory post-game chores, Earl returned to the field for one last long and loud reception. He led them all in an O-R-I-O-L-E-S cheer, and then it was over.

Howard Cosell, a sometime critic of Baltimore in the past years, described this "remarkable scene" eloquently when he said, "It was a moment for Baltimore to show the world, and it did. That there's something bigger than winning. That losing can create it's own very special treasure."

* * * *

Back in mid-August, when the Orioles were in the throes of their nearly fatal slump, there was talk that Earl's "lame duck" status might be hurting the club's chances to win. Owner Edward Bennett Williams considered the charge serious enough to address his players on that subject in a closed clubhouse session at Fenway Park.

When he had completed his remarks, Richie Dauer leaped up and yelled, "Let's go out and win one for the Duck." They very nearly did.

ORIOLES VS. OPPONENTS—1982

vs. BOSTON ('82: 4-9... Lifetime: 253-261): The O's 4-9 record was their worst ever against the Red Sox and enabled the Carmines to improve their lifetime mark to 261-253. Boston is the only club in the league with an edge over the Birds in 29 Baltimore seasons (starting '54).

Season Series: The Red Sox out-scored the O's 65-43 and out-homered them 13-9. In the pitching department, the Sox had a 2.97 era compared to Baltimore's 5.02.

HR Record Tied: The 7 home runs in the 2nd game of the Aug. 3 doubleheader by the Red Sox-4 (Evans, Rice, Lansford, Stapleton) and Orioles-3 (Murray, Sakata, Dwyer) tied a Memorial Stadium record set in '66 and equalled in '77.

Red Sox Batting: Dwight Evans led Boston vs. the O's with a .339 average (19-for-56), 13 runs, 4 homers, & 12 rbi.

Carl Yastrzemski batted only .200 (7-for-35), but still has a lifetime mark of .296 (354-for-1196) against the O's with 33 home runs. He ranks 2nd among all actives in homers vs. the O's behind Reggie Jackson-39.

Jim Rice is hitting .336 (134-for-399) lifetime against Baltimore with 26 home runs and 81 rbi in 102 games. Over the past 6 seasons he has driven in 59 runs in 66 games vs. the O's. See Tony Armas vs. O's under "Oakland."

Lifetime vs. Palmer—In 54 games Yastrzemski has a .244 average (40-for-164) with 4 hr, 19 rbi, & 27 walks... Rice is batting .232 (19-for-82), but has hit 9 homers off Jim (8 of them solos). All of Rice's 11 rbi in 24 games have come on home runs, including one 3-run shot... Remy.122 (9-for-72), 0 hr... Armas.194 (6-for-31), 2 hr... Newman.182 (4-for-22), 1 hr... See more on Palmer below.

Red Sox Pitching: The Sox blanked the Birds in 3 of their 9 victories (John Tudor, Eckersley, and Mike Torrez-Bob Stanley).

Tudor, who was 3-0 in 3 '82 starts vs. the O's, has become an Orioles nemesis since his inglorious debut vs. the Birds, in Baltimore, on Sep. 16, '79. As a starter that day, he worked only 0.1 inning and was peppered for 6 hits and 6 runs (earned).

Since that loss, however, Tudor is 4-0 in 5 appearances (4 starts) while yielding only 4 runs (earned) and 20 hits in 31.1 innings (era 1.14)... In Baltimore, where he is 3-1 lifetime, Tudor has given up only 2 runs in his last 21.1 innings (0.84 era).

Eckersley was 2-0 and is now 9-4 lifetime, though only 5-7 since winning his first 4 career decisions vs. Baltimore while with Cleveland.

Torrez, though he pitched 4 scoreless innings in a combined shutout with Stanley on Aug. 15, was 0-0 in 2 starts. In the last 4 years, Torrez is 0-5 vs. the O's, having yielded 52 hits, 13 walks, and 36 earned runs in 33.1 innings (era 9.72). He was 2-7 with Boston, and 5-9 lifetime against Baltimore before trade to Mets over the winter. See Brian Kingman under Oakland.

Orioles Batting: Eddie Murray hit .380 (19-for-50), 2 hr, & 6 rbi and now has a .300 career average (83-for-277) against the Bosox with 16 homers and 48 rbi in 70 games.

Jim Dwyer is also a .300 (9-for-30) lifetime hitter vs. Boston... Al Bumbry batted .349 (15-for-43) in '82, and Lenn Sakata, who had 6 homers all year, hit 2 against the Carmines.

Orioles Pitching: The old bromide about Red Sox eating up left-handers held true in '82 for the O's. Baltimore lefties were 2-7 (McGregor 1-3, Flanagan 0-3, Grimsley 0-1, and Tippy 1-0).

Dennis (2-1) was the only Oriole to beat the Sox twice (Tippy and Storm Davis had the other wins). Dennis has worked more games (25), more innings (168.2), and recorded more decisions (21, 9-12) vs. Boston than against any other opponent by a wide margin.

Palmer's 57 career appearances and 55 starts vs. the Red Sox are also personal highs against a single adversary. He has completed 25 of the 55 starts (but is only 15-10) and has worked 8 or more innings 34 times (including extra innings 6 times). He's 20-16 lifetime. . . Jim has not had a decision vs. Boston since losing 1-0 to Tudor on July 5, '80.

Flanagan is 6-9 lifetime and McGregor 3-8.

vs. CALIFORNIA ('82: 7-5. . . Lifetime: 171-139): Over the last 4 seasons (starting '79) the O's are 35-17 (.673) against the Angels (including 3-1 in '79 ALCS), and 18-8 (.692) at Anaheim. Lifetime at Anaheim (starting '66), they are 59-52 (inc. 1-1 in '79 ALCS).

West Coast Clubs: Over the last 5 years (starting '78), the O's have generally done well all over the west coast with a 56-31 (.644) record at California, Oakland and Seattle. In the past 6 years (starting '77), the O's overall record (home and away) vs. the 3 west coast clubs is 135-69 (.662).

Angels Batting: Don Baylor, now with the Yankees, was the Angels most damaging hitter vs. the O's last year. He hit .340 (16-for-47) with 4 hr & 13 rbi in 12 games, but Reggie did his share (.333, 13-for-39, 4 hr & 10 rbi).

Lifetime in 175 games vs. the O's (including 12 ALCS) Reggie is batting .263 (164-for-62) with 39 homers (incl. 2 in ALCS) & 10 rbi. He ranks in a tie with Rocky Colavito for 4th place in home runs among O's opponents, past & present, behind: Killebrew-70, Mantle-44 and Kaline-40. He's drawn 86 walks and fanned 156 times.

Doug DeCinces in his first year away from Balmer batted .333 (13-for-39) with one hr & 3 rbi. . . Juan Beniquez went 8-for-18 (.444).

Rod Carew has a .331 career average in the A.L. (2672-for-8071). In 166 games vs. Baltimore, he is hitting .311 (198-for-639). Carew has hit only 4 of his 85 career homers against the O's (3 of them at M.S.), and only one in the last 11 seasons (off Tim Stoddard on May 20, '81). That's one homer in 113 games since he connected off Dave McNally at Baltimore on Aug. 22, '77.

Angels Pitching: Steve Renko was 2-0 in '82 and has won 3 straight vs. the O's (all with Angels) since his last loss to them on Sep. 30, '80. . . He's 4-3 lifetime. . . Angel Moreno was 0-2. . . Geoff Zahn, 1-8 lifetime, did not appear against Baltimore in '82.

O's Batting: Cal Ripken-.310 (13-for-42) was the most productive Oriole vs. the Angels with 12 rbi in 12 games while Gary Roenicke led in homers (4)—all in the first 6 games. . . The O's leading lifetime regular is Eddie Murray-.314 (82-for-261). . . Dan Ford's average of .298 (78-for-262) is his highest against one opponent.

O's Pitching: Scott McGregor was 3-1 and ran his winning streak to 12 straight vs. the Angels (incl. '79 ALCS) before he lost on July 19 at Baltimore, 6-5, to Renko. It was his first loss to them since Aug. 18, '78. During the streak, he completed 7 of 12 starts, had a 2.09 era (99 ip, 79 h, 23 er) and held Cal to a .219 average (79-for-361).

The only multiple loser for the O's in the season series was Dennis Martinez (1-2). Jim Palmer was 1-0 to boost his lifetime record to 25-10 vs. the Angels.

vs. CHICAGO ('82: 5-7. . . Lifetime: 239-217): The O's were 0-6 at Comiskey and have now lost 10 in a row there since Scott McGregor beat Britt Burns on July 10, '80. . . The O's were 0-12 in 2 western parks (Chi. & K.C.), and, if you add their 1-5 mark in Fenway, they were 1-17 in 3 foreign ports.

The Chisox have won 2 straight season series and boast a 13-8 edge in those 2 years. . . Both clubs were streaky in '82. . . The Sox won the first 4, the O's the next 5, and Chicago the last 3. During their 9 game losing streak in April, the Birds lost 4 games to the Sox.

Chisox Batting: Greg Luzinski with 9 rbi and 2 hr in 12 games was the biggest run producer in the series. . . In his 2 A.L. seasons Luzinski is batting .315 (23-for-73) with 3 hr & 10 rbi in 20 games vs. Balmer. . . The Sox' top hitters in '82 were Ron LeFlore-.500 (15-for-30) and Rudy Law-.407 (11-for-27). . . Mike Squires has a .320 (24-for-75) lifetime average vs. the O's.

Tony Bernazard went 17-for-36 (.488) against Baltimore in '81, his first A.L. season, and drove in the game winning run in 4 of the 6 Sox victories. . . Last year he hit only .170 (8-for-47). . . His two year average is .301 (25-for-83).

Chisox Pitching: The league's top winner in '82, Lamarr Hoyt (19-15) had the Birds to thank for 3 quick victories in relief in a 7 day period in April (17th, 18th & 23rd) during his 9 game winning streak at the start of the season (the Sox won first 4 games of the season series and he was the victor in 3 of them).

Despite that success, the Birds tagged him for 15 hits and 8 runs (7 earned) in 9.1 innings over 4 games, including a no decision start on Aug. 9. . . . He's 3-2 lifetime.

Steve Trout, now with the Cubs, pitched a 3-hitter against the O's on Apr. 25, the lowest hit game of his career, but lost to Dennis 2-1, on a 2-run homer by Rick Dempsey. . . . He's 1-6 lifetime and has lost 5 straight since he shutout Mike Flanagan 7-0 at Baltimore on Aug. 13, '79.

Jerry Koosman was 0-1 and is now 0-5 lifetime in the A.L. vs. the Birds whom he hasn't beaten since winning games 2 & 5 of the '69 WS for the Mets.

Orioles Batting: Murray hit .551 (23-for-45) vs. Sox in '82 with 2 hr & 7 rbi. . . . His on-base percentage was .551 (27-for-49). . . . Gary Roenicke led in hr-3 and rbi-9 while batting .320 (8-for-25).

Lenn Sakata went 0-for-18 in '82 and is now 0-for-52 lifetime against the Sox. Cal Ripken hit only .081 (3-for-37), Dan Ford batted .122 (5-for-41) and Ken Singleton checked in at .171 (7-for-41) with no hr though he did draw 12 walks. In '81, Ken batted .438 (14-for-32) vs. Chicago with 4 hr.

Two Orioles have .300 lifetime averages vs. Chicago: Murray-.310 (70-for-226), 14 hr and Terry Crowley-.316 (18-for-57).

Orioles Pitching: Dennis, Tippy & McGregor were all 1-2 and Palmer was 0-1 in 4 starts (6.64 era, 20.1 ip, 27 h, 15 er), but is still 13-3 (and 6-1 at home) vs. Chisox since June 16, '74 and 24-10 lifetime. . . . Stewart & Flanagan were each 1-0.

vs. CLEVELAND ('82: 6-7. . . Lifetime: 259-256): Cleveland won 5 of the first 7 games then held on to win the season series thanks largely to Rick Sutcliffe (3-0) and a 2.98 Indians team era (see more below).

29 Year Rivalry: The O's, who own a skimpy 3 game lead lifetime vs. Cleveland, trailed the Indians 11-55 after the Birds' first 3 years in the League ('54 3-19; '55 3-19; '56 5-17), and were down 40-90 after 6 seasons (thru '59). . . . The Birds finally went ahead of the tribe in lifetime wins for the first time ever in June '79. In the last 14 years (starting '69), the O's are 133-86 (.607) vs. Cleveland.

Tribe Sweep in Baltimore: The Indians swept the Orioles in 3 games at Baltimore June 29-30, July 1, and out-scored them in that set 24-4. It was the only series sweep by a visiting club at Memorial Stadium in '82.

Von Hayes had the gwrbi in all 3 Tribe victories and the O's pitching staff contributed 3 bases loaded walks plus 2 run-scoring wild pitches in the series.

Indians Pitching: Sutcliffe in compiling his 3-0 record in 3 starts didn't allow an earned run in 24 innings (he permitted 2 unearned tallies) while giving up only 11 hits. He walked 14 and fanned 16.

In his Sep. 17th win at Baltimore, Sutcliffe threw the eye-popping total of 172 pitches in 8 innings. At 3:31 that was the 2nd longest 9-inning game in Memorial Stadium history. No other pitcher won or lost more than one game for Cleveland.

Len Barker is 2-4 with a no decision in his last 7 starts vs. Baltimore (3-7 lifetime). In 6 of those starts he has opposed Scott McGregor and is 0-4 against him in that stretch.

Indians Batting: Hayes won't have the Orioles to kick around anymore (unless it's in post-season) which is a plus for Baltimore. The rookie outfielder, now with the Phillies, drove in 18 runs in 12 games vs. the O's while batting .380 (19-for-30). His 3 home runs were half of Cleveland's total in the 13 game season series.

However, the O's were able to contain the bats of Andre Thornton, Toby Harrah and Mike Hargrove who batted a combined .212 (31-for-146) with only one homer and 9 rbi. Each played in all 13 games. Thornton hit .239 (11-for-46) with 1 hr & 6 rbi, Harrah .220 (11-for-50) with 0 hr & 3 rbi and Hargrove-.180 (9-for-50) with no homers or rbi.

The Indians stole 15 bases in 17 tries including Alan Bannister's 5-for-5, Jack Perconte's 4-for-5 and Mike Fischlin's 4-for-5.

Orioles Batting: Eddie Murray hit .413 (19-for-46) vs. the Tribe with 2 hr & 10 rbi and the rest of the club, without him, batted .210 (83-for-395). Eddie also walked 9 times & had an on-base percentage of .509 (28-for-55). Lifetime he is batting .340 (96-for-282) against the Indians.

Orioles Pitching: Mike Flanagan (2-1) was the only 2-time winner vs. Cleveland while Dennis Martinez (1-3) was the only multiple loser. . . . Jim Palmer gave up only one run in 14 innings over 2 starts (0.64) and was 1-0.

He pitched 7 shutout innings on Sep. 12 at Cleveland then came out and the Birds promptly gave up 3 runs in the 8th and lost 3-0 on Sutcliffe's 3-hitter. . . Palmer is 6-0 at Cleveland in his last 8 starts since losing to Stan Thomas there on Sep. 18, '76.

Lifetime, Jim is 28-10 vs. the Tribe. The only club he's beaten more often is the Yankees (29).

vs. DETROIT ('82: 7-6. . . Lifetime: 277-245): The Tigers very nearly made the Orioles' final weekend series against Milwaukee academic. . . They beat the Birds 4 straight times—on Sep. 21 and 23 at Baltimore and Sep. 28 and 29 at Detroit (and out-scored the O's in those 4 games 33-14). On Sep. 30 another loss to Detroit coupled with a Milwaukee victory in Boston would have ended the pennant race.

However, Milwaukee lost their game, and the Orioles, trailing 5-2 in the 9th at Detroit, came back to win, 6-5, on a 4-run rally featuring Jim Dwyer's tying single and Gary Roenicke's gwrbi single with 2 down, plus gritty relief pitching by John Flinn. And, the race was still on.

Tigers Batting: Lance Parrish both tied and broke the Gus Triandos-Yogi Berra A.L. record for home runs by a catcher (30) in one season against the O's. . . He hit his 30th at Baltimore off Don Stanhouse on Sep. 21, then broke the record off Sammy Stewart at Detroit on the 28th.

John Wockenfuss, the Wilmington native, has made a career of pestering the O's. He hit 2 home runs in the final series at Detroit, the 2nd of which beat Tippy Martinez in the 9th inning on Sep. 29. Wockenfuss has hit 71 home runs in the majors, 13 of them against the Orioles. In '82, John went 8-for-16 vs. the O's.

The Tigers out-hit the O's .285 to .256 and out-homered them 21-13, but had only a 3-run edge, 63-60.

Leading Detroit hitters in the season series were Lou Whitaker-.458 (11-for-24), Chet Lemon-.383 (18-for-47), and Mike Ivie who hit 4 home runs in 6 games and batted .412 (7-for-17). . . The Tigers' classy shortstop, Alan Trammell, batted only .122 (5-for-41).

Two Bengal rookies Mike Laga (.364, 4-for-11) and Howard Johnson—no relation (.350, 7-for-20) made strong late-season impressions.

Tigers Pitching: Reliever Dave Rucker was 2-0 and allowed no runs in 3 appearances over 10.1 innings while holding the O's to 7 hits in 36 trips (.194). . . Jack Morris, on the other hand, was generally ineffective. In 4 starts he was 0-2 and yielded 27 hits plus 18 earned runs in 22.2 innings (7.15 era). Dan Petry was 1-1 in 4 starts with a 5.87 era (23 ip, 24 h, 15 er).

Milt Wilcox, who was once 0-10 lifetime vs. the O's (incl. '70 WS), has beaten them twice in his last 3 decisions and both victories have come on the same date, Sep. 21, in both '81 and '82. . . He is now 2-11 against Baltimore.

Orioles Batting: Cal Ripken led the O's with 4 homers vs. Detroit and shared the rbi lead (10) with Eddie Murray. . . Joe Nolan hit .346 (9-for-26), Jim Dwyer .333 (7-for-21), Al Bumbry .320 (16-for-50), and Lenn Sakata .316 (6-for-19).

Murray's 60 rbi (in 82 games) lifetime vs. Detroit represent a career high vs. one opponent. The Tigers are one of 4 clubs against which he has hit 16 homers, likewise a career high. Ken Singleton has also driven in 60 runs vs. Detroit and that, too, is his top figure.

Orioles Pitching: Scott McGregor was 10-1 lifetime vs. Detroit thru May 22, '81. Since then, he has lost 4 straight decisions to the Bengals. He was 0-1 in '82.

Jim Palmer was 2-0 in 4 starts and is now 21-11 lifetime.

vs. KANSAS CITY ('82: 4-8. . . Lifetime: 91-69): The O's have now won only one of the last 7 season series vs. the Royals ('81, 5-3). They have lost 3 and tied 3 in that period (beginning '76) and are 33-44 against K.C. in games.

Royals Stadium: The O's were 0-6 on the carpet and have now lost 7 straight there, since Tippy beat Dennis Leonard Apr. 17, '81. They've also dropped 9 of 10 at K.C. starting Aug. 12, '80. In 10 years at the new ballpark the O's have had a winning record there only once ('74, 4-2) and are 19-36 lifetime.

In 4 years at old Municipal Stadium ('69 thru '72), the Birds were 17-7.

Overall Orioles Edge: Despite the recent difficulties, the O's still have a .569 won-lost percentage (91-69) against the Royals and are 55-26 (.679) against them at Baltimore, including 4-2 in '82.

23 of First 24: The O's current margin was constructed largely in '69 & '70 when they beat the Royals 23 times in their first 24 meetings, including 23 straight after Dick Drago beat Dick Hall on May 9, '69, at Baltimore in the first game ever between the two clubs. Since that streak ended (Apr. 30, '71) the O's & Royals have gone 68-68.

Opening Days: In '83, the O's will play their 4th straight home opener against the Royals... The Birds have won each of the previous 3... Jim Palmer beat Dennis Leonard in '80, 12-2. In '81, Steve Stone beat Larry Gura, 5-3, and last year Sammy Stewart, in relief of Dennis Martinez, downed Leonard again, 13-5.

Those three openers drew 50,199 in '80; 50,317 in '81; and 51,958 in '82, the largest regular season crowd in Memorial Stadium history. The total for the three openers was 152, 474.

Ironically, the O's and Royals also opened the "2nd season" in strike-ridden '81 at Baltimore, and the O's also won that one, 3-2 in 12 innings (Tippy over Renie Martin).

The O's are 19-10 in openers and the Royals 5-9... Last year's 13-5 game set O's opening day records for most runs by O's (13); most runs, both clubs (18); most homers, O's (4); most homers, both clubs (6)... It was the Birds 5th straight opening day victory.

Royals Batting: Willie Wilson hit .368 (14-for-38) and stole 4 bases in 4 tries vs. the O's in '82 but drove in no runs and only scored 6 times... Hal McRae batted .341 (14-for-41) with 1 home run and 5 rbi.

George Brett hit 4 home runs against the Birds on a .267 average (12-for-45)... In the last 2 years, Brett has hit only .208 vs. the O's (16-for-77), but still maintains a .343 lifetime average (126-for-367) with 13 hr and 56 rbi in 97 games.

U.L. Washington hit 10 home runs in '82, 3 of them in one series vs. the O's at Baltimore from Aug. 6-8 (including 2 in one game off Scott McGregor Aug. 6).

Dick Howser's ejection by Bill Kunkel on Aug. 8 in Baltimore was his first ever as a big league manager.

Royals Pitching: Dave Frost, who went into the season with a 2-5 record vs. Baltimore lifetime, picked up 3 wins against the O's without a loss in '82 (Lamarr Hoyt of Chicago had a similar experience—see Chicago)... He won at K.C. on both Apr. 13 and 14 in relief, then earned a victory as a starter on Aug. 6 at Baltimore... In 4 games including 2 starts he had an 0.87 era (10.1 ip, 7 h, 1 er).

Leonard was 0-1 in 3 starts and was roughed up for 7 home runs, 14 earned runs, and 19 hits in 13.2 innings (era 9.22).

Ken Singleton's home run on Dan Quisenberry's 1st pitch on Aug. 7 represented the 1st earned run the K.C. relief ace has ever yielded the O's (and the only homer he's ever given up vs. Bal.). He had gone 23.1 innings over 16 appearances without being scored on legitimately. "Quiz" lost that game on 2 unearned runs the following inning and is now 1-1 with 6 saves in 17 lifetime appearances against the Birds, and has allowed that one earned run in 25 total innings (era 0.36).

Vida Blue was 1-1 and is now 10-8 lifetime vs. the O's (plus 1-2 in ALCS). He and Jim Palmer are 4-4 against each other lifetime (including 1-1 in ALCS).

Orioles Batting: Murray and Roenicke each hit 3 homers, and Dauer led the club with 7 rbi vs. K.C., despite a .206 average (7-for-34)... Roenicke hit .389 (14-for-36), Lowenstein .429 (6-for-14), Dempsey .364 (8-for-22).

Roenicke's 10 homers vs. K.C. represent a career high vs. one opponent. He hit 7 of those in '79... Singleton's .293 lifetime average (88-for-300) is the highest on the club against K.C. among veterans.

Orioles Pitching: Nobody had more than one win, and Dennis (1-2) was the only multiple loser... The only '82 Orioles pitchers with winning career records vs. K.C. are Palmer (21-11) and Tippy (3-2).

vs. MILWAUKEE ('82: 9-4... Lifetime: 127-71): The O's are 11-3 in season series vs. the Brewers (including Seattle Pilots in '69), and their .641 lifetime winning percentage is their 4th best against one club behind: (1) Toronto-.724 (55-21)... (2) Seattle-.694 (43-19)... (3) Texas (Washington)-.646 (204-112).

O's Out-Slug Brewers: In the 14 games between the O's and Brewers (including the June 16 tie game), the Birds out-hit Milwaukee .322 (164-for-510) to .243 (114-for-469); out-scored them 86 to 64 and out-homered them 22 to 16.

At County Stadium: The O's, who were 5-2 at Milwaukee in '82, have enjoyed considerable success at County Stadium where they are 60-35 (.632)... The Birds are also .632 (24-14) at Toronto, and have played .689 ball (42-19) at Texas. Against Milwaukee in Baltimore, the O's are 67-36 (.650).

During the 4 game series at Milwaukee June 7-8-9-10 (of which the O's won 3), the Birds batted .321 (50-for-156) with 19 extra base hits (2b-9, 3b-1, hr-9).

The O's batted .312 (82-for-263) vs. Milwaukee in 7 games at County Stadium and .332 (82-for-247) in 7 games at Baltimore...

9 innings following two rain delays was the 9th tie game in Memorial Stadium history, but the first since July 4, 1964. Four of the previous ones were curfew ties and are no longer possible under current rules (they'd be suspended). The game was played over as part of a double-header October 1st.

Pennant Race Capsule: The O's & Brewers met 7 times in the last 10 days of the season (O's were 5-2). After the Brewers clobbered the Birds, 15-6, in the first of those games Friday, Sep. 24 at Milwaukee, the O's trailed Milwaukee by 4.

They went on to win 5 in a row vs. the Wallbangers (hyphenated by 2 losses in 3 games at Detroit while the Brews were winning 2 of 3 at Boston) thus setting up the winner-take-all final game on Sunday, Oct. 3. . . . Until they dropped both ends of the Oct. 1 doubleheader, the Brewers hadn't lost a twin bill in over 2 years (9/17/80).

Previous Final Game Matchups: Only 3 times in this century has a pennant race come down to the final day of the regular season with (1) only 2 teams in the race. . . (2) those 2 teams tied in the standings. . . and (3) playing each other. The other two were:

'49—Yankees beat Boston, 5-3, Vic Raschi over Ellis Kinder . . . The big hit was a 3-run double by Jerry Coleman (Al Zarilla failed in a diving catch attempt).

'08—Cubs beat Giants, 5-3, Mordecai Brown over Christy Mathewson in a replay of the famous tie game two weeks earlier, precipitated by the Giants' Fred Merkle's failure to touch 2nd base (a mistake that cost the Giants the victory).

Additionally, there have been 7 post-season playoffs to determine a pennant or division winner, the first in '46 between the Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers. Since divisional play was initiated in '69, there have been 2 such playoffs: '78—Yankees at Boston and '80—Astros at Dodgers.

Brewers Batting: Robin Yount, whose 2 home runs and a triple on the decisive final day of the season led the Brewers to their first eastern division title, had 7 homers and 15 rbi in 13 games against the O's while batting .327 (18-for-55).

Ben Oglivie contributed 3 homers, in the season series and a sensational catch in the leftfield corner on a potentially troublesome drive by Joe Nolan in the 8th inning of that Oct. 3rd game with 2 on, 2 out and the O's down by 3.

Paul Molitor batted .352 (19-for-54) vs. the O's, though he also made 5 errors. In the last 2 years, Molitor has hit .380 (27-for-71) against Baltimore pitching and has a .317 (69-for-218) figure lifetime. He's also stolen 13 bases in 15 career attempts vs. the O's.

A significant factor in the O's overall '82 success in the rivalry was their ability to neutralize 3 big bats for most of the season—Ted Simmons-.163 (7-for-43). . . he was hitless in his first 20 at bats, Gorman Thomas-.163 (8-for-49) and even the hitherto unstoppable Cecil Cooper-.180 (9-for-50). Their combined average was .169 (24-for-142).

Cooper, who did deliver a home run and 2-run double in the last game, had hit over .300 vs. Baltimore for 4 straight years ('78 thru '81) and still has a .313 (81-for-259) lifetime average.

Brewers Pitching: The Brewers top 2 '82 starters were 0-5 collectively against the Birds—Pete Vuckovich (0-2) and Mike Caldwell (0-3). . . Baltimore native Haas was 0-2.

Caldwell, 3-8 lifetime, has pitched in 13 games vs. the O's since he joined the Brewers in '77 and the Birds have touched him for 17 home runs and a .316 (100-for-316) team average. Haas is 4-7 and Vuckovich 4-3 against the O's lifetime.

However, Don Sutton took up the slack by going 2-0 while picking up both Brewer wins in those final 7 games between the two clubs, including the title clincher. The other Milwaukee winners were Rollie Fingers & Bob McClure, both 1-0.

Orioles Batting: In '82 some 13 different Orioles hit home runs against Milwaukee and 11 hit over .300 (see Birds Out-Slug Brewers above) including Dwyer-.533 (8-for-15), Dauer-.388 (19-for-49) and Nolan-.438 (7-for-16). Nolan's first 2 homers in an Orioles uniform were hit off Moose Haas (June 9 & 14).

Murray who hit .345 (19-for-55) was the most productive Oriole with 4 homers and 12 rbi. In the last 2 years, Eddie has batted .397 (31-for-78) against Milwaukee with 7 homers and 20 rbi in 20 games.

Lenn Sakata, who broke in with the Brewers, has a .295 (18-for-61) average against the B's in 3 seasons (21 games). Lenn has hit 14 big league home runs, 5 of them off Milwaukee pitching.

John Shelby came up with one of the most critical plays in memory on Sunday, Sep. 26th at Milwaukee. The O's were leading 3-2 in the 8th with the tying run on 3rd and the lead run on 1st when Cooper hit a would-be sac fly to center. After the catch, Shelby delivered a perfect strike to the plate to nail Bob Skube, trying to score from 3rd, and end the inning. The O's scored 2 in the 9th and won 5-2.

Orioles Pitching: Scott McGregor, who hadn't had much prior success with Milwaukee, was 2-0 last year as was Dennis Martinez who is now 9-4 lifetime. Dennis earned 2 of the O's 5 victories vs. Milwaukee in the last 10 days. McGregor is 3-5. Jim Palmer had a 2-1 record and is now 22-10 against the Brewers.

vs. MINNESOTA ('82: 8-4 . . . Lifetime: 257-199): The O's are 20-4 (.833) vs. the Twins starting July 21, '80; 24-6 (.800) in the last 3 full seasons, and 32-10 (.762) in the past 4 years.

Home and Away: In '82 they broke even on the new carpet at "The Hump" while winning 5 of 6 at home.

The O's have gone 13-1 vs. Minny at Baltimore since Pete Redfern beat Steve Stone on May 5, '80. . . The one loss in that period was on May 5, '82 when Bobby Castillo bested Jim Palmer, 8-7. That defeat also ended a string of 12 straight Oriole triumphs over the Twins (home & away) that had extended back to '80.

O's Aid Twins: The Twins win over the Birds on June 4 snapped a 14 game losing streak for the Minnesotans. . . From May 11 thru June 9, the Griffs were 2-26 and both victories in that stretch were at the Orioles expense.

Nicaraguan Match-Up: On May 18, '82, for the first time in big league history, two Nicaraguans started against each other on the mound, the O's Dennis Martinez and Minnesota's Al Williams. It didn't amount to much. Dennis was ko'd in the 3rd and Williams in the 4th and neither earned a decision (Castillo beat Palmer, 8-7).

The only other Nicaraguan to have played in the majors was the O's Tony Chevez who pitched briefly for the Birds in '77.

Twins Batting: Gary Gaetti and Gary Ward each hit 3 homers vs. the O's, and Tom Brunansky was the leading rbi producer with 9 in 12 games. . . Sal Butera batted .368 (7-for-19). . . "Rookie of the year" runner-up to Cal Ripken, Kent Hrbek, batted .270 (10-for-34) with no hr & 4 rbi.

Twins Pitching: The ex-Dodger Castillo (2-1) earned 2 of the Twins' '82 triumphs including a complete game, 10-strikeouts, 9-3 victory over McGregor at Minny on Aug. 19. That was at the tag end of the O's 7-16 slump (from July 29 thru Aug. 19). The Birds started their 33-11 streak the following day at Texas.

Ron Davis (1-0, 1 sv) and Brad Havens (1-0) were the only other Minnesota winners. . . Both Jack O'Connor and Pete Redfern were 0-2. . . Despite his 0-13 overall record, Terry Felton picked up a save in 4 relief appearances against the O's while giving up only 5 hits and 1 earned run in 12.2 innings (0.71 era).

Orioles Batting: Eddie Murray was the most productive anti-Twin with 5 homers & 12 rbi with a .342 average (12-for-38) in 10 games. . . Singleton hit .355 (11-for-31), and Rip batted .326 (15-for-46) with 2 hr & 7 rbi. . . Terry Crowley was 6-for-12.

There are no fewer than nine Orioles with career averages over .300 against the Twins: Ayala, Crowley, Bonner, Dempsey, Murray, Ripken, Roenicke, Sakata, & Singleton. The highest average is Sakata's .375 (18-for-48). . . See the others on pages 33-34.

Orioles Pitching: Mike Flanagan was 3-0 in '82 vs. Minny and has now beaten the Twins 12 straight times since losing his first 2 career decisions, the latter on May 29, '77, to Dave Goltz (i.e., he's 12-2 lifetime). . .

Palmer was 1-1 to become a 20-game (20-11) winner lifetime vs. the Twins-nee Senators (not including his 2 pennant-clinching victories in the '69 & '70 ALCS). His 3-0 victory on Sep. 4 was his 5th career 1-hitter & 2nd vs. Minnesota.

Scott McGregor, at 1-2, was the only Oriole with a losing record vs. the Twins last year, but he still has an 8-3 career mark against them.

vs. NEW YORK ('82: 11-2 . . . Lifetime: 271-246): The O's won the season series for the 3rd straight year, and their .846 percentage was their best ever against the Yankees (topping the previous best .833, 15-3, in '66).

The O's are 25-10 vs. NY starting Apr. 30, '80. . . In the 13 '82 games, the Birds out-scored the Yankees 75 to 49.

Orioles vs. Yankees Lifetime: Baltimore is the only club with a lifetime winning record against the Yankees (271-246, .524). The Brewers (excluding '69 in Seattle) are 2nd best vs. New York at 90-99 (.476), and the Tigers are 3rd at 770-854, .474.

The O's were 32-76 (.296) in their first 5 years in the league against New York ('54 thru '58) but have since gone 239-170 (.584) in 24 seasons. . . They are 189-120 (.612) in the last 19 seasons, beginning '64.

Season Series: Over the last 19 years ('64 thru '82), the O's are 15-3-1 in seasons series against the Yankees (189-120, .612). New York captured the first 5 season series ('54 thru '58) but since that time, the O's are 17-5-2.

At Baltimore: The O's won all 7 games in Baltimore last year and have now captured 9 straight from the Bombers at Memorial Stadium since losing, 9-0, to Dave Righetti on Oct. 2, '81. . . Lifetime at home the O's hold a 143-115 edge.

At Yankee Stadium: The Birds were 4-2 in New York in '82 and are now 119-122 lifetime in "The House that Ruth Built," easily the best record of any visiting club. The Oakland A's (excluding Phil. & K.C.) rank 2nd at 33-42 (.429), and Minnesota (excluding Washington) is 3rd at 59-79 (.428).

In new Yankee Stadium which opened in '76, the O's are 28-22 (.560).

However, the O's are only 6-7 at Yankee Stadium in the past 2 seasons (they were 2-5 in '81), and 4 of their 7 defeats have been in "sudden death" style—home runs by Graig Nettles, Dave Revering, and Bobby Murcer in '81 and a 16th-inning single by Willie Randolph on June 19, '82.

In one 4-year stretch ('65 thru '68), the O's were 30-8 at Yankee Stadium and won 12 in a row there between May 1, '65 and June 21, '66.

Sweeps: The O's swept a 5-game series from the Bombers from Sep. 13 thru 16, '82, and the winning pitchers in the first 4 games had all started the season at Rochester (Mike Boddicker, John Flinn, Storm Davis, and Don Welch). . . It was the 1st major league victory for both Boddicker and Welch. . . Jim Palmer went the route in the 5th game to beat Righetti, 3-1.

That 5-game sweep was the 2nd of that length the O's have enjoyed at the Yankees' expense. They took 5 games from Ralph Houk's '62 pennant winners in Baltimore from Aug. 22 thru 24. The only other 5-game sweep in Orioles' history was against Minnesota, also at Baltimore, July 1 thru 3, '66.

In the 29-year rivalry with the Yankees, the O's hold a 31-29 edge in series sweeps (3 games minimum). . . They are 19-11 at home and 12-18 in New York.

Yankees Batting: Their 2 biggest guns were Roy Smalley (.353, 12-for-34, with 6 hr & 12 rbi) and Dave Winfield (.278, 15-for-54, 5 hr & 9 rbi). . . Winfield's grand slam home run off Dennis Martinez on Sep. 13 at Baltimore was the only bases-loaded shot allowed by the O's in '82 (the O's hit 8). Winfield hit 3 homers and Smalley 4 in that 5-game series in September.

The leading hitter was Randolph at .385 (20-for-52). He also walked 8 times and had a .467 on-base pct. (28-for-60).

Don Baylor, in his last 2 years with the Angels has hit 8 homers and driven in 23 runs in 24 games vs. Baltimore while batting .337 (31-for-92). . . During his A.L. career Steve Kemp has compiled a lifetime on-base percentage of .404 (111-for-275) against the Birds. . . He's batting .293 (68-for-232), has walked 42 times, and been hit with a pitch.

Yankees Pitching: Mike Morgan was 0-4 in 4 starts, while both Shane Rawley and Righetti were 0-2. The only Yankee winners were Jay Howell and Dave LaRoche, both 1-0. Morgan, now with Toronto, is 0-6 lifetime.

Ron Guidry was 0-1 in '82 and has now lost 5 straight decisions to the O's since his last win, on Aug. 6, '79, at New York (over Tippy). Lifetime he's 5-6.

Orioles Batting: Cal Ripken led the O's in homers-4, rbi-17, and runs-12, while batting .286 (14-for-49) in the 13 games. . . The only Oriole ever to drive in more runs vs. New York was Brooks Robinson (19 in '70). . . Brooks ('66) & Boog Powell ('69) have also had 17 rbi seasons against the Yankees.

Dan Ford batted .483 (14-for-29) and Benny Ayala .412 (7-for-17), while Gary Roenicke combined a .286 average (10-for-35) with 13 walks for an on-base percentage of .490 (24-for-49).

Joe Nolan, a .313 hitter vs. N.Y. (5-for-16), delivered a game-winning homer off Rich Gossage at Yankee Stadium in the 11th inning on June 20.

Lifetime, Benny Ayala is the only veteran '82 Oriole with a .300+ average (.329, 25-for-76, 3 hr).

Orioles Pitching: Nine different O's pitchers earned victories against the Yankees in '82, led by Tippy Martinez who was all but perfect in 9 appearances. He was 2-0 with 5 saves and didn't allow a run in 14.1 innings. Jim Palmer at 2-1 was the only other multiple winner, and he and Storm Davis were the only O's hurlers to lose to the Yankees.

Tippy, since coming over from the Yankees in the 10-player deal on June 15, '76, has appeared in 43 games against his former club (a career high vs. one team) and has compiled an 8-5 record with 7 saves plus a 2.44 era (59 ip, 50 h, 16 er, 4 hr).

On Sep. 14, '82, Tippy saved both ends of the doubleheader vs. the Yankees and also picked up a 3rd straight save in the Birds' win the following day.

Palmer is 29-16 lifetime vs. the Yankees and is 6-1 against them in his last 7 decisions (4 of those wins have been at Guidry's expense). . . He is 16-7 at Yankee Stadium (7-3 since it was renovated and reopened in '76).

Palmer leads all current pitchers in wins over New York and ranks 12th on the all-time list of Yankee tamers. His next victory will put him into a 5-way tie for 8th place (with Bob Feller, Chief Bender, George Mullin, and Hooks Dauss). . . Walter Johnson tops that list with 60 career victories.

Mike Flanagan, now 8-7 lifetime after a 1-0 '82, has been streaky vs. New York. He started his career 1-2, then won 5 straight and followed that with a 5-game losing streak. He's now working on a 2-game win skein.

vs. OAKLAND ('82: 7-5. . . Lifetime-Oak. only. . . 104-78): The Orioles won their season series against the A's for the 6th straight time (starting '77) and over that stretch, the Birds are 48-21 (.696) (25-10 at Oakland and 23-11 at home), including 11-0 in '78.

Starting July 8, '76, the O's have gone 26-10 at Oakland including 3-3 in '82, and lifetime at the Coliseum they are 57-42 (.576) including 3-3 in ALCS.

Weaver vs. Martin: After 14 seasons of Weaver-Martin matchups, Earl came away with a 93-74 (.557) edge, including 3-0 in '69 ALCS when Martin managed the Twins.

A's Batting: Rickey Henderson stole 13 bases in 18 attempts vs. the O's (.722) and was picked off once by Palmer. . . His season percentage was .756 (130 sb, 42 cs). . . Lifetime against the O's, Henderson has swiped 26 and been thrown out 8 times (.765).

Henderson has a .333 (51-for-153) lifetime average against the O's and with 30 walks his on-base percentage is a hefty .443 (81-for-183).

The A's will miss Tony Armas (5 hr, 9 rbi in '82) when they play the O's. . . In his last 19 games against Baltimore, Armas has hit 11 home runs and driven in 21. . . In his last 3 years, he has 15 homers and 33 rbi in 36 games.

The leading A's hitter vs. Baltimore in '82 was Dan Meyer-370 (10-for-27).

A's Pitching: Dave Beard was 3-0 with a save in 7 relief appearances while yielding only 1 earned run and 8 hits in 9 innings (9 bb, 5 so). . . The only other Oakland winners were Mike Norris and Tom Underwood, both 1-0.

Matt Keough was 0-3 and is now 1-8 lifetime vs. the O's. . . He's lost 4 straight since his lone win on Sep. 4, '80, a 7-1 triumph over Mike Flanagan.

Brian Kingman, now with Boston, was 0-2 and is now 0-4. . . Kingman was ejected in the 7th inning of a game in Baltimore July 25. After a Lowenstein home run (his 2nd that day off Kingman), he threw a high tight pitch to Ripken and was warned by umpire Durwood Merrill. Kingman then argued hotly and was quickly ejected.

Orioles Batting: Lowenstein was the Orioles hitting leader against the A's. He batted .385 (10-for-26) with 5 homers and 10 rbi in 10 games and drew 5 walks which gave him a .484 on-base average (15-for-31). . . Singleton hit .326 (15-for-46) with 1 hr and 10 rbi in 12 games.

Dan Ford is a .297 lifetime hitter (93-for-313) vs. the A's and his 15 homers against them is a personal high against a single club.

Orioles Pitching: McGregor was 3-0 in 4 starts and is now 6-3 lifetime vs. Oakland. . . Flanagan was 0-1 but is 12-4 lifetime and is still 8-0 against the A's at Oakland. . . Palmer (1-0) became a 20-game winner (lost 14) lifetime vs. the A's. He also beat the A's in the 3rd and final game of the '71 ALCS.

vs. SEATTLE ('82: 7-5. . . Lifetime: 43-19): The O's are 5-0 with one tie in 6 season series against the Mariners. They are 18-13 lifetime in the Kingdome and 25-6 against the Mariners in Baltimore.

At Baltimore: The M's lost their first 14 games at Memorial Stadium until Mike Parrott beat Sammy Stewart on July 25, '79. . . From that point thru '82 they are 6-11. The M's have won only one series in Baltimore in 12 attempts. That was June 12-14-15, '80 when they took 2 of 3 games from the Birds.

Mariners Batting: Rookie Dave Henderson batted .565 (12-for-23), the highest average among all Orioles' opponents with 20 or more at bats. He hit 2 homers, drove in 6 runs in 7 games and had an on-base percentage of .615 (16-for-26).

Richie Zisk in 2 years with the Mariners had found O's pitching to his liking. He's batted .415 (22-for-53) with 4 homers and 8 rbi in 13 games.

Mariners Pitching: Bill Caudill, the M's relief pitching sensation, was 2-0 with one save in 4 games during which he allowed no runs in 4.2 innings, only 2 hits and one walk (int.), and struck out 10 of the 16 batters he faced.

No other Mariner won more than one game, while both Gaylord Perry (12-16 lifetime) and Jim Beattie (1-5 lifetime) were 0-2.

Orioles Batting: John Lowenstein was the O's top regular vs. Seattle in '82, with a .387 average (12-for-31), and his 4 home runs were also a club high. Eddie Murray, on the other hand, struggled last year vs. the M's: .114 (4-for-35), 0 hr & 2 rbi in 11 games.

Ken Singleton has specialized in tormenting Seattle pitchers during their 6 years in the A.L. In that period Ken has batted .333 (68-for-204), hit 20 home runs, and driven in 59 in 57 games. At the Kingdome only, he is 34-for-103 (.330) with 11 homers and 25 rbi in 28 games.

Al Bumbry has a .321 lifetime average vs. Seattle (67-for-209).

Orioles Pitching: Sammy Stewart (2-1) was the O's only multiple winner against the M's in '82. Jim Palmer has appeared in only 8 games lifetime vs. Seattle and is 2-3. At the Kingdome he is 0-2 having lost his first two lifetime starts there, both to Glenn Abbott in '77.

He didn't work at all at Seattle for four years ('78 thru '81) then made one start (no decision) on Aug. 25, '81, but did pick up a save with 4 hitless innings last year on May 14. In 4 games at the Dome lifetime he has allowed 11 earned runs and 13 hits in 13 innings and remains 0-2.

Dennis Martinez was 1-1 last year vs. Seattle, but still has an impressive 10-3 lifetime record.

vs. TEXAS ('82: 9-3. . . Lifetime: 69-51): The O's were 5-1 at Texas in '82 and have a 42-19 lifetime mark (.689) at Arlington Stadium, their best in any park on the road. Their 2nd best road records have been forged in Milwaukee (60-35) and Toronto (24-14)-both .632.

At home, however, despite a 4-2 edge in '82, the O's are only 27-32 against the Rangers since the latter moved to Texas in '72. The Rangers are the only club in the A.L. with a lifetime winning record at Memorial Stadium.

Rangers Batting: Despite a .136 average (3-for-22) in 7 games against Baltimore after coming over from the Yankees, Bucky Dent had 6 rbi, high for the Rangers against the Birds in '82.

Larry Parrish-.353 (12-for-34) and Buddy Bell-.341 (14-for-41) were the leading hitters, while Parrish and Billy Sample led in homers (2).

Lamar Johnson, who once hit in 23 straight games vs. Baltimore and was the O's leading nemesis for a long time, still has a .349 (75-for-215) career average against the Birds (highest among all active players with 100 or more at bats vs. O's) despite the fact that he has batted only .229 (11-for-48) the last 2 years.

John Grubb, with a .316 lifetime mark vs. the O's (36-for-114), has also slumped against the Birds the last two seasons, during which he has gone 9-for-41 (.195). Though he doesn't see much action, Bill Stein is 6-for-9 vs. the O's since he joined the Rangers two years ago, and has a lifetime .305 (50-for-164) average vs. Baltimore.

Rangers Pitching: Frank Tanana (1-2 in '82 and 11-7 lifetime) and Jon Matlack (1-2 in '82 and 3-2 lifetime) were multiple losers in the season series, and the only other Ranger to win a game was Steve Comer (1-1).

Comer pitched his first complete game in nearly 3 years when he beat the Orioles on August 27 at Baltimore. He had given up 27 hits and 11 earned runs over 14 innings in six previous '82 outings vs. the O's. However, he still holds a 5-2 record against the Birds in 15 lifetime appearances. . . Mike Smithson, the 6'8" former Red Sox farmhand, made his big league debut on Aug. 27 at Baltimore and lost to Palmer despite a complete game effort.

Orioles Batting: The O's batted .299 (127-for-425) vs. the Rangers as a club, led by John Lowenstein-.400 (10-for-25), Dan Ford-.389 (14-for-36), Rich Dauer-.378 (14-for-37), and Lenn Sakata-.355 (11-for-31). . . Eddie Murray and Cal Ripken were tops in homers (3), and Eddie paced the O's with 11 rbi vs. Texas.

Orioles Pitching: Palmer was 3-0 in 3 starts and is now 25-16 lifetime against the Rangers-Senators. . . Tippy Martinez, who was 1-0 with one save and allowed only one earned run in 5 appearances (5.1 ip), is undefeated lifetime against Texas. He is 5-0 with 6 saves in 23 appearances with a 2.11 era (42.2 ip, 24 h, 10 er).

Dennis was 2-1 (4-2 lifetime).

vs. TORONTO ('82: 10-3. . . Lifetime: 55-21): The O's have won all 6 season series vs. the Jays, and their .724 lifetime percentage is the Birds' best against a single opponent. They go into '83 with a 6-game winning streak against Toronto.

They are 42-9 (.824) since losing 7 of 9 games against the Jays between June 26 (nite of the 24-10 debacle) and Aug. 6, '78. That stretch included 6 straight losses for the Birds at Exhibition Stadium.

At Toronto: Despite that 6-game losing spell in '78, the O's lifetime percentage at Toronto-.632 (24-14) is tied for 2nd best on the road with Milwaukee (.60-35), behind their .689 (42-19) mark at Texas.

At Baltimore: The Birds record against the Jays at Memorial Stadium is even better-.816 (31-7). They are 29-4 since losing to Toronto at Baltimore on Sep. 19, '77 (that streak includes a 19-game winning streak at M.S. which ended May 3, '81).

However, the Jays accomplished a first last year when they captured a series in Baltimore, two games to one, May 21, 22, 23, '82. To that point they had lost 8 series and tied one at Memorial Stadium.

Blue Jays Batting: Ernie Whitt was the leading hitter for the Jays vs. Baltimore in '82 with a .476 (10-for-21) average, but the veteran Al Woods staggered thru an .050 (1-for-20) season against Orioles' pitching. Anthony Johnson, the former Expo, led the club in homers (2) and rbi (8), while batting .455 (5-for-11) in 7 games.

Blue Jays Pitching: The Jays' two aces, Dave Stieb and Jim Clancy were 0-4 vs. the O's last year (each was 0-2), and Luis Leal was 1-2. The combined career record of those 3 against Baltimore is 5-19—Stieb 1-6, Clancy 3-8, Leal 1-5.

Rookie Jim Gott (1-2 vs. O's) earned his first big league win on May 30 at Baltimore with a 6-inning, one-hit, shutout effort. Roy Lee Jackson blanked the Birds on no hits the rest of the way to preserve the 6-0 victory. Palmer was the loser. The only other Toronto winner in '82 vs. Baltimore was Joey McLaughlin in relief on May 29 (2nd game).

Orioles Batting: Rick Dempsey was the Birds top hitter at .423 (11-for-26) vs. Toronto, and Eddie Murray hit .385 (10-for-26) with 3 homers and 10 rbi in 8 games. Lenn Sakata batted .360 (9-for-25). Joe Nolan, though he had only one hit in 21 trips (.048), had 5 rbi in 6 games. His lone hit was a game-winning grand slam in the 10th inning on Aug. 24 off McLaughlin at Baltimore.

Lifetime, Murray is a .340 hitter (91-for-268) with 15 home runs and 51 rbi in 74 games vs. Toronto. . . Jim Dwyer is another who has excelled against the Jays. He has hit 6 (of his 20 A.L. career) homers off Toronto pitching while batting .340 (28-for-80). Al Bumbry is a .321 (67-for-209) lifetime hitter vs. the Jays.

Orioles Pitching: Mike Flanagan and Dennis were both 3-0 in '82. Mike is 15-4 lifetime overall with 4 shutouts. He's been unbeatable at home where he is a 10-0 lifetime in 10 starts vs. the Jays, with 9 complete games and a 1.11 era (11 er in 89 ip) and 3 shutouts. . . He is also working on a 6-game winning streak vs. Toronto since his last loss, on Sep. 12, '80, to McLaughlin (at Toronto).

Dennis has an 8-2 career record with a 1.75 era (87.2 ip, 17 er, 58 h) and 2 shutouts, and Scott McGregor (1-0 in '82) is 7-2 lifetime with a 2.48 (80 ip, 66 h, 22 er) and 3 shutouts.

The only Oriole to lose twice to Toronto in '82 was Sammy Stewart (1-2). Jim Palmer was 1-1, and his victory was a 4-hit (1-0) shutout at Toronto on August 31.

"ORIOLES DESIGNATED HITTERS"

In September, 1979, Mayor William Donald Schaefer and a select committee of Baltimoreans, working closely with the ballclub's front office, created the "Orioles Designated Hitters", an organization designed to increase significantly the sale of full season tickets.

The basic plan, patterned closely after the highly successful K. C. Royals' "Royal Lancers" program, was to enlist the talents of successful men and women from the area business community to serve as the principal sales force for the annual season ticket campaign.

Generally, a new candidate must sell approximately 25 new full season tickets to qualify for membership. Though a DH must re-qualify each year, the requirements for those who achieved membership in the preceding year are somewhat different and are based on a combination of renewals and new business.

Results from the first 3 years ('80 thru '82) attest to the soundness of the concept. In '80, when 28 of 45 original candidates qualified, Orioles full season sales leaped dramatically by 150% from 1623 to 4,018.

In '81 with 30 candidates qualifying, sales jumped another 30% to another record 5,215. Last year, there were 40 DH's and sales increased to an all-time high of 5,430. The goal for '83 is 6,000 +, and the DH candidates number 61, including 21 men and women attempting to qualify for the first time.

In each of the first 3 years Lou Michaelson has been the top selling DH. In '82 Chris Hartman was runner-up and Bill Lagonegro finished 3rd.

Rewards for members include a trip for 2 to spring training, a special custom "DH" blazer, use of a special "sky box" on the mezzanine level, and other valuable incentive prizes for top sellers. The Designated Hitters have their own board of directors, by-laws newsletter and softball team (last year's record is not available). They conduct their own meetings and pursue a highly active social program.

Mayor Schaefer, the 3 charter members of the organization (Owen Daly, Bill Beasman and Chris Hartman), Orioles Director for Business Affairs Bob Aylward, Sales Director Jon Richardson and former club vice-president Al Harazin (now with the Mets) were instrumental in initiating and directing the DH program thru its successful infancy.

ORIOLE ADVOCATES, INC.

The Oriole Advocates, Inc. is a unique non-profit corporation dedicated to promoting and stimulating interest in the game of baseball at both the amateur and professional levels. The organization, founded officially in July, 1960, comprises some 75 men and women drawn from a wide cross-section of the Baltimore-area business community.

Thru the years, the Advocates have made substantial financial contributions primarily to youth organizations, and have played a major role in the restoration of Babe Ruth's birthplace on Emory Street. Recently the Advocates provided the leadership in establishing the Baltimore Orioles "Hall of Fame" (see page 175). . . They have also become an essential arm of the Orioles' public relations and promotions program. On "souvenir giveaway" days at the stadium, it is the Advocates who see to it that every eligible person coming to the park receives the souvenir item.

Probably the biggest contribution of all, however, has been the formation and administration of the Junior Orioles program that began in '63 with 750 youngsters and reached an all-time high of 20,000 members (in '77). It is a massive undertaking, a quality "knothole" program that requires a great deal of time and effort.

The player's individual consecutive-game hitting streak shall be determined by the consecutive games in which the player appears and is not determined by his Club's games.

Save Rule (10:20): Credit a pitcher with a save when he is the finishing, but not the winning pitcher, and when he qualifies under one of the following conditions:

- (1) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
- (2) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck, or
- (3) he pitches effectively for at least three innings regardless of his club's lead.

The current rule was adopted in 1975. Saves became official for the first time in '69. . . The original rule was amended in '73 then revised again in '75.

ALL-STAR GAME NOTES

1982: Eddie Murray was the O's lone representative for the July 13 contest at Montreal as he was selected as a reserve by A.L. and Oakland manager Billy Martin. It was his 3rd all-star selection and marked the 2nd straight year he had been named to the A.L. squad. Eddie played the final 4 innings at 1st and was 0-for-1 at the plate with a walk in the National League's 4-1 win, the N.L.'s 11th straight victory and the 19th in the last 20 games. Orioles' coach Elrod Hendricks served as batting practice catcher for the American League squad.

Elected Starters: In '81, Ken Singleton became Baltimore's 1st elected starter since '76 when he finished 2nd to Reggie Jackson in the A.L. outfield balloting. He became the 3rd Orioles' player to homer in an all-star game (see below) when he connected off Tom Seaver in the August 9 game at Cleveland.

Other O's who have been elected to starting positions are Boog Powell ('70, '71), Brooks Robinson ('71, '72, '73, '74), Frank Robinson ('71), and Bobby Grich ('76). In addition, pitchers Jim Palmer ('70, '72, '77, '78) and Steve Stone ('80) have been chosen by the manager to start.

Selection of the starting team was returned to the fans in '70 under the sponsorship of the Gillette Company in cooperation with Major League Baseball. Following the ballot box "stuffing" incident in Cincinnati in '57, responsibility for choosing the starting teams was entrusted to major league players for 12 years ('58 thru '69). In '82 there were 9,347,447 votes cast.

Orioles All-Star MVPs: Three Orioles have won "mvp" honors in all-star competition: Billy O'Dell ('58), Brooks Robinson ('66) and Frank Robinson ('71).

O'Dell, the former Orioles lefthander who also pitched for the Giants, Braves and Pirates, hurled the last three innings of the only all-star game ever played in Baltimore and retired all nine batters he faced to protect a one run lead, thus giving the A.L. a 4-3 win.

Brooks won the '66 Arch Ward Memorial Trophy on the strength of a 3-for-4 effort at bat (including a triple) and an 8-for-8 performance afield. He was the first player from a losing team to be so honored.

Frank's fourth inning home run at Detroit in '71 put the A.L. on top to stay and earned him "mvp" honors. It was the first all-star victory since '62 for the A.L. which has not won an all-star game since '71.

FARM SYSTEM—1982

The Orioles' AAA team in Rochester qualified for the International League playoffs for the 3rd straight year with a 4th place finish (72-68) in the regular season. However, the Red Wings swept regular season champion Richmond in 3 games in the semifinals before losing to Tidewater, 3 games to none, in the championship series. Outfielder John Shelby was selected to the I.L. all-star team at the end of the season.

Baltimore's rookie club, the Bluefield Orioles, won the Appalachian League pennant with a 47-22 (.681) record, matching the 2nd best one season mark in the history of the Orioles' farm system. First-year manager John Hart was the loop's "manager of the year", and 4 O's were selected to the all-league team: 1st baseman Jim Traber (league rbi leader, 63), 3rd baseman Jeff Doerr, lefthanded pitcher Tandy Charley and outfielder Mike Vanderburg (utility).

Other Orioles' minor league all-stars were shortstop Jesus Alfaro for Charlotte (66-77) in the class AA Southern League and 3rd baseman Pat Dumouchelle at Hagerstown (71-85) in the class A Carolina League.

Baltimore's farm clubs finished with a cumulative record of 256-232 (.525) in '82, improving the O's minor league organization mark over the past 20 seasons to 6973-6315 (.525). The Orioles were chosen as the Topps' "Baseball Organization of the Year" in '66, '71, and '72.

CLYDE KLUTTZ MEMORIAL AWARD

Named in honor of the Orioles' director of player development who died in May 1979, the CLYDE KLUTTZ MEMORIAL AWARD is presented annually to the Baltimore organization player "who best exemplifies Clyde's integrity, desire, dedication, and loyalty to the game of baseball and the Baltimore Orioles." Clyde had spent 41 years in baseball when he passed away at the age of 61.

The winners of the Kluttz Award to date: 1979—Tom Eaton (2b); 1980—Cal Ripken, Jr. (3b); 1981—Victor Rodriguez (2b). The 1982 winner will be announced in April.

The major league draft is held annually at baseball's winter meetings and is followed with a separate selection by National Association clubs from class AAA to A levels. Until 1958 major league clubs could draft players within a range between $15,000 (for AAA players) and $2,000 (for class D players). In 1958 the price for big league drafts rose to $25,000.

However, in 1959, a first year player draft at the big league level was set up to discourage the payment of inordinately large bonus payments to free agents. The new rule provided that first year players could be selected at the major league level (if not protected on a major league team's 40 man roster) for $12,000. In 1961 an even lower draft price was set up for more recent first year players. That figure was $8,000.

That year, incidentally, the Baltimore organization set a record of sorts by being relieved of 19 eligible first year players (seven during the big league selections and 11 more during the minor league draft). In 1965 the first year player draft began to lose its significance and then disappeared in 1970.

He began his broadcasting career doing a high school sports show at WWDC in Washington, and later worked at stations in Rhode Island, Connecticut, and Virginia before coming to WFBR. He covered Baltimore's pro sports teams for the CBS Radio Network from '69 to '75 and was the weekend sports anchor at WMAR-TV for 3 years prior to joining the O's broadcasts.

Possessing an extensive background in both news and sports, Tom still participates in WFBR's award-winning discussion program, "Conference Call" as a regular panel member when not involved in baseball.

Brooks Robinson is one of only 182 men to have been elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame (not including those who may be chosen by the special committees in March). His playing credentials are well documented below.

But, they represent only the tip of the iceberg. What really distinguishes Brooks from the field are the unlimited intangibles that he brought to his game and to his team. Qualities that made him both the most important and most beloved Oriole of all time.

They are what truly qualify him for membership in the most prestigious institution in all of sport, The National Baseball Hall of Fame.

As Earl Weaver once said about him, "Brooks leads the league every year in everything that's right."

HALL OF FAME

92%: On January 12, Brooks was officially elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in a landslide. He received 92% of the votes cast (344 of 374) which was the 9th highest percentage in the history of the BBWAA Hall of Fame elections (surpassed only by Cobb, Aaron, Wagner, Ruth, Mays, Feller, Williams, and Musial).

14th on 1st Ballot: He became only the 14th player elected to the Hall in his first year of eligibility (excluding the 5 who were picked in the Hall's first election).

Marichal Also Earns Honor: Juan Marichal, the stylish former Giant righthander (243-142), joined Brooks, gaining 83.6% of the vote (313 of 374) on this his 3rd year of eligibility. He became the first Latin American elected to the Hall in a general election (Roberto Clemente and Martin DiHigo were both chosen in a special election) and the first from his country (Dominican Republic) to take his rightful place in Cooperstown.

Luis & The Killer: Harmon Killebrew, who produced 573 home runs in his big league career, was 12 votes shy of the 281 needed for election (75%) in his 2nd year of consideration. Luis Aparicio (in 4th year of eligibility), the great shortstop who played for the O's on their 1st world championship team ('66), was the biggest gainer with 252 votes, an increase of 78 from the year before (174)... Another ex-Oriole, Hoyt Wilhelm, ranked 5th with 243 votes.

Brooks 3rd Modern Oriole: Brooks, at the formal induction on July 31, will become the third Oriole to make it along with Frank Robinson (89%, 370 of 415) who was chosen on the 1st ballot a year ago along with Hank Aaron and Robin Roberts, the 286-game-winner who spent most of his career with the Phillies but pitched for the O's from '62 thru '65. Roberts entered the Hall in 1976 (87%, 337 of 388).

12th Major League Oriole of All-Time: Roger Bresnahan, Dan Brouthers, Candy Cummings, Hughie Jennings, Willie Keeler, Joe Kelley, Joe McGinnity, John McGraw, Robin Roberts, Frank Robinson, and Wilbert Robinson. Chief Bender, the former Philadelphia A's standout, never played with the O's but did pitch for the Baltimore Terrapins in the 1914 outlaw Federal League.

25th With Maryland Ties: In addition to the 12 former major league Orioles plus Chief Bender of the Terrapins (Federal League), there are 12 others in the Hall who have had a Maryland connection (year of induction follows name): Luke Appling-'64 (O's coach in '63); Frank (Home Run) Baker-'55 ('07 Eastern League O's & Trappe, Md. native); Jimmie Foxx-'51 (Sudlersville, Md. native); Burleigh Grimes-'64 (O's scout from '60 to '71); Lefty Grove-'47 (won 109 games for I.L. O's & 300 in A.L., native of Lonaconing, Md.); Rogers Hornsby-'42 (coach & pinch-hitter for '38 O's & manager in '39); Judy Johnson-'75 (Snow Hill native); Al Kaline-'80 (Baltimore native); Bob Lemon-'76 (International League Oriole); Rube Marquard-'71 ('27 O's & lived in Baltimore over a span of 6 decades); Babe Ruth-'36 (former International League Oriole and Baltimore native); George Weiss-'71 (O's G.M. '29-'31).

Induction: The induction will be held in Cooperstown on Sunday, July 31. On Monday, August 1, the annual Hall of Fame Game will be played at Doubleday Field between the Orioles (not a coincidence) and the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals.

PERSONAL

Brooks is doing color commentary on the Orioles' television network with Chuck Thompson for the 6th straight year (and 5th on WMAR, Channel 2, the Orioles' flagship station).

He is also active as a vice-president of Personal Management Associates (PMA)* and as a special assistant with the Crown Central Petroleum Company.

Brooks and his wife, Connie, a former United Air Lines flight attendant whom Brooks met on an Orioles' charter flight (K.C. to Boston) in 1959, have been married for 22 years. They live in Lutherville, Md. (north of Baltimore) with their four children: Brooks David (7/24/61), Chris (2/22/63), Michael (3/11/64), and Dianna (2/22/68).

Brooks' uniform #5 was officially retired on opening day, 1978, the year after he retired. Frank Robinson's #20 and Earl Weaver's #4 are the only other numbers that have been retired by the Orioles.

BIG LEAGUE CAREER

Brooks officially spent 20 years and 72 days as a player in the American League, spanning 23 seasons.

He played in 2,896 major league games, all of them with the Orioles, 7th on the all-time list (Hank Aaron leads at 3,298).

Only Carl Yastrzemski (3,189) and Ty Cobb (3,033) have played more American League games, and only 3 others in history have played more with one franchise: Yastrzemski (3,189), Aaron (3,076), and Stan Musial (3,026).

In Orioles' 29-year history, only one other third baseman has played as many as 200 games at third base (Doug DeCinces—792).

Gold Gloves: Won 16 straight "gold gloves" (Rawlings Sporting Goods/The Sporting News) from '60 thru '75 as the top defensive third baseman in the A.L. . . The string was snapped by Detroit's Aurelio Rodriguez in '76. . . Rodriguez, former Red Sox third baseman Frank Malzone ('57-'59) and the Yankees' Graig Nettles ('77) were the only others in the A.L. to have won a "gold glove" at that position while Brooks was active.

Believe-It-or-Not: Committed three errors in one inning against the A's in Baltimore on July 28, '71 (6th inning). . . O's won the game, however, when Frank Robinson hit a three-run homer in the 9th inning to erase an 0-2 deficit.

Winding Down, '76: Brooks started the '76 season as the Orioles' regular 3rd baseman. He started 27 of the first 28 games before being replaced by Doug DeCinces. From then on, he drew only 29 more starts in the O's final 103 games.

Nothing Is Forever, '77: His 268th and last home run provided one of the most emotional experiences in Orioles' history. It was April 19 at Memorial Stadium, the O's trailed the Indians, 5-2, in the 10th. With one out and runners on 1st and 2nd, Lee May singled in a run. The O's now trailed by 2 as Brooks came to the plate as a pinch-hitter for Larry Harlow. He ran the count to "3 & 2," fouled off a number of pitches, then hit a home run into the left field stands off southpaw Dave LaRoche to win the game 6-5.

There were only 4,826 fans at the ballpark that night, but none of them will ever forget the moment.

Brooks made his final actual appearance as a pinch-hitter at California on Friday, Aug. 5, and his last base hit was a June 3, 7th-inning single off lefthander Steve Mingori at K.C. the night the O's turned the game-winning triple play in the 9th.

His last game appearance at Memorial Stadium was on July 25 as a pinch-hitter against the Brewers, and his final start was at Seattle on July 30.

Signed for 1977 as player-coach, but became a coach exclusively on Sunday, Aug. 21, when he went on the voluntarily retired list (in Minnesota) to make room on the roster for catcher Rick Dempsey who was returning to duty after six weeks on the disabled list.

An Orioles' record regular season crowd of 51,798 attended "Thanks, Brooks" Day on Sunday, Sep. 18, against the Red Sox to pay tribute to the most important and beloved Oriole of modern times.

He was honored on a beautiful Sunday afternoon last September 19, designated as "Thanks Earl" Day and some 41,127 turned out to pay their respects during an emotional and moving one hour, 15 minute pre-game ceremony.

The dramatic quality of the day was further enhanced by Rich Dauer whose two out home run in the bottom of the 10th gave the O's a 4-2 win over Cleveland, and by an impromptu post-game fan demonstration of affection.

Then, after the final game of the season, exactly two weeks later, the fans remained in their seats following the loss to the Brewers to give Earl one last loud and long tribute (see page 40, "Fond Farewell").

Earl's #4 became the 3rd number to be retired by the Orioles, joining Frank Robinson's #20 and Brooks' #5 in that distinctive company.

Managing Record in Majors: Earl won 6 eastern division championships ('69, '70, '71, '73, '74 & '79), 4 American League pennants ('69, '70, '71, '79) and a world championship ('70) in 14½ years as the O's manager. He has finished 1st or 2nd 13 times in 15 tries (O's were 3rd in '72 and 4th in '78).

Under his leadership, Baltimore has won 90 or more games 12 times in 14 full years (including 100 or more 5 times).

At the time he replaced Hank Bauer as manager on July 11, '68, he had been serving as 1st base coach, having been brought up that season after a long career as manager in the O's farm system.

Won-Lost Percentage: Earl's won-lost percentage of .596 (1354-919) ranks 3rd on the all time list (5 years minimum & since 1900) behind Joe McCarthy-.614 (2126-1335) and Frank Selee-.598 (1299-872). Selee manager the Braves from '90-'01 and the Cubs from '02-05.

The other members of the "Top 5" are: 4th-Billy Southworth-.5934 (1064-729), and 5th-Frank Chance-.5929 (932-640).

Among veteran managers active last season (5 or more years), Earl led in percentage followed by: 2nd-Sparky Anderson-.576 (1146-842); 3rd-Tom LaSorda-.559 (517-408); 4th-Billy Martin-.545 (1036-865), 5th-Whitey Herzog-.543 (646-543), and 6th-Dick Williams-.529 (1156-1029). vs. Individual Managers: In head to head competition against his most frequent adversaries, Earl was: 119-75 (.613) against Ralph Houk; 33-21 (.611, incl. 3-1 in '70 WS) vs. Sparky Anderson; 46-34 (.575) against Gene Mauch, and .557 (93-74) vs. Billy Martin.

All-Time Victories: He ranks 17th on the all-time list in total career victories with 1354. Gene Mauch is 9th (1644) and Ralph Houk (1455) is 12th.

He is also 8th all-time in victories with one team and was 1st among actives at the end of last season. . . Connie Mack is the unchallenged leader at 3627. Only 9 others have managed the same club longer than Earl (14½ years, 2274 games). . . Mack managed the A's for 50 years (7590 games).

100 Wins: Earl won 100 or more games 5 times ('69, '70, '71, '79, '80), tying him with Connie Mack for 2nd place on that list behind Joe McCarthy (6).

Frank Chance and John McGraw each won 100 4 times while Sparky Anderson and Billy Southworth have had 3 "century" seasons. Ralph Houk is the only other active with 2 100 win seasons in his resume.

During Earl's first 3 full years ('69-'70-'71) his teams tied the major league record for most consecutive 100 win seasons (109-108-101) and set A.L. records for both most wins in 2 consecutive seasons (217) and 3 consecutive campaigns (318).

Sep.-Oct.: In 15 years, Earl's regular season record for Sep. & Oct. is 285-162 (.638). That breaks down to 268-155, .634 in September, and 17-7, .708 in October.

as the major league's top skipper by The Sporting News for the second time in three years ('77, '79); by the A.P. as the A.L.'s best for the third time in seven years ('73, '77, '79), and by U.P.I., also as the A.L.'s best, for the first time ever. . . In '77 when he captured The Sporting News and A.P. awards, the U.P.I. honors went to Bob Lemon, then with the White Sox.

He is one of three Oriole skippers to earn "manager of the year" laurels in the club's 29 seasons in Baltimore. . . Hank Bauer won TSN honors once and the A.P. twice while Paul Richards topped the A.P. poll once.

ALCS/WS: Earl holds the major league record for most championship series managed (six) and most total victories in LCS competition (15). . . Sparky Anderson is second in both departments with five and 14, respectively. . . Weaver's clubs have won four of six championship series with an overall record of 15-7.

In '79 he became the 11th in history to manage in at least four world series: Casey Stengel (10); Joe McCarthy and John McGraw (9); Connie Mack (8); Walter Alston (7); Miller Huggins (6); Sparky Anderson, Frank Chance, Bill McKechnie and Billy Southworth (4 each). . . Earl has won one of four series with an 11-13 composite record.

All-Star Games: Earl managed in four all-star games ('70, '71, '72, '80). . . He was also the "honorary manager" in '74 when he stepped down as skipper in favor of Dick Williams, who had managed the Oakland A's to the '73 A.L. pennant but was inactive at the time of the All-Star game.

Earl had a 1-3 record in the mid-season classics but has the distinction of leading the A.L. all-stars to their last victory, a 6-4 triumph at Detroit in '71. . . The O's Frank Robinson won the Arch Ward Trophy as the game's "mvp". . . Since that time, the A.L. has lost 11 straight.

25 in a Row: He finished over .500 for 25 straight years as a manager (not including winter league competition). . . His last losing season was in his first full year as a manager, in '57 at Fitzgerald, Ga.

In 21 of his last 24 years his clubs finished 1st or 2nd. He finished as low as 4th only once in the last 21 seasons (since Fox Cities in '61). That was in '78.

Winter League Managing: Earl managed Santurce in the Puerto Rican League during the winters of '66-'67 and '67-'68. . . He won post-season playoffs the first winter and the pennant the second year. . . He also managed the O's Arizona Instructional League clubs at Scottsdale for a number of winters.

He has also been a manager in two-season tours of Japan. . . In '79 he lead a group of A.L. all-stars against the National League on a three-week tour and in '71, he directed the Orioles to a 12-2-4 record against Japanese competition on a month-long trip.

Playing Career: Earl was a minor league second baseman for 13 years, mostly in his hometown Cardinals' system and played as high as the AA level. . . He trained with the Cards in '52, but Red Schoendienst was the incumbent second baseman at the time.

He played on pennant winners during each of his first four pro seasons; led his league in fielding five times; was a three-time league "mvp" (Illinois State League-'48, Western Association-'49, and Western League-'51), and was named to league all-star teams five times.

Personal: He is a graduate of Beaumont High School in St. Louis. . . Earl is an ardent golfer and a dedicated gardener. . . He and O's groundskeeper Pat Santarone waged an annual competition to see who could grow the biggest tomatoes.

EDWARD BENNETT WILLIAMS, the owner, Chairman of the Board, and President of the Baltimore Orioles, Inc., purchased the ballclub on Nov. 1, '79. A distinguished trial lawyer, he is also the founder and senior partner of the Washington law firm of Williams and Connolly. In addition, he has been associated with the Washington Redskins since 1962 and their President since 1965.

He is a native of Hartford, Connecticut, and a graduate of Holy Cross College where he earned his A.B. (summa cum laude) in 1941. After serving in the United States Army Air Force during World War II, he was graduated from Georgetown University Law School and was admitted to the Bar of the District of Columbia.

Mr. Williams taught Criminal Law and Evidence at Georgetown Law School from 1946 to 1958; was guest professor of American Criminal Law at the University of Frankfurt in West Germany in 1954; and in 1971, was visiting lecturer at Yale Law School where he taught Constitutional Litigation. He holds honorary degrees from 12 universities.

He was chairman of the American Bar Association Special Committee on Crime Prevention and Control from 1970 to 1972. In 1966 the District of Columbia Bar Association presented him with its "Lawyer of the Year" award. . . He is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and was a member of its board of regents from 1968 to 1972.

By appointment of the Chief Justice of the United States in March of 1965, he served on the United States Judicial Conference Advisory Committee on Federal Rules of Evidence until 1974 and, from 1971 to 1974, on the Chief Justice's Committee on Court Facilities and Design. From 1971 to 1978 he served as chairman of the Judicial Nominating Commission for the Sixth Judicial Circuit of Maryland.

By appointment of President Ford, Mr. Williams served on the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board in 1976 and 1977. In 1977, President Carter appointed him as a consultant to the National Security Agency. In November, 1980, President-elect Reagan appointed Mr. Williams, as one of three prominent Democrats, to serve on the Foreign Policy Advisory Board to assist the presidential transition, and he is now serving on the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board.

Mr. Williams served as treasurer of the Democratic National Committee from 1974 to 1977; has served as general counsel of Georgetown University since 1949; is vice-chairman of the Board of Trustees of the College of Holy Cross, is general counsel of the Motion Picture Association of America and of Twentieth Century Fox Film Corporation.

He is the father of seven children and is married to the former Agnes Anne Neill, who is also a graduate of Georgetown University Law School. The Williams family lives in Potomac, Maryland.

HENRY J. PETERS has been the Orioles' executive vice-president and general manager since he signed a five-year contract in November, 1975. At that time he replaced Frank Cashen who had resigned to join the Carling-National Brewing Company.

In February, 1980, after being named major league "executive of the year" by both The Sporting News and U.P.I. the previous season, Hank agreed to an extension of his contract, offered by new owner Edward Bennett Williams, through 1984.

A veteran of 36 years in professional baseball, he has shown an amazing ability to adjust to the abrupt and rapid changes that have affected player-management relationships during the past several years.

Now 58, Hank came to Baltimore after four years as president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (the governing body of minor league baseball).

Before accepting the National Association presidency in December, 1971, he had spent five years with the Cleveland Indians as vice-president and director of player personnel, and prior to that he had been with the Kansas City A's for 10 years. While with the A's, in 1965, he had the distinction of being the last general manager appointed by former club owner Charles O. Finley. He has also worked with the St. Louis Browns and Cincinnati Reds.

A St. Louis native, Hank broke into baseball in 1946, following three years with the U.S. Army in World War II during which he served in England, Germany, and Czechoslovakia.

He started with the hometown Browns in the minor league department under then farm director Jim McLaughlin, the Orioles' former coordinator of scouting and player development, and general manager Bill DeWitt.

When that franchise was moved to Baltimore in October, 1953, Hank took a job as general manager of the independent Burlington, Iowa club in the Class B Three-I League.

After the 1954 season, he joined the new Kansas City A's organization as farm director and remained in that position through 1960. In early 1961, he left the A's, following disagreement with Finley, and spent the balance of the season working, again for DeWitt, as farm director of the Cincinnati Reds who won the N.L. pennant that season.

However, he returned to the A's in December, 1961, as assistant general manager and farm director and was appointed general manager in 1965. During his tenure in K.C. such future stars as Jim "Catfish" Hunter, Bert Campaneris, Reggie Jackson, Sal Bando, Joe Rudi, Rick Monday, Gene Tenace, and Rollie Fingers were signed and developed in the A's farm system.

Hank moved to Cleveland in 1966 and remained there until he was elected to succeed the retiring National Association President Phil Piton. At the time, the National Association was headquartered in Columbus, Ohio, but in September, 1973, Hank moved the office to its present site in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Hank and his wife, Dottie, whom he met while both were working for the Browns, have been married for 32 years. They have two children: Sharon and Steve, and a granddaughter, Shannon Nicole Torrez, born December, 1981.

O'S HAVE BEST RECORD IN MAJORS FOR LAST 26 YEARS

It was in 1957 that the Orioles first began to jell as a team. That year they finished at .500 (76-76) for the first time, after having gone 180-282 (.390) in their first three Baltimore seasons ('54-'55-'56).

During the 26 seasons that have elapsed from 1957 thru 1982, the O's have won more games than any other big league club and have compiled the best won-lost percentage. In that period they are 567 games over .500.

Listed below are the standings of the 16 clubs they have played during that entire 26-year span.

1. Orioles	2332-1765 (.569)	10. White Sox	2081-2026 (.507)
2. Yankees	2289-1820 (.557)	11. Braves	2069-2036 (.504)
3. Dodgers	2275-1842 (.553)	12. Twins, nee
4. Reds	2259-1847 (.550)	Senators	2031-2078 (.494)
5. Pirates	2201-1901 (.537)	13. Phillies	2019-2088 (.492)
6. Giants	2146-1968 (.522)	14. Indians	1971-2126 (.481)
7. Cardinals	2139-1963 (.521)	15. A's	1937-2175 (.471)
8. Tigers	2129-1986 (.51738)	16. Cubs	1902-2201 (.464)
9. Red Sox	2126-1984 (.51727)

Since the franchise came to Baltimore from St. Louis prior to the 1954 season (29 seasons thru '82), the O's have compiled the third best record in the majors—.551 (2512-2047) behind: Yankees—.566 (2585-1984) and Dodgers—.559 (2558-2020). In those 29 seasons, the Orioles have won 100 or more games five times ('69, '70, '71, '79, '80), an achievement bettered by only the Yankees (six times) in that period. Baltimore's five 100-victory seasons in the last 14 years is unsurpassed.

In addition, the Orioles own the best record in the major leagues over the last 10 seasons ('73-'82) at .584 (908-647); the last 5 years ('78-'82) at .594 (445-304); and the last 3 campaigns ('80-'82) at .590 (253-176). Baltimore has had 15 consecutive winning seasons (starting '68). The only major league club with a longer streak is the Boston Red Sox, who have been over the .500 mark in 16 straight campaigns (starting '67).

MANAGER AND COACHES

JOSEPH (JOE) SALVATORE ALTABELLI

Born: May 26, '32; 6'0"; 180; Batted, L; Threw, L; Position: 1B.

Birthplace/Residence: Born and raised in Detroit, Michigan... Now lives in Rochester, N.Y.

Contract Status: Signed a two-year contract extending thru the '84 season on November 12, '82.

Tenure: He has been in professional baseball for 32 years (starting '51) and previously was with the Baltimore organization for 14 seasons ('63 thru '76).

Signed Originally with: Cleveland.

Orioles' Manager: Joe was appointed as the 7th manager in Baltimore's 30 years in the major leagues on November 12, '82... He succeeded Earl Weaver, who had guided the club for 14½ seasons since July 11, '68.

Yankee Organization: He had served as third base coach for the New York Yankees for the last two years... In '80, his first year in the New York organization, he guided the Yankees' top farm club, the Columbus Clippers to the International League title. The Clippers finished first in the regular season with an 83-57 record, then defeated Richmond and Toledo in the playoffs to capture the crown. For his efforts, he was selected as the I.L.'s "manager of the year," the third time he had been selected for that honor (see below).

San Francisco Skipper: Joe was named as manager of the San Francisco Giants on October 7, '76, replacing Bill Rigney, and finished fourth in the National League's western division with a 75-87 mark in '77.

The following year, the Giants improved to 89-73, the club's most victories since '71. San Francisco led the N.L. West for all but three days in a three-month period from May 12 thru August 15 before going 20-23 over the final month and a half to finish third. For his efforts, Joe was chosen as the N.L.'s "manager of the year" by the Associated Press, beating out Pittsburgh's Chuck Tanner in the voting. Current Baltimore outfielder Jim Dwyer played under Joe for part of the '78 season.

In '79, the Giants won seven of their first nine games but were in fourth place with a 61-79 record when Joe was replaced by third base coach Dave Bristol on September 6.

Baltimore Organization: He spent 14 years in the Orioles' system from '63-'76, the final 11 as a very successful manager at all levels. His record in that span was 787-613 (.562) with his 11-year tenure matching Earl Weaver for the second longest in O's history behind Cal Ripken, who logged 13 plus seasons as a minor league skipper. Joe guided his clubs to five first place finishes and was named his league's "manager of the year" three times.

Rochester: In his six seasons as manager of Baltimore's triple-A farm club ('71-'76), Joe led the Red Wings to a 502-351 record (.589), including four regular season first place finishes and two league championships. In his first season at Rochester, the Wings won the league crown and defeated American Association champ Denver to capture the Little World Series, earning Joe "manager of the year" honors in the International League. That club included league "mvp" Bobby Grich, Don Baylor, and 12 others who played in the majors.

The Wings also won the league championship in '74 when he was selected both as the I.L.'s top skipper and as "Minor League Manager of the Year" by The Sporting News.

Seven current Orioles played under Joe in the minor leagues, all at Rochester: Al Bumbry ('72, won I.L. batting title); Terry Crowley ('71 & '76); Rich Dauer ('75 & '76, was I.L. "mvp" and batting champ in '76); Mike Flanagan ('75 & '76, was I.L. top 1hp in '75); Dennis Martinez ('75 & '76, was I.L. top rhp in '76); Scott McGregor (was top 1hp in '76); Eddie Murray ('76)... In addition O's pitching coach Ray Miller played for Joe from '71-'73.

Other Levels: After serving as a player-coach at Rochester in '65 and the first part of '66, Joe was named manager at Bluefield in June '66... He guided the O's to the Appalachian League pennant in '67 and was named the loop's top manager. He played briefly at Elmira prior to the start of the Appalachian League season in '67 and also saw action in 11 games (two as a pitcher) for Dallas-Fort Worth in '70.

Previous Playing Career: Joe played 15 full professional seasons as a first baseman with the Cleveland Indians, Los Angeles Dodgers, Minnesota Twins, and Orioles' organizations. . . He signed originally with the Indians and in his first pro season in '51 he finished fourth in the Florida State League in batting (.341) and second in hits (204). That year he also hit in 36 consecutive games, an F.S.L. record that still stands.

He spent all or parts of 12 seasons at the triple-A level and led the International League with 31 homers and 105 rbi at Montreal in '60.

Majors: He made his major league debut with Cleveland in '55 and also played most of the '57 campaign with the Tribe as a reserve first baseman-outfielder. . . He also saw action in 41 games for the Minnesota Twins in '61, the Twins' first season in Minnesota after moving from Washington.

Personal: He was an all-city selection in baseball, football, and basketball at Detroit's Eastern High School (graduated '50). . . Joe also played American Legion baseball in Detroit.

He has lived in Rochester for many years and spent several off-seasons working for the Rochester recreation department. . . Hobbies: hunting and woodworking. . . Joe and his wife, the former Pat Wooten, were married on May 3, '52, and are the parents of four boys: Mike (7/8/53), Mark (5/23/55), Jerry (5/7/63), and Joe (7/13/69) and two girls: Jody (10/26/56) and Jackie (4/9/60).

ELROD (ELLIE) JEROME HENDRICKS

Born: Dec. 22, '40; 6'1"; 185; Batted, L; Threw, R; Position: C.

Birthplace/Residence: Born and raised in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands...Has lived in Baltimore area (Randallstown) since '70.

Tenure: This is his 24th season in professional baseball...He has spent 13½ years in Baltimore organization...Has 10 years, 89 days service as major league player.

Signed Originally with: Milwaukee (Atlanta) Braves.

Major League Career: When he first joined the O's in '68, Ellie had spent 9 seasons in the minors...During the 15 years that have elapsed since then, he has been with Baltimore for nearly 13½.

He played for the Cubs during the last 6 weeks of '72 (Tommy Davis deal) before returning to the O's that winter, then logged 1½ years in the Yankees organization from June '76 thru the '77 season, before rejoining the Birds.

Coach: Ellie was appointed bullpen coach in Nov. '77...He also served as a player-coach for parts of the '78 and '79 seasons...He has also supervised off-season workouts the last 4 winters for players living in the Baltimore area.

He was the American League's batting practice catcher and bullpen coach for the 1982 all-star game in Montreal.

'79 Season: He coached exclusively all year until Sep. 1 when the roster expanded to 40 men...He made only one appearance, in a game at Detroit on Sep. 19, and went 0-for-1 with a throwing error from behind the plate...He was not eligible for post-season play.

'78 Season: He started the season as a coach, but was activated six weeks later (on May 18) replacing Gary Roenicke who was optioned to Rochester. Ellie remained on the player list for the remainder of the year while also continuing as a coach.

Last Home Run: Ellie hit his last big league home run on Aug. 23, a blast off Oakland's Dave Heaverlo.

'78 Batting/ERA Leader: In 13 games Ellie batted .333 (6-for-18), and in his one career pitching stint he compiled a 0.00 era, thus leading the club in both categories (actually he tied Dave Ford in era...Ford pitched 15 scoreless innings in Sep.).

His pitching career took place in Toronto on June 26 where the O's were absorbing a 24-10 pasting by the Blue Jays...Ellie worked 2.1 innings, allowing no runs, one hit and one walk while putting an end to the carnage that had been inflicted on four predecessors (Mike Flanagan, Joe Kerrigan, Tippy Martinez and Larry Harlow)...Don Stanhouse then pitched the final inning and, inspired by Ellie's effort, he, too, held the Jays scoreless.

Yankees, '76-'77: In '76 Ellie played in 26 games for the Yankees after the June 15 trade from Baltimore and batted .210 (12-for-57).

Ellie spent '77 shuttling between New York and Syracuse. He played in only 10 games for the Yankees and was not eligible for post-season play.

Orioles ('68-'76): Ellie had been with the O's for nearly 9 full years when he was traded to the Cubs for Tommy Davis in Aug. '72...However, when the season ended, he was reacquired by Baltimore.

100 Games/Year: Ellie played in more than 100 games in each of the O's 3 pennant-winning seasons of '69-'70-'71...He and Andy Etchebarren more or less split the regular catching job from '68 thru '71.

Weaver/Lane: Earl Weaver and Frank Lane were instrumental in convincing the O's to draft him from the Angels' AAA Seattle affiliate in Nov. '67...Ellie had played for Weaver in Puerto Rico previously and Lane had scouted him in Mexico.

Odds and Ends: Ellie hit 2 grand slams for the Birds, both in Memorial Stadium: July 20, '70 off Chicago's Barry Moore, and Aug. 18, '75 off the Twins Dave Goltz...He nearly always caught when Mike Cuellar was pitching...He led the O's in batting on the '71 Japan tour with a .400 average (16-for-40).

ALCS/WS: He compiled a .273 average (18-for-66) in 23 post-season games for the O's and Yankees (comprising five championship and four world series).

'70 WS: Ellie hit .364 (4-for-11) against the Reds with a home run and double and contributed significantly to the O's wins at Cincinnati in games 1 and 2.

In the opener, the Reds jumped out 3-0, but Ellie tied it in the 5th with a home run off Gary Nolan and the O's went on to win on Brooks' homer in the 7th. . . . There was a play in the Cincinnati 6th in which Ellie was involved and that was as important as the home run. . . . See "Carbo-Burkhart Incident" below.

"Carbo-Burkhart" Incident: One inning after Ellie had tied the game with his home run, the Reds had Bernie Carbo on 3rd, representing the lead run, and only one out (Brooks had retired Lee May leading off the inning on a sensational play).

Pinch-hitter Ty Cline then chopped a high bouncer in front of the plate. . . . As Ellie went out and grabbed it, Carbo headed home. Ellie dove and tagged Carbo a few feet up the line and Umpire Ken Burkhart, who had been spun around by the runners as they converged so that his back was to the play, called Carbo out.

Films later revealed that Ellie had tagged Carbo with one hand while holding the ball in the other, and that Carbo had missed the plate.

Puerto Rico: Ellie played for Santurce in the Puerto Rico Winter League each year from '60-'77, except in '71 when the O's went to Japan. . . . His 112 homers in that loop rank him second on the all-time list to former St. Louis Browns outfielder Willard Brown (120).

Minors: He enjoyed his best minor league seasons in Jalisco in the Mexican League (AAA) where he hit 109 homers in 4 years and was known as the "Babe Ruth of Mexico". . . . In his last season there ('67), he led the league in homers (41) and was second in rbi (112).

He started his career in the Milwaukee Braves' organization ('59-'60), then spent 2 years at Winnipeg in the Cardinals system ('62-'63) before going to Mexico.

Personal: Ellie is one of the most popular personalities ever to wear an Orioles uniform. . . . He is an accomplished after-dinner speaker and is very active in community projects in the Baltimore area. . . . Speaks fluent Spanish. . . . Plays the flute.

Ellie was selected as the first "man of the year" by the Baltimore chapter of the National Conference of Christians and Jews in Feb. '83 in recognition of his outstanding service to the community.

He has operated a two-week baseball camp for youngsters the past 2 summers and this winter, conducted a coaching seminar for high school and college baseball coaches.

He and his wife, Merle, were married Jan. 14, '70 and are the parents of two sons: Ryan (8/3/72) and Ian Christopher (11/28/76). They have lived in the Randallstown area, near Baltimore, since the early 70's.

JAMES (JIMMY) B. WILLIAMS

Born: May 15, '26; 5'10"; 180; Batted, R; Threw, R; Position: OF.

Birthplace/Residence: Born and raised in Toronto, Ontario, but has lived in Pueblo, Colorado, for many years.

Tenure: This is his 37th season in professional baseball and his 6th with the Baltimore organization.

Signed Originally with: Brooklyn (Los Angeles) Dodgers.

Coach: Jimmy was appointed to the coaching staff in January '81 to replace Frank Robinson, who resigned to become manager of the San Francisco Giants. He serves as 1st base coach and works with the outfielders and baserunners.

Baltimore Organization: Jimmy became a manager in the O's farm system in '78 and guided clubs to the playoffs in each of his three seasons, including a pair of league championships.

In '80 he led the O's class AA team at Charlotte to the Southern League crown. . . The O's won the Eastern Division first half title but slipped to fourth in the second half before rebounding in the playoffs to beat Savannah, three games to none, and Memphis, three games to one, for the title. . . In '79 Charlotte also won the first half title but was eliminated by Columbus, Ga. in the first round of the playoffs.

The previous year, his first with the Orioles, Jimmy directed class A Miami of the Florida State League to the second half title, knocked off Ft. Myers in a one-game divisional playoff, then erased the Lakeland Tigers in a best of three final to win the pennant.

Managing/Coaching Background: Jimmy has logged 17 years as a minor league manager in the farm systems of the Dodgers ('63, '64, '76-'77), A's ('65 thru '69), Astros ('70 thru '74) and Orioles and owns over 1100 wins. . . He also spent the '75 season as the third base coach for the Houston Astros on the major league level.

His first of four pennants came in the Florida State League, when he managed for the A's at Leesburg in '66. . . That year his club was 50-14 in the first half, fell to fifth in the second half, but came back to beat St. Petersburg in the FSL playoffs. . . That club led organized baseball with 232 stolen bases in 132 games, a FSL record that still stands, while Al-len Lewis, who went on to become Charlie Finley's "designated runner" stole 116, also a league mark. . . Jimmy also managed at Leesburg in '67 and put in another FSL campaign with the Astros at Cocoa in '72.

Jimmy joined the Houston organization in '70 and won a pennant at Columbus in the Southern League (he also managed at Columbus in '74). . . He has managed at every level but "rookie" including four years at AAA: '69 (Des Moines), '71 (Oklahoma City), '73 (Denver), all in the American Association, and '77 (Albuquerque) of the Pacific Coast League.

He has also managed in: Santa Barbara ('63, California), Grand Forks ('64, Northern), Shelby ('65, Western Carolinas), Newport News ('68, Carolina), and Lodi ('76, California). . . Served as a player-coach at Omaha (American Association) in '62.

Playing Career: He played for 18 years ('47 thru '64) as an outfielder in the Dodgers' system including occasional appearances in his first two years as a manager. . . . He was outstanding in his first professional season in '47, earning "rookie of the year" honors in the Wisconsin State League and batting a composite .367 with three different clubs. . . . That year he amassed 163 hits, 27 doubles, 15 triples, 12 homers, 121 rbi and 24 stolen bases in 117 games.

In '49 at Pueblo, he broke a Western League record with 42 stolen bases (in 43 attempts). . . . That mark was later broken by current Orioles' scout and field coordinator Len Johnston, who swiped 64 at Colorado Springs in '53.

Jimmy never played in the majors but put in five seasons at the AAA level ('55 thru '57 at Montreal in the International League) and '59 and '62 in the American Association. . . . He hit over .300 in five different seasons.

Personal: Jimmy graduated from DeLaSalle High School in Toronto where he lettered in baseball, hockey, football, and lacrosse. . . . He played minor league hockey (right wing) for the old Boston Olympics in the early 1950's and still performs as a defenseman for Pueblo's top semi-pro team in the off-season. . . . His other hobbies include golf, tennis, and remodeling homes.

Jimmy and his wife, the former Lorraine Elliott, were married Sep. 21, '50. . . . They have two sons, Chris (6/10/52) and Kirk (11/11/56) and one daughter, Julie (2/19/61).

His career fielding percentage at shortstop with the Orioles was .977 (206 e/8915 tc) in 1,898 games, an A.L. record. PINCH-HITTING 1982: Despite a .200 (7-for-35) pinch-hitting average, Terry achieved some notable milestones. He became only the 8th in history to record 100 career pinch-hits (See Top 8 below), and ended the year with 103 total, tying him for 7th place on the all-time list with Mike Lum. His 100th was a single off Royals' Dan Quisenberry at Baltimore on Aug. 6 (2nd gm).

He hit 2 pinch home runs, giving him a career total of 5, and one of those was his 2nd career pinch-slam (he has 4 slams total), a game-winning blast in the bottom of the 9th off K.C.'s Mike Armstrong (see Home Runs below).

In addition, he went 2-for-2 with 3 rbi in a pinch-hitting capacity during the pressure-filled final weekend series against the Brewers and drew 9 walks as a pinch-hitter on the season which produced a respectable .364 (16-for-44) on-base percentage.

Career: Lifetime, Terry has a .268 pinch-hitting average (103-for-385) in the majors with 5 homers, 66 rbi, and 53 walks. His on-base percentage is .356 (156-for-438).

With the Orioles only, he is at .285 (79-for-277) with 5 homers, 54 rbi, and 44 walks, plus a .383 on-base figure (123-for-321).

Since returning to the Orioles from Rochester on Aug. 12, '77, "Crow" has batted .296 (55-for-186) as a pinch-slinger with 5 homers, 46 rbi, 32 walks, and an on-base percentage of .399 (87-for-218).

Home Runs: He contributed 2 of the O's A.L. record setting 11 pinch-homers in '82. . . His 5 career pinch-homers: (1) Sep. 9, '77—grand slam off Cleveland's Larry Anderson at Baltimore. . . (2) May 27, '79—none on off Jack Billingham at Detroit. . . (3) May 30, '80—none on 10th-inning game-winner off Doug Corbett at Minnesota. . . (4) June 6, '82—0 on off Paul Boris at Minnesota. . . (5) Aug. 8, '82—3 on off Mike Armstrong, K.C., at Baltimore, a game-winner in bottom of 9th.

Top 10: In addition to his 7th place tie on the all-time list, Terry is 2nd among actives behind former teammate Jose Morales (108), now with the Dodgers. The list:

DESIGNATED HITTING

He batted .226 (7-for-31) in 14 games as a dh in '82 with 1 rbi, 6 walks and an on-base average of .351 (13-for-37). Lifetime, he's batting .262 (125-for-478) with 15 homers in 172 games as a dh. . . He hit 11 of those in 65 games during the '80 season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

During his 17 year pro career, he has spent nearly 15 complete seasons with the Baltimore organization (all except 2 years with Cincinnati and one month with Atlanta).

'82 Summary: Appeared in 10 games at 1st base mostly while Ed-die Murray was recovering from a hand injury, 14 games as a dh and 44 as a pinch-hitter.

vs. Opponents: Went 6-for-12 (.500) with 2 home runs against the Twins in '82. Lifetime he is batting .319 (30-for-94) against the Twins; .316 (18-for-57) vs. Chicago, and .305 (32-for-105) against Milwaukee. . . His high for home runs against a single club is 7 vs. Cleveland.

Crow has hit 23 of his 40 A.L. homers in Memorial Stadium. . . His favorite road park is in Detroit where he's hit 4.

He is 5-for-11 (.455) lifetime against Boston's Bob Stanley and 7-for-16 (.438) vs. the Tigers' Dan Petry. Against Doug Corbett of the Angels, Terry is 3-for-3 with a walk and he has twice beaten Corbett with 10th inning hits (one a homer on May 30, '80).

Best Year '80: Set personal highs in runs (30), hits (67), homers (12), and rbi (50). Hit his 3rd career slam, off Chicago's Lamarr Hoyt on Aug. 5 (see list of others on page 10), batted .338 with runners in scoring position (24-for-71), and drove in the winning run 3 times in the late innings.

LCS: Went 1-for-2 as a pinch-hitter in '79 ALCS, an rbi single in game 3 that gave O's 3-2 lead in 7th (followed Al Bumbry's triple)... But Angels came back to win in 9th.

That was his only hit in 3 LCS... He was not eligible for either '69 or '71 ALCS; played in '70; and was eligible but did not play in '73.

WS: Appeared in 5 of 7 games in '79 vs. Pirates, all as pinch-hitter... Made a huge contribution in O's come-from-behind win at Pittsburgh in game 4, driving in the tying and winning runs in the 6-run 7th that overcame a 6-3 Pirates lead.

He batted for Dave Skaggs with bases loaded (and O's down by 1) and pulled a 2-run double to right off Kent Tekulve who had given up an identical blow to John Lowenstein, also a pinch-hitter, 2 batters earlier.

His only previous world series hit was a bizarre one for the Reds in '75 vs. Bosox. In game 6 (the one that belongs to Carlton Fisk) he hit a bouncer to Rick Burleson who held the ball until Denny Doyle could cover 2nd... By the time Doyle arrived, it was too late, and "Crow" was credited with a single.

He was 0-for-1 in '70 and was not eligible in either '69 or '71.

Last Year in Minors, '77: Led International League in homers (30), despite the fact he was called up to Baltimore on Aug. 12... Finished 2nd in I.L. "mvp" vote to Pawtucket's Ted Cox and was picked to league all-star team... After coming back to Baltimore, he went 7-for-15 (.467) as a pinch-hitter with 9 rbi.

Orioles, '69-'73: Made his big league debut after being called up to the O's on Sep. 2, '69, and became O's top pinch-hitter in '70... Was only rookie to start '70 season for O's.

After a poor spring training in '71, was sent back to Rochester... Was recalled in mid-season for 6 weeks (subbing for Tom Shopay who was disabled) and came up again at end of season.

Had best year to that point in '72 when he hit 11 home runs in 67 games... In '73, the 1st year of the dh rule, he sometimes platooned with Tommy Davis in that spot (trivia: Terry was O's 1st dh ever, opening day '73)... Hit a home run in final at bat as an Oriole on Sep. 29, '73, off Cleveland's Tom Timmerman.

Cincinnati, '74-'75: The Reds purchased his contract from Texas in Mar. '74, 3 months after the O's had sold his pact to the Rangers... "Crow" was Reds' principal pinch-hitter for the 2 years he was in Cincinnati.

Defensively he played 29 games in '74 and 8 games in '75.

Atlanta/Return to O's, '76: See notation under career stats.

Amateur Background: "Crow" was scouted and signed for the O's by Frank McGowan, Walter Shannon, and the late Joe Torre, Sr... He enjoyed an outstanding baseball career at Staten Island's Curtis High and later played baseball at Long Island University.

He is one of several 1st basemen to have made it to the majors from New York City: Lou Gehrig, Frank and Joe Torre, and Joe Pepitone, Mike Fiore, Ed Kranepool, and Curt Belfary (born in Brooklyn) are among the others.

Personal: Terry and his wife, the former Janet Boyle, have 4 children: Karlen (1/19/64), Terry, Jr. (1/2/68), Jimmy (10/16/69), and Karen (8/29/76). "Crow" is a starter on the O's off-season basketball team. He operates a baseball camp in Cockeysville during the summer.

1982 SEASON AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Rich set career highs for games (158), at bats (558), runs scored (75), triples (2), and walks (50). He led the Orioles with 11 sacrifice hits, was 2nd to Cal Ripken in games and at bats, and finished 3rd behind Eddie Murray and Ripken in hits (156). Rich enjoyed a great start and a fast finish at the plate (see below).

Despite the fact he played at 3rd base for much of the season's 2nd half, he had the American League's 2nd highest fielding percentage at 2nd base (among qualifiers).

Batting: Rich had the best start of his major league career, batting .375 in April (see "Aprils" below) and .352 in his 1st 25 games thru May 8 to place among the league leaders. . . Was still batting .311 on June 12 (54 games) but over the next 3 months hit just .241 (68-for-282) in a 90-game span to fall to .266.

Final Drive: Starting Sep. 19, he hit at a .407 (22-for-54) clip in his last 14 contests to raise his average 14 points to .280. . . In the 1st game of that stretch, "Thanks, Earl" Day, hit 2-run "sudden death" homer off Cleveland's Ed Glynn in bottom of 10th inning to give O's 4-2 win. . . Had season-high 8 game hitting streak in that span, batting .485 (16-for-33) from Sep. 25 thru Oct. 2.

Miscellaneous: Batted .291 (89-for-306) in 80 games before the all-star break and .266 (67-for-252) in 78 games thereafter. . . Connected for 1st triple in nearly 5 years on July 20 vs. California. . . Only previous major league triple came on Aug. 25, '77 against Chicago. . . Batted .303 (86-for-284) on the road but just .255 (70-for-274) at Memorial Stadium.

By Month: April-.375 (24-for-64), 18 g. . . May-.236 (26-for-110), 27 g. . . June-.298 (28-for-94), 24 g. . . July-.220 (20-for-91), 27 g. . . August-.289 (26-for-90), 30 g. . . September-.269 (25-for-93), 28 g. . . October-.438 (7-for-16), 4 g.

Aprils: Rich hit for his highest average ever in April to raise his career mark in the opening month from .221 to .255 (76-for-298). . . Prior to '81, when he hit .298, slow starts were the rule for Rich as he batted just .197 (35-for-178) in his 1st 4 Aprils in the majors ('77 thru '80).

Was 0-for-22 in Apr. '77 and 3-for-28 the following year. . . In '79, went 2-for-27 in 1st 8 games before a sharp rally brought him up to .324 for the month. . . However in '80, regressed to 8-for-54 (.148) in April.

Strikeouts: Rich fanned 34 times in '82, the 2nd highest total of his major league career, but still an average of just once every 18.41 plate appearances (626 p.a.). . . That ranked 2nd in the A.L. behind California's Tim Lincecum (1/24), just ahead of New York's Willie Randolph (1/18.37). The Cubs' Bill Buckner led the majors for the 3rd straight year with one strikeout every 27.27 appearances, followed by Philadelphia's Pete Rose (1/22.44) and Pittsburgh's Johnny Ray (1/20.65).

Rich led the A.L. in strikeout "in-frequency" in '80 (1/32.5) and was 3rd in '81 (1/22.44). Lifetime, he's fanned once every 18.99 plate appearances (160 strikeouts, 3037 p.a.), the best ratio in the league. . . Buckner's career figure (1/24.20) tops the majors. . . Former Oriole Bob Bailor, now with the New York Mets, is at 1/18.87.

vs. Opponents: In '82, Rich had his most success against Milwaukee, batting .388 (19-for-49) with 2 homers and 9 rbi, all season highs. . . Raised his career average vs. the Brewers from .268 to .29386, best among all opponents. . . Has most lifetime homers (5) and rbi (32) against Toronto.

Hit .300 vs. 4 other clubs last season: Texas (.378), Boston (.317), Detroit (.311), Chicago (.310). . . See pages 31-33 for complete statistics against opponents.

Ejection: Was ejected for the 1st time in his big league career on June 9 at Milwaukee when tossed by Mike Reilly for throwing bat.

FIELDING

Infield Shift: With the exception of 2 starts at 3rd base in mid-April, Rich played almost exclusively at 2nd until early July. At that time Earl Weaver decided to move Cal Ripken, Jr. permanently from 3rd to shortstop. As a result for the remainder of the year, Rich played 2nd against righthanders (with lefty Glenn Gulliver at 3rd) and 3rd vs. southpaws (with Lenn Sakata at 2nd). His totals for the season were 118 starts at 2nd and 34 at 3rd. He played both positions in the same game 28 times.

Second Base: He was 2nd among A.L. 2nd basemen in fielding with a .987 percentage (7 errors in 536 total chances) in 124 games, just behind Detroit's Lou Whitaker (.988). . . Has a career percentage of .988 (36 errors in 3048 chances) in 639 games. . . Though he needs several more seasons, that figure is well above the existing mark for "highest percentage, 10 or more years, or 1000 or more games," both currently held by California's Bobby Grich (.985).

Led the A.L. with .989 percentage in '81. . . Played 76 consecutive errorless games at second (400 chances) from July 12, '80 until booting a ground ball on Apr. 25, '81. . . It was the 2nd longest streak of his career, 10 games shy of the previous one in '77-'78 (see below).

Third Base: He fielded .991 (1 error in 115 chances) in 61 games at 3rd. . . While he didn't qualify for the title, Rich had the highest percentage among all 3rd sackers who appeared in 10 or more games. . . Did not commit a miscue in 1st 47 games at 3rd (86 tc) before only miscue on Sep. 11. . . His career percentage at 3rd is .964 (16 e in 455 tc) in 205 games.

Fielding Records, '78: He set 2 one season major league records for 2nd basemen in '78: (1) 86 consecutive errorless games, and (2) 424 consecutive chances without error. Both records were eclipsed as major league marks by Philadelphia's Manny Trillo, when he handled 479 consecutive chances without an error over 89 games from Apr. 7 to July 31, '82. . . However, Rich's performance is still the A.L. record in both categories.

Until he threw a ball away in the final game of '78, he hadn't made an error at 2nd all season. His efforts broke the previous marks of the Mets Ken Boswell (85 straight errorless games in '70) and of the late Ken Hubbs of the Cubs (418 errorless chances in '62). Ironically, Hubbs, killed in the crash of a plane he was piloting in Feb. '64, was from Rich's hometown (Colton, CA).

Rich set the A.L. records in those departments, formerly held by Bobby Doerr, Red Sox (73 games and 414 chances, both in '48).

Strangely, Dauer, who fielded .998 that year didn't qualify for the percentage title because he played too few games at 2nd (87 played, 108 required).

He had played one errorless game at the end of '77, but his "more than one season" streaks of 87 games and 433 chances fell short of the existing major league records held respectively by Cincinnati's Joe Morgan-91 ('77-'78) and Baltimore's Jerry Adair-458 ('64-'65). . . Trillo also broke Adair's mark for chances but fell 2 games shy of Morgan's record.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1981: Led the Orioles in doubles and topped A.L. 2nd basemen in fielding. . . Was batting .284 thru Aug. 28 but hit just .226 the rest of the way.

1980: Had best overall season. . . Set personal highs in 7 offensive categories, including average (.284) and rbi (63), led A.L. in strikeout "in-frequency", and was 2nd among league's 2nd basemen in fielding percentage.

1979: Tied Eddie Murray for the club lead with 14 game-winning rbi and set a career high with 9 homers. . . Drew 4 of his 36 walks in one game, vs. Oakland on May 8 at Baltimore.

1978: Became a full-time regular on June 12, 1st as a 3rd base substitute for the injured Doug DeCinces, then when Doug returned, as starting 2nd baseman.

1976-77: Came up to O's 1st time in Sep. '76 and went 4-for-39 in 11 games. Then in '77, started as regular at 2nd, but went 0-for-26 until May 13 and was only 1-for-41 thru May 31. . . At that point his major league career average was .063 (5-for-80). Also had 0-for-25 string at Memorial Stadium (including 0-for-5 in '76) before getting his 1st hit at home on June 11, '77 (off Chicago's Ken Brett).

After 0-for-41 start, Rich batted .278 (73-for-263) the rest of '77. . . Recorded his 1st big league hit in his 1st at bat, on Sep. 11², '76, a single off Brewers' Jim Colborn at Milwaukee.

Minor League Career: Spent only 3 seasons in the minors after jumping directly from Univ. of Southern California campus to the "AA" Southern League in '74 after being signed by Ray Poitevint. . . Had been selected 3 times previously in free agent draft by Oakland (twice) and Cleveland before chosen 1st by Baltimore in June '74.

Won International League batting title at Rochester in '76 (.336). . . Was also selected as league's "co-mvp" with Mickey Klutts of Syracuse and Toledo's Joe Lis, named to I.L. all-star team, and topped loop in hits (176).

AMATEUR BACKGROUND

He played two years at San Bernardino Valley College then transferred to Southern Cal.

U.S.C.: Rich played on two national championship teams ('73 & '74) at U.S.C. (they were fourth and fifth straight for Coach Rod Dedeaux' Trojans). . . While he was there, Rich played with Roy Smalley, Fred Lynn, Steve Kemp and Pete Redfern. . . Senior year, he was a first team all-American and set NCAA one-season records in hits (108), rbi (92) and total bases (181). He also established U.S.C. standards for homers (15), doubles (24) and runs (70), and his rbi total shattered the old school record of 67 set by Ron Fairly. Rich was selected to the '74 College World Series all-tournament team.

Colton High: He played baseball and football at Colton. . . He also participated in American Legion and Little, Pony and Colt League programs.

PERSONAL

Rich and his wife, the former Chris King of San Bernardino, were married Feb. 1, '75, and are the parents of a daughter, Casey Lynn (3/24/81). . . The Dauers recently built a new home in the Baltimore suburb of Phoenix. . . During the off-season, Rich plays a lot of racquetball, represents the ballclub as an after-dinner speaker, and is a key member of the Orioles basketball team.

Strikeout Highs: 9—Aug. 26, '82 vs. Tor. at Bal.; 8—twice, Aug. 30, '82 at Tor. and Sep. 14², '82 vs. N.Y. at Bal.

THE 1982 SEASON

The youngest player in the American League, Storm was used as a long reliefer and spot starter in his rookie year. He started the season in Rochester but was recalled by the Orioles on Apr. 28 when Jose Morales was traded to Los Angeles. He made just one appearance before returning to Rochester on May 5 but joined the big club for good on May 15.

Storm's 8 wins were the most for an Oriole rookie since Tom Phoebus won 14 games in '67 (Sammy Stewart also won 8 in '79)... He struck out 67 while walking only 28 in 100.2 innings and was 5-1 after Aug. 25.

Reliever/Starter: He was 3-2 with a 2.53 era (57 ip, 47 h, 17 er, 16 bb, 34 so) in 21 relief appearances and 5-2 with a 4.74 era (43.2 ip, 49 h, 23 er, 12 bb, 33 so) in 8 starts... In 3+ minor league seasons, all 67 of his appearances had been as a starter.

Relief: In 21 relief appearances, allowed 1st batter faced to reach base just twice... Allowed 12 of 33 inherited runners to score (36.4%).

Worked 4 or more innings on 7 occasions with longest effort being 7 inning stint vs. Toronto on Aug. 26... Received credit for 12-5 win in that game and struck out 9, an Orioles' season high.

Allowed only one run and did not walk a batter in 1st 5 appearances (14.1 ip) thru June 2... In 1st 10 games out of the bullpen thru July 20, gave up just 3 earned runs in 27 innings with 4 walks... Defeated Seattle, Toronto, and Minnesota and lost to New York and Boston in relief.

Starter: Made 1st major league start in Detroit on July 3 and beat the Tigers, 8-3 (6.2 ip, 7 h, 3 r-er)... His next 2 appearances were starts as a replacement for Jim Palmer: July 7 at Seattle (nd) and July 11 at Oakland (win).

Made only one more start (loss vs. K.C. on Aug. 6¹) until end of August when he became the regular 5th starter... Starting Aug. 30, was 3-1 in 4 starts the rest of the way... Best effort was 6-hit, 7-1 triumph over Milwaukee on Oct. 1², his 1st major league complete game... Fanned 8 batters each in starts vs. Toronto on Aug. 30 and New York on Sep. 14².

Debut: Made his big league debut in relief against Oakland on Apr. 29 at 20 years, 4 months of age... Was the youngest Oriole to appear in a major league game since pitcher Mike Adamson made his debut at 19 years, 9 months in July '67... Other notable O's "youngsters" include: Brooks Robinson (18-4), Wally Bunker (18-7), Jim Palmer (19-7), Paul Blair (20-7), and Cal Ripken, Jr. (20-11).

Rochester: Was 2-0 with a 1.38 era (2 er/13 ip) in 2 starts before his 1st recall and 0-1 with a 4.61 (7 er/13.2 ip) in 2 games in his 2nd stint with the Wings in May... Those 4 starts represent his only experience at AAA level.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1981: Finished 2nd in the Southern League with 14 victories and tied for 3rd with 28 games started... Also led Charlotte in shutouts (2), innings pitched (187), and strikeouts (119) while setting career highs in all of the above categories... Topped the S.L. with 215 hits allowed.

Pro Career: In '80 paced Miami (51-85) in wins (9) and strikeouts (90)... In '79 led Bluefield in strikeouts (54 in 58 innings) and starts (10) and had an 0.45 era.

Amateur Career: Was 42-3 in 3 seasons at University Christian High School (graduated '79)... Struck out 496 batters in 278 innings and had an 0.45 era... Earned all-conference, all-region, and team "mvp" honors in all 3 seasons and was all-state as a junior and senior... Pitched school to state championship in '78 and '79... Named "amateur high school player of the year" by Jacksonville Boys Club and Recreation Department in '79... Played 1st base when not pitching.

Was all-conference in football in '76, '77, and '78 and was all-region and team captain each of last 2 seasons... Earned all-state mention as a senior... Lettered twice in basketball, voted best defensive player as a senior, and tied the school record for most points in one game (31) in '79... Also played Little League baseball.

Nickname: George's nickname, "Storm" originated before he was born... While Mrs. Davis was pregnant with George, she was reading a book about a character named Dr. Storm... She wanted her son to have the same qualities as the character possessed, thus the nickname.

Personal: His father, George, Sr., now head football and baseball coach at Temple Christian Academy, coached Storm from age 6 thru high school... His mother is a talk show hostess on WCRJ Radio in Jacksonville.

Is actively involved with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes... He and his wife, Angie (Angeline Leonara Gay) were married Sep. 6, '80.

'82 SEASON & CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

'82 Summary: For 5th straight year Rick did the majority of the O's catching. He started 101 of the club's 163 games and appeared in a total of 124 behind the plate. He has caught 734 games in his career with the Orioles, second only to Gus Triandos' 784.

Rick hit all of his homers during the first half (has played 66 games since his last one on July 5 off Angels' Ken Forsch at Anaheim), but batted only .215 (40-for-186) in 63 games. After the all-star break he batted .304 (48-for-158) in 62 games and hit .323 (21-for-65) during the O's stretch run in September & October (see "Strong Finisher" below)... He reached his season high (.256) after the final game... Went 2-for-3 in that climactic Oct. 3rd tussle.

Had the O's only hit, a 5th inning single off Jim Gott, against Toronto May 30. Gott (6 ip) and Roy Lee Jackson (3 ip) combined to blank the O's, 6-0... Was 3-for-8 (.375) as a pinch-hitter.

Switching: Rick experimented with switch-hitting in the Florida Instructional League, spring training and early in the '82 season. The experiment expired in early May after Rick had gone 2-for-13 with hits off Dennis Leonard, K.C., on opening day and the Angels' Angel Moreno.

By Month: April-.226 (5-for-31), 14 g... May-.260 (20-for-77), 24 g... June-.157 (8-for-51), 17 g... July-.293 (17-for-58), 22 g... August-.242 (15-for-62), 23 g... Sep. & Oct.-.323 (21-for-65), 25 g.

Strong Finisher: During his 7 seasons with the O's Rick has hit better in the 2nd half than in the first 6 times... His pre all-star game average for that period is .225 (278-for-1235)... He has a .260 (264-for-1017) mark after intermission.

Fielding: Rick committed only 5 errors in 542 chances for a percentage of .991 (5th in A.L.)... That was his 2nd lowest error total (he made only one in 420 chances during the abbreviated '81 season).

Went 57 games without a miscue from June 11 thru Sep. 3... His lifetime percentage is .986 (60 e in 4211 tc).

Eraser Rate: His .354 percentage against the stolen base (23-for-65) in '82 was his 2nd lowest as an Oriole. However, in his 7 Baltimore seasons, Rick has thrown out 219 of 499 would-be stealers for an impressive .439 eraser rate. For comparison's sake, the A.L. average last year against the stolen base was .363.

Additionally, he has picked off 15 runners in the last 5 years, including 2 last year.

Nailed the first 9 base stealers to run against him in '81, and in spring training last year Rick erased 13 of 16 including 10 in a row at one stretch.

Became the first ever to nip Seattle speedster Julio Cruz twice in a game, on Sep. 1, '81 (with Steve Stone pitching). That was the same year Cruz tied Willie Wilson's '80 A.L. record with 32 consecutive steals.

Threw out 4 Angels in one game on May 12, '77 at Anaheim (Bobby Grich, Gil Flores, Jerry Remy and Don Baylor) and has tossed out 3 stealers in a game on 6 other occasions. (Most recently on June 22, '79 against Detroit).

In '79 WS he was credited with 2 caught stealings in 2 attempts, both in game #2 (Bill Madlock and Matt Alexander)... After that, only one Pirate tried to run (Madlock in game #4) and Dave Skaggs threw him out... In '79 ALCS Rod Carew was the only Angel to run on Rick and Rod didn't make it (game #1).

Year-by-Year Record for O's:

vs. Opponents: In '82 he batted .423 (11-for-26) vs. Toronto; .364 (8-for-22) vs. K.C. and .333 (11-for-33) against Milwaukee... Has a .305 (57-for-187) career average against the Twins, the club that signed him originally.

His home run high vs. one club lifetime is 6 against Boston (5 of them at Fenway). This despite the fact that his career average vs. the Carmines is only .193 (38-for-197).

CS/WS: Batted a composite .323 (10-for-31) in 10 '79 post-season games... Started 3 of 4 ALCS games and 6 of 7 in the WS (Dave Skaggs started the other 2 games). Threw out only 3 runners attempting to steal against him (see "Eraser Rate" above).

PREVIOUS ORIOLES CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1981: Led A.L. catchers in fielding percentage at .998, but compiled his lowest full season average with the O's (.215).

1980: Batted .292 (56-for-192) from July 1 thru end of year (66 games) to wind up at .262, matching his best previous average ('75 with Yankees)... Set career highs in hr (9), 2bh (26) and rbi (51).

O's catching combination of Dempsey and Graham contributed 93 rbi (catching only). It was 2nd highest total in club history... '73-103 (Earl Williams-65, Andy Etchebarren-23 and Ellie Hendricks-15).

Rick, Graham and Skaggs amassed 90 assists to tie Texas catchers for league lead... Played 6 games in outfield and 2 at 1b.

1979: Led A.L. catchers in assists (81) and fielded .990 (7 errors in 703 chances)... Was hitting .278 in mid-June, then tailed off to .239 at end of season.

Rick, Dennis Martinez, Ken Singleton and Earl Weaver accompanied a selected group of major league all-stars on a post-season playing tour of Japan.

1978: Batted .293 from June 23rd to end of year... Was hitting only .209 thru June 22, but finished at .259... Had 2 4-hit days at Kingdome... Had a 3-for-4 day with a home run on Aug. 30 off Ron Guidry who was 25-3 with a 1.74 era that year.

1977: Became a major league regular for 1st time and caught in 79 of O's 1st 83 games thru July 8... That night he was hit by a Don Gullett pitch which broke a bone in his left index finger... Came off the disabled list Aug. 21 (Brooks Robinson went on voluntarily retired list to accommodate his return to active roster), but caught only 12 more games the rest of the way.

1976: After joining O's in mid-June shared catching duties with Dave Duncan... Played 3 games in outfield. Batted .213 for the O's (37-for-174) and .119 (5-for-42) for the Yankees.

YANKEES AND TWINS

Yankees: Spent 1st year in Yankees organization ('73) at Syracuse, but was called up to N.Y. in Sep... In '76 he played 21 games for Yanks including 1st 4 games of season as starting catcher while Thurman Munson recovered from hand injury (but was in lineup as dh).

Twins: Recalled by Twins in Sep. for 3 straight years ('69 thru '71), then started '72 in Minnesota before being assigned to Tacoma (PCL).

Was chosen by Twins in 14th round of June '67 draft and was signed by former Phila. A's pitcher Jesse Flores. Was 2 time all-star selection in Southern League while playing for Charlotte, then a Minnesota farm club ('70-'71)... Was "mvp" in N.Y.-Penn. League in '68.

PERSONAL

Rick's 26-year old brother, Pat, also a catcher, spent 6 years in the A's organization ('77-'82) before signing as a free agent with O's triple-A club in Rochester for '83... He was A's #2 pick in January '77 draft.

Went to Crespi High School in Encino, CA... His parents, George T. Dempsey and the former June Archer, performed on vaudeville circuit... His father also played in the Broadway production of SONG OF NORWAY, after World War II.

Rick is a bit of a thespian himself... Has twice given his famous "Baseball Soliloquy in Pantomime" during rain delays at Fenway Park, most recently in June '80.

He and his wife, the former Johanna DeMatteo, were married Feb. 1, '69... They have 2 sons: John (8/18/71) and Christian Matthew (3/1/78)... The Dempseys are 1 of many current Orioles families who own homes in the Baltimore area... Rick competed in the Superstars competition in Florida in January '82.

Mike was only 8-10 on Aug. 13, but finished with a rush, winning 7 of his last 8 decisions, including 7 in a row from Aug. 17 thru Sep. 19 (in 9 starts). . . See "August Turnaround" below.

He led the O's in complete games (11), was 2nd to Dennis Martinez in innings (236 to 252), and tied for 2nd with Palmer in both wins (15) and strikeouts (103) behind Dennis (16 and 118).

His final win of the season, on Sep. 19th vs. Cleveland at home, was the 100th of his big league career.

August Turnaround: On Aug. 13 Mike started against the Red Sox in Boston and gave up hits to each of the 5 batters he faced before departing with none out in the 1st. After that loss, he was 8-10.

Over his next 9 starts, thru Sep. 19, he was 7-0 with 2 no decisions and compiled a 2.83 era (70 ip, 22 er), a pace which reduced his seasonal era from 3.91 to 3.58.

The streak ended on Sep. 24th when he lost to Don Sutton, 15-6, to the Brewers at Milwaukee. . . In his last 3 outings starting with the Sep. 24th defeat, Mike was touched for 13 earned runs in 7.1 innings which accounts for his final 3.97 era.

By Month: April: (0-3, 3 g), May: (3-1, 6 g), June: (3-2, 6 g), July: (1-3, 6 g), August: (4-1, 7 g), Sep-Oct.: (4-1, 8 g).

Odds and Ends: Was 6-8 during the 1st half with a 3.60 era and 9-3 in the 2nd despite a 4.34 era. His one shutout was a 3-hitter against the Seattle Mariners at Baltimore May 3rd. That was his 1st win of the season after losing his 1st 3 decisions. Also lost 3 straight from June 30 thru July 8 (was 6-8 at that point).

In addition to his 7 game win streak, Mike won 4 in a row from May 21 thru June 9.

1982 & CAREER

Last 5 & 6 Years: Over the past 5 seasons (starting '78), Mike ranks 1st in the A.L. in starts (170), ahead of Dennis Leonard (155) and 2nd in innings (1150) behind Larry Gura (1159). He has 82 wins in that period to rank 4th in the majors behind: (1) Steve Carlton-94; (2) Ron Guidry-85, and (3) Tommy John-83.

In the last 6 years, he is 1st in A.L. starts (209 to Leonard's 194); 2nd to Leonard in innings (1385 to 1436) and 5th in the majors (4th in A.L.) in victories (97), behind (1) Carlton-117, (2) Guidry-101, and (3) Leonard-98.

O's All-Time List: Ranks 5th in wins (100) and innings (1,480); 6th in shutouts (14) and losses (70), and 10th in both games (230) and won-lost percentage (.588). . . See page 7 for more details.

Pick Offs & Caught Stealing: He picked off 10 runners (including 6 scored as caught stealing) in '82. During his A.L. career he has caught 44 runners leaning the wrong way: '75-0, '76-2, '77-4, '78-5, '79-8, '80-10, '81-5, '82-10.

In his 6 full seasons in the A.L., only 51 of 110 runners (59 cs) have succeeded in stealing on him, a percentage of only 46%. For comparison's sake, the '82 success rate for A.L. base-stealers was nearly 64%.

Injuries: His string of 157 straight starts came to an end late in '81 when he tore a muscle in his left forearm Aug. 23 while throwing a strikeout pitch to the A's Cliff Johnson. He came out at that point and didn't work again for 26 days. Prior to that injury he hadn't missed a start since June '77—more than 4 years.

He began experiencing stiffness in his pitching arm that year as early as May 14.

Though he missed no starts in '80, Mike's effectiveness was below par for much of the year particularly after a pain developed in the front of his left shoulder on June 27.

After that season both Dr. B. Stanley Cohen of Baltimore's Sinai Hospital and Dr. Arthur Pappas, Red Sox team physician, diagnosed his trouble as "tired arm." They prescribed a continuing physical therapy and weight program designed to increase arm strength.

In '78 Mike was plagued throughout the 2nd half with a persistent case of tendinitis in the left ankle, a malady that severely hampered his efficiency, but didn't bump him from the rotation.

vs. Toronto: Mike was 3-0 in '82 and is 15-4 lifetime against the Jays with 4 shutouts and a 2.40 era (157.2 ip, 42 er). At Memorial Stadium, he's been unbeatable vs. Toronto. He's 10-0 in 10 starts with 9 complete games and a 1.11 era (89 ip, 56 h, 11 er) and has thrown 3 shutouts.

Only once has he failed to go the route against the Blue Jays at Baltimore, and, in that game on Sep. 21, '80, he worked 8 innings, yielded only 4 hits and one run and earned the win with a 9th inning save from Tim Stoddard.

vs. Minnesota: He went 3-0 vs. Minnesota last year in 3 starts and has now beaten the Twins 12 straight times since losing his first 2 career decisions, the latter on May 29, '77 to Dave Goltz. Thus, he's 12-2 lifetime.

vs. Other Opponents: Mike has never lost at the Oakland Coliseum where he is 8-0 lifetime (he didn't have a decision in his only '82 start there). Overall, he's 12-4 against the A's despite an 0-1 record last year.

He's back over .500 vs. New York at 8-7, having won his last 2 decisions against the Bombers. He was 1-0 in 3 starts in '82 (O's won all 3 games), and won his final start against them in '81 (Oct. 4). Prior to that he had lost 5 straight and immediately before that had won 5 in a row vs. the Yankees.

See records vs. each opponent on page 25.

ORIOLES CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1980-81: Both seasons were marred by arm trouble (see "Injuries" above). His combined figures for those 2 seasons which followed his Cy Young campaign were: 25-19, 367 ip, 386 hits and an era of 4.14.

Despite his problems in '80, he was 12-8 as late as Aug. 6, and tied for 2nd in the A.L. in starts (37) with Steve Stone behind Dennis Leonard's 38. . . Also led the league in hits allowed (278).

1979: Led majors with 23 wins and earned the A.L. Cy Young award, (in a 12 year period from '69 thru '80, O's won 6 Cys). . . He tied for A.L. lead in shutouts (6).

On July 7, Mike was 10-6 but had a 4.05 era. . . In his last 18 starts, he went 13-3 with a 2.22 era and 10 complete games. From Aug. 8 thru Sep. 13 he won 8 straight in 8 starts.

Mike credited much of his '79 success to the development of a change-up taught to him by Scott McGregor.

Cy Young & Other Honors: Mike was landslide winner of the BBWAA award, capturing 26 1sts and 2 2nds among the 28 ballots cast for a total of 136 points (5-3-1 point system). . . He was only pitcher named on all ballots and finished well ahead of New York southpaws Tommy John (1 1st, 51 points) and Ron Guidry (1 1st, 26 points).

In addition, he was named A.L. "pitcher of the year" by The Sporting News by vote of fellow players and was named the top lefthander on TSN's A.L. All-Star team. Was also selected the outstanding lefthander on both the A.P. and U.P.I. A.L. All Star teams.

Mike finished 6th (highest ranking pitcher) in the A.L. "mvp" voting, was named as "graduate of the year" by both the Junior American Legion and Babe Ruth programs, and received the Clark Griffith Memorial Award for outstanding achievement by the Washington, D.C. Touch-down Club.

CS/WS: Started game 2 of the ALCS and, after yielding a 1st inning homer to Dan Ford, became beneficiary of 9 Orioles runs which gave him a 9-1 lead after 3 innings. In the 8th he still led by 6 but failed to retire any of the 1st 3 batters and was relieved by Don Stanhouse who was ineffective but got the job done. The Angels trailed only 9-8 and had bases loaded in 9th when Brian Downing bounced into a game-ending force.

Mike pitched the world series opener and went the route for a 5-4 win. Again he was treated to a big cushion (O's scored 5 in 1st). Pirates had tying runs on 3rd when game ended.

Started game 5 in Pittsburgh and was down by 2-1 in the 6th when removed for a pinch-hitter. . . Pirates roughed up 3 successors and won 7-1 with Mike getting the loss.

He was 1 of 5 relief pitchers to work for the O's in the 9th inning of game 7.

1978: Was 11-4 thru June 22 and had gone 24-6 since the previous June 27, but was hampered by a severe case of tendinitis in his left ankle the 2nd half of the season and went just 8-11 the rest of the way.

Won his 17th game on Aug. 26 (only Guidry with 18 had more in the majors at the time). . . Needed only 3 wins in final 8 starts to reach 20, but lost that bid on the last day of the season when Detroit beat him.

Had distinction of being 1 of only 3 pitchers to beat Guidry (along with fellow lefties Mike Willis and Mike Caldwell). . . Was selected to A.L. pitching staff for all star game in San Diego but did not work.

Near No-Hitter-'78: On Sep. 26, '78 at home, Mike nearly became 5th O's pitcher to toss a no-hitter. . . Instead he became the 6th Baltimore hurler deprived of one in the 9th inning (Bob Turley-'54, Don Ferrarese-'56, Dave McNally and Mike Cuellar-both '69 and Jim Palmer-'73).

Mike came closer than the other 5. . . He had 2 down in the 9th when Cleveland's Gary Alexander homered into the low rows of the right field seats. . . He then gave up singles to Alfredo Griffin and Duane Kuiper and Stanhouse came on to preserve the win.

On 2 earlier occasions in '78 he flirted with no-hitters: July 13 vs. Min. (5.1 hitless innings) and Aug. 21 vs. Oak. (6.1 hitless).

1977: Started the season 2-8 but from June 27 on won 13 of 15 decisions, including his last 6 in a row.

1975-76: Made his big league debut on Sep. 5, '75 at home vs. the Yankees with no decision, then started for the 1st time on Sep. 28 at Yankee Stadium in final game of year and lost 3-2 to Larry Gura.

Started '76 with O's but was 0-3 in 10 appearances when he was sent back to Rochester July 2. . . Returned to Baltimore on Aug. 11 after going 6-1 for Red Wings, but dropped 2 more decisions. . . Was 0-5 lifetime when he broke into win column with 6-hit 7-1 victory over Royals on Sep. 1, '76.

MINOR LEAGUE CAREER/AMATEUR BACKGROUND

Minors: Was 35-16 in 3+ minor league seasons and 19-5 in a season and a half at Rochester. . . Was selected as International League's top lefty in '75.

Signing: Was Baltimore's 7th pick in June '73 draft. Would undoubtedly have been chosen earlier except for elbow problems that developed originally in high school. . . Was signed by John Stokoe who was convinced his arm was again sound.

Was drafted earlier by Houston in '71, but opted instead to go to the University of Massachusetts (at Amherst).

College: Was 12-1 in 2 years at U. of Mass., and led Yankee Conference in wins (9), strikeouts (89) and era (1.72) as a sophomore. . . That year ('73) in 1 game he hit 3 homers, fanned 15 batters and pitched a 1-hitter against U. of Maine in the regional tournament. . . Played the outfield while not pitching for the Minutemen.

Mike was a starting guard on U. of Mass. freshman basketball team that was 18-1. Once played against Julius Erving in a frosh-varsity scrimmage.

High School/Other: Played 4 years of baseball and basketball at Memorial High in Manchester (graduated '71). . . The school won 2 state titles in each sport while he was there. . . Once fanned 31 batters in an extra inning game. . . Holds New Hampshire schoolboy record for most points scored in a state tournament championship game (44) and was selected as 1 of New Hampshire's 5 best high school basketball players in the 70s. . .

His prospects took a downward turn in summer of '70 when he came out of an American Legion Junior World Series game at Klamath Falls, Oregon with a sore elbow. . . Didn't pitch his senior year, but resumed mound career in Cape Cod (summer) League and at U. of Mass.

Once pitched in Fairbanks, Alaska during a Babe Ruth League tournament.

Personal: Mike's father, Edward, was a pitcher (late 40s, early 50s) in the Red Sox system, and his grandfather, Edward, Sr., signed a pro contract in 1913. . . Hobbies: hunting and fishing.

He and his wife, the former Kathy Walsh, were married Jan. 14, '77. . . Kathy is also from Manchester but didn't know Mike when they were growing up. . . They own a home in Cockeysville (Baltimore County), but spend much of their off-seasons in Amherst, N.H. (near Manchester) where they built a house in '79.

On July 9th last year, Kathy gave birth to their first child—8 lb., 8 oz. Kerry Ellen—who became the first "in vitro fertilization" baby born in America by normal delivery (as opposed to "Caesarean Section").

Before and during her in vitro pregnancy Kathy was attended by Drs. Howard and Georgeanna Jones of the Eastern Virginia Medical School in Norfolk. The Joneses have developed an international reputation in more than 40 years of practicing, teaching and conducting gynecological research. Much of that time they spent at The Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Orioles: Used exclusively in relief, John faced the Yankees in his first 2 outings and the Tigers in the last 3, earning one win against each. Had 13 strikeouts in 13.2 innings and allowed just 3 walks.

Wins: Hurlled 6 shutout innings and fanned 7, both career highs, Sep. 14 (1st game), in Baltimore vs. Yankees. Jim Palmer won the 5th game).

In his last '82 appearance, defeated Detroit Sep. 30 in critical game for O's. Trailing in the game, 4-0, when he entered in the 5th, John held Bengals to just one run and 3 hits the rest of the way. Meanwhile, O's rallied for 6 runs, 4 in the 9th, for 6-5 lead which he protected to win.

1982 SEASON

Dan started the season on a high note, producing a 3-run homer off the Royals' Grant Jackson on opening day (1 of 4 O's homers that afternoon), his first game in an Orioles uniform. However, his seasonal performance was, for the most part, well below his normal standard.

He appeared in 70 of the O's first 83 games to the all-star break and batted .250 (67-for-268), but dipped to .209 (32-for-153) after intermission while appearing in only 53 of the O's last 80 games. He played in only 37 of the Birds final 64 battles after July 31st.

He had a .262 average (60-for-229) on the road, but struggled at Memorial Stadium where he batted .203 (39-for-192). One of his most notable achievements at home was a pinch-grand slam off Milwaukee's Jamie Easterly on June 14. It was his 2nd career slam and contributed to a win over the Brewers. He was 4-for-16 (.250) as a pinch-hitter.

By Month: April-.185 (12-for-65), 17 g. . . May-.247 (23-for-93), 23 g. . . June-.300 (21-for-70), 19 g. . . July-.207 (19-for-92), 27 g. . . August-.226 (12-for-53), 19 g. . . Sep.-Oct.-.250 (12-for-48), 18 g.

'82 AND PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

vs. Opponents: In '82 Dan excelled at the plate against the Yankees-.483 (14-for-29); the Rangers-.389 (14-for-36) and the Brewers-.323 (10-for-31).

Lifetime, his top average vs. a single opponent is .298 (78-for-262) against the Angels. He has been highly productive against the Oakland A's-.297 (93-for-313), with a career high of 15 homers. His top rbi figure against one club is 54 vs. K.C.

He has hit 33 home runs at the late Metropolitan Stadium in Minnesota, 27 at Anaheim, 9 at Baltimore (plus 2 more in the '79 ALCS), and 7 each in Oakland and Seattle.

Defense: Has played outfield exclusively on defense. In 947 games lifetime he has a .972 percentage (57 e in 2055 tc) with 46 assists. Played mostly in center as a rookie with the Twins in '75, but has been stationed in right most of the time since.

Angels, ('79-'81): Had two productive seasons with the Angels—'79, his best, and '81. The '80 campaign was largely a lost cause, primarily because of surgery performed the previous November for removal of torn cartilage in his right knee.

1981: Two on-field fights; a 3 day suspension in September for use of a corked bat, and a Dan Ford centerfold in the July issue of PLAYGIRL Magazine highlighted an often turbulent season.

One of the tussles occurred at Anaheim Aug. 23 against Cleveland after Dan was hit in the ribs by a John Denny pitch. He had gone 7-for-9 vs. the Indians the 2 previous nights.

The other such incident, on April 29, featured a tug-of-war between Dan and Oakland catcher Mike Heath with Dan's bat serving as the rope. Heath apparently was inspecting it for cork.

1980: He didn't play in any spring exhibitions following his November surgery, but did start in rightfield on opening day and contributed a double and home run. However, his average dipped sharply by late May and he spent two months on the disabled list (June 3 thru Aug. 4) resting the still healing knee. After returning, he hit .343 (37-for-108) the rest of the way and during that stretch, assembled a 16-game hitting streak, the longest of his career.

1979: Set career highs in avg. (.290), runs (100), hits (165), hr (21) and rbi (101) while helping Cal win its first division title. He was one of 3 Angels' 100 rbi men along with Don Baylor-139 and Bobby Grich-101.

Had 4 rbi in the game vs. K.C. that clinched the title Sep. 25, and batted .340 (16-for-47) as a starter with 14 rbi that month to help the Angels fight off the Royals. Hit his 1st career grand slam on June 8 at Anaheim off Detroit's John Hiller.

In one hot stretch in August he tied an Angels record with 8 consecutive hits (Aug. 8 & 10) and hit for the cycle on Aug. 10 vs. Seattle (at Cal.) while enjoying his only 5-hit game in the majors (5-for-7, 1-1bh, 2-2bh, 1-3bh, 1-hr... off Mike Parrott).

On Aug. 11, after going 13-for-18 in a four game span, he raised his average to .301, his highest ever late in the season.

ALCS: Homered in 1st inning of both games 1 and 2 at Baltimore (off Jim Palmer and Mike Flanagan) and led the Angels in average (.294), homers (2) and rbi (4) in the 4 game ALCS.

Twins, '75-'78: Became a regular at Minnesota (primarily as a centerfielder) in June '75 and ultimately earned Twins' "rookie of the year" honors (by vote of Twin Cities BBWAA)... Was named to the Topps' major league rookie all-star team outfield along with Fred Lynn and Jim Rice.

Had two 4-hit days, connected for 3 home runs and a double in a twin bill against Texas July 4, and led the Twins in home runs in both '75 (15) and '76 (20).

In '76 he moved over to rightfield. Had a career high 6 rbi against the Angels at Anaheim May 15... In '77 he was batting only .221 on June 27 (48-for-217) after 70 games, then hit .309 the rest of the way (73-for-236) in 74 games.

In '78 he ranked 2nd in the A.L. in triples with 13 to Rod Carew's 16, and had 57 extra base hits, but was no better than 3rd on his own team in that category. Carew had 68 and Lyman Bostock 62.

Oakland: Was signed by Oakland scout Phil Pote after the A's had picked him in 1st round of June '70 draft... Batted .290 and averaged 14.5 homers in his 4 minor league seasons in the A's system... Trained with the "big club" in the spring of '74.

Led the Pacific Coast League in outfield assists (16) in '72 and was picked to the Midwest League all-star team in '71.

Personal: Served in U.S. Army... Graduated from John C. Fremont High School in L.A. ('70)... Has attended Southwestern C.C. in Chula Vista, CA and Mesa, AZ C.C. Hobbies: fishing, hunting, golf and camping... Nickname: "Disco Dan".

He and his wife, the former Patricia Sneed, were married Nov. 5, '71... The Fords have 2 children: Danny, Jr. (11/20/70) and Kimberly (11/2/77).

1982 SEASON

Acquired by Orioles' organization April 28 from the Dodgers' San Antonio farm club (AA, Texas) and played for Charlotte, Rochester, and Baltimore. Batted .302 (166-for-549) and stole a career-high 20 bases for the 4 clubs.

Primarily a third baseman, Leo also saw action at second base, first base, all 3 outfield positions, as a pinch-hitter and designated hitter.

Played ball this past winter at Caracas in the Venezuelan League.

Baltimore: Purchased from Red Wings Sep. 11 after rosters had expanded to the 40-player limit. Made just 2 appearances, both as a pinch-hitter, and fanned both times.

Made major league debut at Memorial Stadium Sep. 19 vs. Cleveland and final appearance at Milwaukee Sep. 24.

Rochester: Joined Wings July 17 when incumbent third baseman Glenn Gulliver was called up to the Orioles. Hit safely in 43 of 53 games and never hit below .302. Only twice went more than one game without a hit, both 2-game spells.

Played in 53 of Rochester's 54 games after his acquisition. Hit safely in all 6 play-off games involving Rochester, batting .375 (9-for-24).

Charlotte: Joined Charlotte in Savannah April 30, and homered in his first game. Was tied for club lead in homers (20 with Don Bowman) and was leading in rbi (61) after just 68 games when promoted to Rochester.

Had 3 home runs and 6 rbi while going 4-for-4 at Orlando June 2, but in a losing cause as O's lost, 12-9.

Suspension: Charged with using an illegal bat by Savannah Braves' manager Andy Gilbert May 1 (first game), but plate umpire ruled it was OK. Gilbert protested the game and sent the bat to the league office. Southern League President Jimmy Bragan reportedly found cork in the bat, upheld the protest, fined Hernandez and suspended him for 6 days, beginning May 16.

The game, which Charlotte had won, 5-4, was replayed June 14 from the point of protest, and Charlotte won again, 2-1.

Among all the deals the Orioles have made in 29 American League seasons, the one that brought John Lowenstein to Baltimore from Texas after the '78 season for the waiver price has to rank right up near the top.

In nearly 8 full A.L. seasons prior to Baltimore, John batted .238 (467-for-1966) with 48 homers and 204 rbi in 723 games.

Since joining the O's in '79, he has batted .289 (261-for-904), hit 45 homers, and driven in 147 runs in 406 games.

"Brother Low" has been a heavy contributor in each of his 4 Baltimore seasons, but last year he was...well, he was just ridiculous.

It's true that he did not qualify (he had 384 plate appearances and needed 502), but, nonetheless, among everyone who played in 20 or more games, he led the league in: (1) on-base percentage-.421 (158-for-377)...(2) slugging percentage-.602 (194 total bases in 322 at bats)... and, (3) home run frequency (1 every 13.42 at bats).

Career Highs: He established career highs in average (.320), runs (69), home runs (24), rbi (66), and walks (54), and his 14-game batting streak from Apr. 28² thru May 18 was also his longest ever.

Hot Flashes: He was hot most of the year, but there were several particularly torrid stretches. . . In 21 games from Apr. 28² thru May 25 (which included his 14-game hitting streak), he drove in 21 runs and hit 10 homers. During the period May 10 thru 16, he batted .588 (10-for-17) and was voted A.L. "player of the week."

Over the last 60 games of the year, starting July 21, he batted at a .340 clip (55-for-162), and he was one of 5 O's who batted over .300 during the last 44 games of which they won 33 and nearly captured the A.L. East.

Leftfield Cooperative: John, Gary Roenicke, and Benny Ayala were the principals in the O's remarkable leftfield coalition which produced 41 homers and 123 rbi only while playing leftfield.

Odds and Ends: Batted .314 (48-for-153) at home (10 hr) and .325 (55-for-161) on the road (14 hr). . . Hit .304 (46-for-151) in 58 1st half games, and .333 (57-for-171) in 64 games during the 2nd half.

John demolished western division pitching at a .372 clip (55-for-148) with 17 homers in 58 games. . . He batted .276 vs. the east (48-for-174) and hit 7 homers in 60 games.

He batted .318 with runners on 2nd & 3rd, and was 2nd on the club to Terry Crowley in base runners advance percentage (25%).

Month-By-Month: April-.319 (7-for-22), 2 hr, 12 g. . . May-.347 (25-for-72), 8 hr, 23 g. . . June-.222 (8-for-36), 1 hr, 17 g. . . July-.375 (18-for-48), 5 hr, 17 g. . . August-.296 (21-for-71), 5 hr, 27 g. . . Sep.-Oct.-.329 (24-for-73), 3 hr, 26 g.

'82 PREVIOUS O'S CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Fielding: Didn't make an error in 112 games last year (204) total chances. His last miscue was on Sep. 29, '81, so the streak has reached 114 games (207 chances). He's made only one error in his last 206 games (356 chances). Has only 3 errors in 4 years with O's, 572 chances, .995.

vs. Opponents: In '82, John batted .292 or better against 9 different clubs. He hit .400 (10-for-25) against the Rangers and .385 (10-for-26) vs. Oakland with 5 home runs and 10 rbi in 10 games. . . See page 32 for more details.

His best lifetime average is .301 (106-for-352) against the Brewers, and his 55 rbi vs. Milwaukee is easily a high against one club (Oakland is 2nd at 36). . . He has hit 11 home runs against both the Brewers and A's.

In his last 2 years against Oakland he has batted .371 (23-for-62) with 7 hr & 16 rbi in 21 games. . . In '81, on May 19, he was beamed by Mike Norris, a blow that shattered his glasses. An inning later, he batted again against Norris, stroked a single, went to 2nd on a balk and came around to score the ultimate winning run on a DeCinces single.

Pinch-Hitting, etc.: In '82, he hit .294 (5-for-17) as a pinch-hitter; and during his 4 years with the O's, John has a .302 pinch-hitting average (19-for-63). Over the last 3 years, he's batting .299 (53-for-177) with runners in scoring position.

Fence Busting/Injuries: Since joining O's, John has made frequent contact with outfield fences and on 3 occasions has been sidelined with injuries as a result, once in '79 and twice in '80. Two of the collisions required time on the disabled list.

He sprained tendons in the right hand while batting on Sep. 24, '80, and missed last 12 games of season.

PREVIOUS O'S CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1981: Was batting .270 on Sep. 8, then went 6-for-37 (.162) the rest of the way with no rbi in 18 games. . . Had his first 2-homer game in majors (see agate under career record) on Sep. 5 off Rick Langford and gave O's "sudden death" win over K.C. in 2nd season opener with 12th-inning single off Renie Martin.

1980: Despite 3 injuries that sidelined him for a total of 6 weeks, John had a very good year: (1) hit over .300 for 1st time. . . (2) led O's in batting with men on 2nd & 3rd-.349, 16-for-46. . . (3) had a .408 on-base percentage (93-for-228), best on the club. . . (4) batted .417 as a pinch-hitter (5-for-12). . . (5) drove in the winning run one way or another 4 times in the late innings. . . and (6) provided one of the funniest moments on record with his famed "stretcher/Rocky salute" caper. . . Ask him or anybody on the club about it.

1979: Hit 11 homers, 2nd highest total of his career to that point and was 2nd on club in steals with 16 in 20 attempts. Drove in 13 (of his 34) runs vs. Seattle.

Hit his 2nd career slam on July 24² off Seattle's Odell Jones at Baltimore, went 3-for-5 and drove in a career high 6 runs. . . His first bases-loaded shot was at Yankee Stadium for the Indians, June 24, '74, off Mike Wallace.

ALCS/WS: John was the hero of ALCS game 1 when, in his 1st post-season game ever, he hit a 3-run pinch-hit homer in the bottom of the 10th off John Montague to give the O's an instant 6-3 win at Baltimore. . . It was the 1st home run by a pinch-hitter in ALCS history. . . He played in all 4 games and started 2.

John appeared in 6 world series games and was a starter in 3, but his major contribution was as a pinch-hitter in game 4. The O's trailed 6-3 in the 8th inning at Pittsburgh, but John initiated a 6-run rally with a 2-run pinch-double off Pirate reliever Kent Tekulve, and the Birds went on to win 9-6.

EARLY CAREER

Cleveland: He was signed originally for Cleveland by former Oriole Bob Nieman. . . Had never played a regular season game outside the Indians' organization until after he was traded to Texas in '78.

His best year in 8 with Cleveland (2 partial, 6 full) was '73 when he hit .292, but his most productive was '74. That season he set career highs in 7 categories including runs (65), hits (123), rbi (48) and steals (36). . . His stolen base total was 3rd highest in A.L. . . 1982 SEASON

Dennis matched his previous career high with 16 wins, tied for 8th best in the American League. He was also one of the busiest pitchers in the circuit, finishing 2nd in starts with 39 (one shy of the club record) and 5th in innings pitched at 252.

In addition, he led the O's in strikeouts (111), tied for the top spot in shutouts (2), and was 2nd in complete games (10). However, he also had the most walks on the staff (87), and his 4.21 earned run average was the highest of his major league career.

Dennis was 9-6 in 21 1st half starts with a 3.77 era (58 er in 138.1 ip) and 7-6 with a 4.75 era (60 er in 113.2 ip) in 19 outings (18 starts) after the all-star game. He won 5 of his last 6 decisions, including key victories over Milwaukee in each of his last two starts (see below).

Early Summary: He started slowly, going 2-3 with a 5.21 era (27 er/46.2 ip) in his 1st 8 starts thru May 9. . . Pitched well over his next 10 appearances thru June 26 with a 6-1 record and 2.74 era (21 er/69 ip). . . Had both '82 shutouts in that span, 6-hitter at Toronto on May 22 (6-0) and 3-hitter at Cleveland on June 21 (7-0), his 1st career shutouts on the road.

But over the next 11 starts (July 1-Aug. 16), was just 3-6 with a 5.55 era (38 er/61.2 ip). In one span of 4 starts (July 16-29), failed to survive the 3rd inning 3 times.

Finish: Starting Aug. 20, Dennis was 5-1 in his last 10 starts with a 3.54 era (29 er/73.2 ip). . . In 1st 4 outings in that span, went 3-0 and allowed just 9 runs in 38 innings, including consecutive 10-inning efforts against Texas on Aug. 20 (no decision) and Toronto on Aug. 24 (cg win). . . See "Long Outings" below.

Milwaukee Wins: He was 0-1 in his next 4 starts before flying home to Nicaragua on Sep. 20 to attend the funeral of his father, who was killed in a bus accident. . . With an 8 day layoff, defeated the Brewers at Milwaukee on Sep. 26, 5-2 (7.1 ip, 6 h, 2 r-er) and came back 5 days later with an 8-3 triumph over the division leaders on Oct. 1st at home (6.1 ip, 11 h, 3 r-er) to keep the Birds' pennant hopes alive. Tippy Martinez earned saves in both games and saved 7 of Dennis' victories on the year.

Control: Despite the fact he had control problems for most of the year, Dennis issued just 10 bases on balls in his last 9 starts (63.2 ip) and walked no more than 2 batters in any of those appearances.

Relief: His only relief appearance came on the final day of the season (Oct. 3) when he allowed 2 hits and 3 runs in one inning in the 10-2 loss to Milwaukee.

Has pitched in relief 49 times in major league career, compiling a 9-5 record with 5 saves and a 3.78 era (126.1 ip, 116 h, 53 er). . . Only extensive bullpen work came in '77 (29 g, 8-4, 4 sv) and '80 (13 g, 0-1, 1 sv).

Home: Dennis was 10-4 at Memorial Stadium despite a 4.79 era (72 er/135.1 ip) in 23 games (22 starts). . . In contrast, was 6-8 in 17 road outings with a 3.55 era (46 er/116.2 ip). . . Had a streak of 14 consecutive home victories snapped with a loss to Cleveland on July 1. . . Had not been beaten at Memorial Stadium since Aug. 16, '80 vs. New York.

His lifetime record at home is 45-26 with a 3.30 era (249 er/679.1 ip) and 37-31 on the road with a 4.25 era (290 er/614.2 ip).

Miscellaneous: Was Baltimore's opening day starter on Apr. 5 vs. Kansas City but had no decision. . . Is 7th on the club's all-time list with 82 wins. . . Longest winning streak of the year was 4 straight decisions, May 31-June 26. . . Allowed 30 homers, 9 in last 6 starts.

1982 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Long Outings: He has pitched 10 or more innings in a game 9 times in the majors, compiling a 3-1 record with 5 no decisions. . . Threw 11 shutout innings at California on Aug. 20, '78 and 10 scoreless frames at New York on June 3, '81 but was not the pitcher of record in either game.

Vs. Opponents: Dennis was 3-0 against Toronto with a 1.29 era (4 er/28 ip) and 2-0 against Milwaukee (see above).

Boston. . . Has pitched far more against the Red Sox than vs. any other club in major league career with 25 games, 21 decisions (9-12), and 168.2 ip.

Milwaukee. . . Has won his last 5 decisions against the Brewers since losing on May 8, '80. . . Is 5-0 lifetime vs. Milwaukee at Memorial Stadium over 10 games (7 starts).

New York: Is just 2-6 in career vs. Yankees but ended 4 game losing streak with 9-4 victory over Mike Morgan on June 11 at Baltimore. . . That was his 1st lifetime win as starter over New York with only previous triumph coming in relief on May 20, '77, at Yankee Stadium.

Seattle: Won his 1st 7 career decisions against the M's, but has gone 1-1 vs. them in each of the last 3 seasons.

Toronto: Had not defeated the Blue Jays since Sep. 6, '79 before winning all 3 starts against them in '82. . . Is 8-2 lifetime against Toronto with a 1.75 era and has allowed just 2 home runs in 87.2 innings, both of those coming in the same game on Sep. 19, '81.

Oakland. . . Was 5-0 lifetime against A's before losing to Tom Underwood on July 10 at Oakland. . . See page 26 for complete statistics vs. opponents.

Fielding: Committed one error in 52 total chances for .981 percentage in '82. . . Has led A.L. pitchers in chances 3 times ('78, '79, '81) and topped major league hurlers in putouts, assists, and chances in '81.

1st Nicaraguan: In '76, Dennis became the 1st Nicaraguan ever to play in the major leagues. . . Tony Chevez, who pitched briefly for the O's in '77 was the 2nd and in '80 Twins' hurler Al Williams became the 3rd from Nicaragua to make it to the majors (all pitchers).

CS/WS: Was O's starter in game 3 of the '79 ALCS at Anaheim, pitched well thru 8 innings, and carried a 3-2 lead into the 9th before Angels rallied to win, 4-3 (loss went to Don Stanhouse).

Started game 4 of the world series at Pittsburgh, but gave up 6 hits (including Willie Stargell homer) and 4 runs in 1.1 innings before Sammy Stewart came on. . . Baltimore rebounded from that 4-0 deficit to win behind Tim Lincecum, 9-6.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1981: After experiencing great difficulty from mid-'79 thru '80 (see below), Dennis tied 4 others for the major league lead with 14 wins.

Also topped the O's staff in won-lost percentage (.737, 14-5), starts (24), innings (179), strikeouts (88), and complete games. . . Was 7-3 in the 1st half and 7-2 after the all-star game, including a 4-1 mark in September when he shared A.L. "pitcher of the month" honors with K.C.'s Larry Gura. . . Was 8-0 with 2.27 era at home with a pair of 3-hit shutouts.

Bottle Incident: While waiting for the game to be called because of rain at Chicago on Apr. 22, Dennis was hit in the head by a beer bottle in front of the O's dugout and sustained a 4 inch cut. Dennis pitched in relief the following day.

1980: From June 24, '79 thru the '80 season, he was 11-18 with a 3.98 era (74 er/167.1 ip).

Was hampered by shoulder problems the 1st half of '80, spending 2 periods on the disabled list and pitching just 7 times before the all-star break, not including 2 starts in Miami while on rehabilitation assignment. . . Came off the d.l. in mid-July and was 5-3 with a save and a 3.12 era in 18 games (8 starts) the rest of the way.

Pitched that winter for Ray Miller at Caguas where he was 6-1 with a 1.39 era and won the final playoff game to give Caguas the Puerto Rican League championship.

1979: He led the American League in starts (39), innings (292), and complete games (18). . . Was 10-2 thru June 20, including a career high 10 game winning streak, but went 5-14 the rest of the way to finish as the only pitcher on the O's staff with a losing record (15-16). . . Nine of those final 14 losses were by one run.

After the world series, traveled to Japan with Earl Weaver, Rick Dempsey, and Ken Singleton for a series of major league all-star games.

1978: Thru July 28, Dennis was 7-7 with a 5.13 era. . . From then on, went 9-4 (including 8-1 after Aug. 1) with a 1.72 era and 12 complete games in final 15 starts. . . Pitched 6.2 hitless innings vs. Seattle on Aug. 25 at Baltimore before Bill Stein spoiled it with a single.

1976-77: In his 1st full season, he was 6-3 in 13 starts and 8-4 with 4 saves in 29 relief appearances. . . Made his major league debut on Sep. 14, '76 vs. Detroit at Baltimore and picked up the win with 5.2 scoreless relief innings and 5 strikeouts, including 1st 3 Tigers faced.

Minors: Dennis was originally signed by Ray Poitevint and Julio Blanco Herrera. . . Was 45-19 (.703) in 3 minor league seasons.

Tippy was 2nd in the league in appearances with a career high 76 (23 more than his 2nd busiest season) to Seattle rookie Ed Vandeberg-78. He set a club record for a lefty with 16 saves which was also a personal high as were his 95 innings and 78 strikeouts.

He enjoyed his best overall season despite a slow start. After his first 12 appearances thru May 8, he was 0-3 with 2 saves and a 7.98 era (14.2 ip, 17 h, 13 er).

In 64 appearances thereafter he was 8-5 with 14 saves and a 2.58 era (80.1 ip, 64 h, 23 er).

On Sep. 14 he saved both ends of a doubleheader vs. the Yankees. It was the 1st time that feat had been accomplished by an Oriole since Scotty McGregor did it to the Blue Jays on Sep. 14, '77. Tippy saved another against New York the following day, giving him 3 in a row (see "vs. Yankees" below).

July-Player of Month/Week: He experienced the best month of his career in July during which he didn't allow a run in 16 appearances totaling 19 innings while surrendering just 6 hits plus 3 walks and striking out 22. During that span he was 2-0 with 5 saves and 7 "holds" (see "O's Grading System" below), and was voted A.L. "pitcher of the month."

During the week of July 19-25, he was 1-0 with 2 saves while pitching 9 scoreless innings in 6 games to earn a share of A.L. "player of week" honors with Robin Yount.

By Month: (W-L-SV) April . . . 0-2-1, 8 g; May . . . 1-1-3, 13 g; June . . . 2-1-2, 13 g; July . . . 2-0-5, 16 g; August . . . 3-2-1, 14 g; Sep.-Oct. . . . 0-2-4, 12 g.

Inherited Runners/1st Batter Efficiency: He was scored on in only 21 of his 76 outings . . . Retired 51 of 76 1st batters (67%) and allowed only 35% of all inherited runners to score (29 of 83).

Reliever Grading System: The "Miller-Brown" system for grading relievers was developed last spring and given a shakedown during '82. In essence, relievers gain "positive" points for saves (+3), wins (+2) and "holds" (+1). The pitcher can get both a win and a hold in the same game, but he can have no more than 3 points per appearance.

On the negative side, the pitcher is debited for losses (-2) and "squanders" (-1). He can be charged with one of each in same game, with a maximum of 3 negative points per outing.

Tippy's net was 59 points, more than twice the 2nd ranking Tim Stoddard (28). His 16 saves (+48), 8 wins (+16) and 29 holds (+29) grossed 93 points, but that score was reduced by 34, the sum of 8 losses (-16) and 18 squanders (-18), for a final tally of 59 points.

The definition of the terms "hold" and "squander" are too lengthy to include here, but they are available and so are Ray Miller and Bob Brown who welcome any constructive suggestions to improve the system. We want it to be comprehensive, yet simple.

1982 AND ORIOLES CAREER

Orioles Only: Since joining the O's on June 15, '76, Tippy is 36-23 with 62 saves. He has pitched 474 innings, yielded 413 hits and 171 earned runs, has an era of 3.25, and has walked 229 while striking out 364 in 316 appearances, all in relief.

He ranks 3rd on the O's all-time save list (62), having moved ahead of Dick Hall (51) in '82. He trails Stu Miller (88) and Eddie Watt (72). Tippy is 5th in appearances (316), 26 games back of Hall in 4th place. Palmer (539), Dave McNally (412) and Watt (363) are 1-2-3.

Memorial Stadium: With the Orioles Tippy is 22-9 with 30 saves and a 2.58 era in 141 appearances at Memorial Stadium. 230 ip, 192 h, 66 er, 7 hr (see "Home Runs" below).

On the road for the O's he is 14-14 with 32 saves in 175 games and a 3.88 era . . . 243.1 ip, 221 h, 105 er, 14 hr . . . See page 26 for total career road stats.

R-o-l-a-i-d-s: Tippy with an 8-8 record plus 16 saves accumulated 40 points to win the O's "Rolands Relief Man of the Year" award for the 2nd straight year in '82, and for the 3rd time overall (won in '77 also).

Saves For: In '82 his 16 saves were on behalf of Dennis Martinez-5; Scott McGregor-3; Storm Davis & Jim Palmer-2 each; Mike Boddicker, Mike Flanagan, John Flinn and Sammy Stewart-1 each.

Lifetime for the O's, he has saved 10 each for D. Martinez, McGregor & Palmer; 6 each for Flanagan & Steve Stone; 5 for Rudy May; 4 for Ross Grimsley; 2 each for Davis & Dave Ford; 1 each for Boddicker, Dick Drago, Flinn, Joe Kerrigan, Dyar Miller and Stewart.

Starts: He has started only 2 games in 360 big league appearances and lost both for the Yankees in '75—to Boston July 27 and to California Aug. 24.

"Sudden Death" Wins: Tippy won 2 games in "sudden death" last season. . . Thirteen (13) of his 22 career victories at Memorial Stadium have come in that dramatic fashion. In '79, the O's won 9 games that way and Tippy was the winning pitcher in 5 of them (including 3 in relief of Steve Stone).

vs. New York: In 9 appearances against the organization that signed him to his 1st pro contract, Tippy was all but perfect. He didn't allow a run in 14.1 innings and was 2-0 with 5 saves.

Since coming over from the Yankees in the 10 player deal on June 15, '76, he has appeared in 43 games against New York (a career high vs. one team) and has compiled an 8-5 record with 7 saves plus a 2.44 era (59 ip, 50 h, 16 er).

vs. Other Opponents: Tippy is undefeated lifetime against Texas, Seattle and Toronto. . . Vs. the Rangers he is 5-0 with 6 saves and a 2.11 era in 23 games; he's 2-0 with 5 saves despite a 5.47 era against the Blue Jays in 23 outings, and 2-0 with 4 saves vs. Seattle with a 1.37 era (career low) in 18 games.

The only club he's never beaten is the Angels (he's 0-2), but has 9 saves against the Angels (tops vs. one club) and a 2.30 era. . . More detailed stats on this subject can be found on page 26.

Home Runs: Tippy has given up only 24 home runs during his major league career despite a career high yield of 6 "gophers" in '82. That averages to about one every 23 innings, or 1 every 15 outings for the lefty short reliever.

At Memorial Stadium, he's been even stingier, having served up only 7 home runs in 232 innings (143 games), an average of 1 per 33 innings or 1 every 20 games.

He's given up 7 homers in New York (5 at Y.S., 2 at Shea), 5 at Detroit, 2 at Texas and one each at Boston, Chicago and Seattle. He's never been lit up in California, Cleveland, K.C., Milwaukee, Minnesota (either place), Oakland or Toronto.

The Tigers have damaged him the most with 8 lifetime homers off Tippy (1/3 of the total). . . Yankees-4, Red Sox and Rangers-3 each, Angels & White Sox-2 each and the Mariners & Royals-one each.

The following 6 clubs have never hit a homer off Tippy: Orioles, Indians, Brewers, Twins, A's & Blue Jays.

Only 2 players have hit 2 homers against him lifetime: Carl Yastrzemski (7/27/75 at Shea and 5/20/76 at Y.S.) and Lance Parrish (9/16/80 at Balto. and 5/24/81 at Detroit).

Seven different batters have homered at Baltimore: Hal McRae-KC (4/23/78); Marv Foley-Chi. (4/19/80); Jim Sundberg-Tex. (5/12/80); Parrish-Det. (9/16/80); Bert Campaneris-Cal. (8/30/81); Don Baylor-Cal. (5/1/82) and Larry Herndon-Det. (9/23/82).

He has never thrown a grand slam and the only 3-run homer he's ever allowed was to Boston's Carney Lansford on Aug. 16, '82. He's given up 12 homers with one on and 11 solo shots. Seven of his home run balls have produced the gwrbi for the opposition including 3 in "sudden death," most recently by the Tigers John Wockenfuss in the 9th inning on Sep. 29, '82.

By Year: '74-0, '75-2, '76-1, '77-2, '78-4, '79-0, '80-5, '81-4, '82-6.

He had one stretch of 65 straight homerless appearances (123.2) between May 23, '78 and Apr. 19, '80, and another of 55 games without a home run between May 20, '76 and July 26, '77.

Yankees: Was originally signed for the Yankees by Sam Suplizio as an undrafted free agent off the Colorado State (Ft. Collins) campus in '72. . . One year later he led Carolina League in saves (15) and was 13-8 while fanning 160 in 105 innings.

Joined Yankees for 1st time in Aug. '74, then almost made club at start of '75. However, an injury to Dick Tidrow (rhp) necessitated adding another righthander to the staff instead. . . He won the James P. Dawson Award as the top rookie in the Yankees' '75 spring camp.

Was recalled from minors July 16, '75 and went on to lead the staff in saves (8). . . Lyle was 5-7 with only 6 saves that year for N.Y.

Amateur Background: He played football, basketball and baseball at La Junta High School, and was drafted as an outfielder by the Washington Senators after his senior year on a late round in June '69, but chose to attend Colorado State.

THE 1982 SEASON

Hampered by arm problems the 2nd half of the season, Scott finished with the highest earned run average of his professional career at 4.61. He did set a personal best for starts with 37 and once again had the best walks/innings pitched ratio on the club.

With a 47-25 record over the last 3 years, Scott is tied for 2nd in the majors in victories and leads the American League in winning percentage (.653) over that span.

Season Summary: Scott was 10-6 with a 3.93 era (63 er/144.1 ip) in 20 games in the 1st half of the season before slipping to 4-6, 5.82 (53 er/82 ip) in 17 starts after the all-star break.

1st 4 Months: He was 0-2 in his 1st 4 starts with a 4.55 era but then went 12-5 from Apr. 28 thru July 28 to move into 2nd place in the A.L. in wins. . . His best stretch was a 6-1 performance over 7 starts from Apr. 28 thru May 24 in which he compiled a 2.45 era (16 er/58.2 ip). . . Four of Scott's 7 complete games in '82 came in that period.

Last 2 Months: From August 1 on, he went 2-5 in his last 13 starts with a 6.83 era (41 er/54 ip). . . Much of the difficulty he encountered can be attributed to shoulder problems (see below).

After defeating Chicago on July 28, lost his next 5 decisions (over 6 starts) before beating the Yankees on Sep. 8. . . Only other victory in the last 2 months was a 5-2 triumph against Cleveland on Sep. 18. . . However, after the last of 5 straight losses on Aug. 19 at Minnesota, those 2 victories vs. N.Y. and Cleveland represented his only decisions in his final 8 starts.

Arm Problems: While he started to have problems with tightness and weakness in the muscles of his left shoulder at the time of the all-star break, Scott's pain worsened in mid-August. . . Failed to retire a batter in successive starts on Aug. 18 at Minnesota and Aug. 26 vs. Toronto and then underwent 10 days of rest and therapy before returning to the rotation. . . Took his regular turn after that, but pitched more than 6 innings only once in last 7 appearances.

Underwent a therapy and exercise program over the winter designed to stretch the muscles in the shoulder. . . Used a similar approach after the '80 season to help cure problems with his left elbow (see "Injuries" below).

Odds and Ends: Yielded a career high 31 home runs, 4 shy of the club record set by Robin Roberts in '63. . . Had never allowed more than 19 gopher balls in any one season. . . Surrendered 3 homers in a game twice and 2 on 9 other occasions.

Posted 7-6 records both home and away. . . Tippy Martinez saved 3 of his wins with Sammy Stewart and Tim Stoddard picking up 2 saves each.

Winning: In the last 3 seasons ('80-'82), Scott's 47 wins tie him with K.C.'s Larry Gura, Detroit's Jack Morris, and Montreal's Steve Rogers for 2nd in the big leagues behind Steve Carlton of Philadelphia (60). . . Only Carlton has a better won-lost percentage in that period (60-24), .714).

In addition, Scott is 60-31 (.659) since the start of '79 (tied with Ron Guidry for best W-L pct. in A.L.) and 75-41 (.647) beginning Apr. 30, '78. . . Prior to that, was just 3-9 in the major leagues. . . Is 7th on the club's all-time list in winning percentage (.609) and 8th in career victories (78).

April is the only month in which he has a lifetime losing record (4-8). . . In the other months he is: May (17-5), June (12-7), July (14-8), August (14-12), September (15-10), October (2-0).

Control: Scott yielded just 2.07 bases on balls per every 9 innings (52 walks/226.1 ip), to compile the best ratio among the O's regular starters for the 5th year in a row. . . Walked more than 2 batters in only 8 starts and more than 3 only once.

His overall '82 ratio placed him 8th among 49 A.L. qualifiers as Tommy John topped the league with 1.58 walks every 9 innings. . . Led the league with a 1.18 average in '79 and his career ratio of 1.95 walks/9 innings is 3rd best in club history (500 innings minimum) behind Dick Hall (1.47) and Robin Roberts (1.81).

Over the last 5 years has issued no more than one walk in 92 of 150 games. . . In one month-long stretch in '79, pitched 46.1 consecutive innings without walking a batter. After passing Toronto's Dan Ainge on June 29, didn't walk another until Amos Otis waited him out on July 19. . . Walked career high 6 batters vs. Toronto on Apr. 9, '78 but shut out Jays, 4-0.

Shutouts/1-0 Scores: While he pitched just one shutout in '82, Scott's 14 shutouts over the last 5 seasons is 3rd in the A.L. in that span behind Mike Caldwell and Ron Guidry (15 each). . . Is tied for 6th on the O's all-time shutout list (14).

Only '82 shutout was 5-hit blanking of Minnesota on May 20 at Baltimore, 6-0. . . Has pitched 4 career shutouts against New York (see "Blanking the Yanks" below), 3 versus Toronto, 2 against Minnesota, and one each vs. California, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, and Oakland.

Blanking the Yanks: When Scott defeated New York last Sep. 6, 8-2, it ended a very unusual streak. . . His 1st 5 career victories against the Yankees had all been shutouts, 3 by 1-0 scores. . . In fact, in that Sep. 6 contest at Yankee Stadium, Scott actually left with a shutout, pitching 5.2 scoreless innings before Sammy Stewart allowed 2 runs for the 8-2 final. . . Is now 6-5 lifetime against New York.

Has gone the route in 4 of 5 Yankee shutouts: Aug. 13, '78 at Baltimore (3-0, see "Bizarre Yankee Shutout" below); Aug. 17, '80 at Baltimore (1-0); Sep. 25, '81 at N.Y. (1-0); Oct. 3, '81 at Baltimore (3-0). . . In addition, also defeated New York at Yankee Stadium on Aug. 3, '79, 1-0 with 9th inning relief help from Tippy Martinez. . . Has won 5 of last 6 decisions versus N.Y.

Bizarre Yankee Shutout: Picked up 1st lifetime win against the Yankees in a way that is no longer possible. . . In game of Aug. 13, '78, was leading, 3-0 thru 6 innings but was then touched for 5 runs in top of the 7th.

However, the rains came with the O's batting in their half of the inning, and the game was ultimately called. The score reverted to the last completed inning, and the O's won, 3-0. The rules have since been changed to prevent a recurrence.

That was the weekend in which 2 games were shortened by rain (Yanks won 1), and 2 others were interrupted by light failure.

Vs. Other Opponents: He was 3-0 against Oakland, 2-0 versus Milwaukee, and 3-1 against California.

California Streak Snapped: Won his 1st 3 starts against the Angels in '82 but lost, 6-5, to Steve Renko on July 19 at Memorial Stadium to snap a 12 game winning streak with California. . . Since losing to Dave Frost on Aug. 18, '78, had defeated California 12 times in as many starts with a 2.09 era (23 er/99 ip) in that span. . . The Angels' batting average against Scott in that period was .219 (79-for-361). . . The streak included an 8-0 shutout in the 4th and deciding game of the '79 ALCS when he checked the Angels on 6 hits.

Has a regular season career record vs. California of 11-3 with a 2.59 era (34 er/118.1 ip).

Boston: Was 0-3 against the Red Sox in '82 and is 2-8 lifetime. . . Has dropped 5 straight to Boston since beating Mike Torrez on June 28, '80.

Milwaukee: Was 1-5 lifetime and without a victory versus the Brewers since June '78 before going 2-0 in '82.

Minnesota: Had beaten the Twins 7 consecutive times before losing, 6-0, to Brad Havens on June 4 at Minnesota. . . Has 8-3 career mark against Minny.

Texas: Is 4-0 lifetime versus the Rangers but has not pitched against them since July 29, '80, when he beat Charlie Hough, 4-3.

Toronto: Has defeated the Blue Jays 5 straight times since dropping decision to Tom Underwood on June 26, '80. . . Is 7-2 in career vs. Toronto.

For full statistics vs. opponents, see page 26.

Injuries: Scott has been bothered with arm problems on several occasions prior to '82. . . In the spring of both '79 and '80, was bothered by inflamed muscles in the elbow, the result of trying to throw after his arm had become tight from a winter's inactivity. . . Went on therapy and strengthening program after the '80 season that resulted in injury-free '81 start.

In '80 felt a twinge while pitching in an exhibition game on March 30 and did not work again for 23 days when made 1st regular season start on Apr. 22. . . In '79, didn't win 1st game until the season was 2 months old (June 11) and made only 4 appearances over the 1st 7 weeks, thanks to sore left elbow which originally developed the previous September.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS BY YEAR

1981: He had the lowest era among O's starters at career best 3.26 while winning 13 games, tying for 2nd highest win total in A.L. (4 pitchers won 14 games). . . Was tied for 5th in the league in shutouts (3), had the 6th highest winning percentage (.722), and placed 2nd on the club to Dennis Martinez in wins, complete games, innings pitched and strikeouts.

Was selected to A.L. pitching staff for all-star game but did not see action in Aug. 9 game at Cleveland. . . Fanned a career high 11 batters against New York on Sep. 25.

1980: Scott became a 20-game winner for the 1st time in his career when he defeated Cleveland's Len Barker (also going for 20th win) on the final day of the season. . . Combined with Steve Stone (25 victories) to give the O's the only staff in the majors with 2 20-game winners.

Was 3rd in the league with .714 winning percentage while setting career highs for wins, innings (252), and strikeouts (119) and matching shutout high (4). . . Went 19-6 after May 21.

1979: He recovered from a sore elbow and an 0-2 record over the 1st 2 months to go 13-4 with a 2.94 era starting June 11. . . After 0-2 start, never lost as many as 2 straight again.

In addition to posting the league's lowest walks/9 ip average (1.18), also had the best ratio of men on base to innings pitched, + 15 (175 ip, 165 h, 22 bb, 2 hb). . . Was chosen A.L. "pitcher of the week" for Aug. 27-Sep. 3 after pair of complete game wins vs. Minnesota.

ALCS: Scott became the 1st pitcher other than Jim Palmer to clinch a pennant for the O's when he shut out California in the 4th game of the ALCS at Anaheim on Oct. 6. . . Threw a 6-hitter, walked 1 and fanned 4.

Though the O's won the game, 8-0, it was a lot closer than that until the Birds struck for 5 runs in the 7th inning. . . In the 5th, the O's led 3-0, but the Angels loaded the bases with 1 out. . . Then, a brilliant play by Doug DeCinces took Scotty and the O's out of a dangerous situation when he turned Jim Anderson's possible game-tying 3-run double into a miraculous inning ending double play.

WS: Scott drew the O's starting assignment for game 3 at Pittsburgh and was shaky at the start. At the point that a 1:07 rain delay intervened, the O's had just scored twice in the 3rd, but still trailed the Pirates, 3-2.

After play resumed Scott was completely in control and went on to limit the Bucs to 1 run and 4 hits over the last 7 innings. Meanwhile, the Birds pounced on John Candelaria and Enrique Romo for 5 in the 4th and went on to win, 8-4. Scott went the route, allowing 9 hits and no walks while fanning 6.

With the series deadlocked at 3 apiece, Scott earned the start in game 7. He led, 1-0 on Dauer's 3rd inning home run until the 6th when Willie Stargell hit a 2-run shot. The score remained 2-1 when Scott left for a pinch-hitter in the 8th, and he received the 4-1 loss as the Pirates scored 2 more in the 9th off 5 O's relievers. . . Scott's total for the game: 8 ip, 7 h, 2 bb (both intentional). . . In last 15 innings in series, allowed just 11 hits and 3 earned runs.

1978: In 1st year as regular starter, started slowly with 0-3 record and 13.50 era thru Apr. 24. . . Was 15-10 with 2.74 era from then on. . . Retired 1st 20 batters against K.C. on Aug. 20 before Hal McRae doubled with 2 out in the 7th, precipitating a 2-run outburst that resulted in 2-0 Royals' win. . . Retired 23 straight Boston batters in one stretch on Sep. 5.

1977: He was 2-1 in 5 starts and 1-4 with 4 saves in 24 relief appearances. . . Picked up 1st big league win in starting role against Cleveland on Apr. 20, then waited 4 months and 4 days for next victory, in relief on Aug. 20 vs. Chicago.

Minor Leagues: Scott was the Yankees' 1st pick in the June '72 free agent draft. . . Went to spring training 4 straight years with the Yankees at Fort Lauderdale ('73-'76) but never spent a day on the regular season roster.

Was named the International League's top lefthanded pitcher in '76.

Amateur Background: Scott was a teammate of K.C.'s George Brett (whom he out-hit senior year) at El Segundo High School where he was 51-5 with an 0.29 era (including 18-1 as a senior) in 4 seasons. . . Also played basketball there.

Played Little League, Babe Ruth League, and American Legion baseball. . . His El Segundo team won the Babe Ruth world championship in '69.

Personal: Has attended El Camino Jr. College. . . Hobby: photography. . . Is very active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and coordinates the Orioles' chapel services. . . Is the club's player representative. . . Spent part of the winters in '79 and '81 teaching at Gilman School in Baltimore.

Scott and his wife, the former Cara Bell, were married in Baltimore on Sep. 27, '76. . . They have 2 children: Eric Scott (11/22/78) and Katherine Noel (10/28/80). . . The McGregors recently built a new home in the Phoenix suburb of Baltimore.

Despite the fact he missed 12 games, Eddie won the Orioles' "triple crown" for the 2nd straight year, leading the club in batting (career high .316), home runs (32, matches personal best), and runs batted in (110). He enjoyed one of the best starts in O's history, had a career high 82 walks, and established a club record with 20 game-winning rbi, one shy of Don Baylor's league-leading total.

He also finished among the American League leaders in batting (4th), home runs (tied for 5th), rbi (6th), slugging (3rd, .549), on-base percentage (5th, .395), total bases (7th, 302), and hits (14th, 174) while leading Baltimore in each of those departments.

In addition, he had the top fielding percentage among A.L. first basemen for the 2nd year in a row and earned his 1st Gold Glove Award.

For his efforts, Eddie finished 2nd in the balloting for the BBWAA's American League "most valuable player" and was a unanimous winner of the "most valuable Oriole" award for the 2nd consecutive season, the 3rd time in the last 5 years he has captured that honor.

In his 6 seasons with Baltimore, Eddie has averaged 27½ home runs and 97½ rbi while hitting at least 22 homers in each campaign.

Batting: Eddie topped the Orioles in batting for the 3rd time in the last 4 seasons while hitting .300 for the 2nd time. . . Is 4th on Baltimore's all-time list with .295 career average. . . Batted .306 (74-for-242) with 13 homers and 50 rbi in 71 1st half games and .325 (100-for-308) with 19 homers and 60 rbi in 80 contests after the all-star break.

Torrid April: Eddie had what was perhaps the hottest start in Orioles' history. . . Hit safely in the season's 1st 14 games at a .509 (28-for-55) clip with 4 homers and 15 rbi to fall 3 games shy of Dave Johnson's club record for most consecutive games hit safely at start of season.

For April, batted .441 (30-for-68) with 5 homers and 17 rbi in 18 games. . . Set a club record for hits in April and was leading the A.L. in batting, slugging (.794), and on base percentage (.506) at month's end.

April performance earned him the A.L.'s "player of the month" award, his 3rd career monthly honor and his 2nd straight (also was co-winner for Sep. '81). . . In addition, shared A.L. "player of the week" honors for Apr. 12-18 (with Chicago reliever Salome Barojas and Cleveland 1st baseman Andre Thornton) on basis of .600 (12-for-20) average and 1.000 slugging percentage.

Injury: In late April, Eddie began to have soreness in the back of his left hand and wrist, making it difficult to swing a bat, especially from the left side. The problem, diagnosed as tendinitis, forced him out of the starting lineup for 17 of Baltimore's 25 games between May 6 and 30. . . Did not play at all in 9 of those and did not bat in 5 other contests.

On account of the injury, batted just .153 (13-for-85) with 3 homers and 11 rbi in a 30 game span from Apr. 28 thru June 8, dropping his average from .509 to .293. . . Four of the hits and 3 of the rbi came in one game vs. Texas, May 27. . . Had so much difficulty swinging lefthanded that he actually batted righthanded for one at bat against Texas right-hander Steve Comer on May 31, flying to center. . . With warmer weather and medication, the pain subsided somewhat by the 1st week in June.

Fast Finish: Starting June 9, Eddie batted .324 (133-for-410) with 25 homers and 84 rbi over his final 107 games. . . Hit .403 (25-for-82) in 1st 17 games of that span (June 9 thru July 1), lifting average back to .327.

Hit a modest .282 (46-for-163) with 7 homers and 21 rbi in his next 43 games (July 2 thru Aug. 16) but then finished with a tear, batting .335 (62-for-185) with 15 homers and 51 rbi in his last 47 games beginning Aug. 17. . . Hottest stretch came in a 9 game span from Aug. 17 thru 26 when he hit at a .421 (16-for-38) clip with 6 homers and 19 rbi.

As in the past, he excelled in the final month (see "Great Endings" below), batting .320 (40-for-125) in 32 games in September/October with 8 homers and 28 rbi. . . Was selected A.L. "player of the week" for Sep. 20-26 (shared with Seattle's Bruce Bochte) when he hit .375 with 3 homers and 8 rbi.

By Month: April-.441 (30-for-68), 5 hr, 17 rbi, 18 g. . . May-.191 (9-for-47), 1 hr, 6 rbi, 20 g. . . June-.301 (25-for-83), 4 hr, 14 rbi, 22 g. . . July-.260 (27-for-104), 4 hr, 19 rbi, 27 g. . . Hit .338 (97-for-287) with 18 homers and 58 rbi in 79 home games and .293 (77-for-263) with 14 homers and 52 rbi in 72 contests on the road. . . Tied Cleveland's Andre Thornton for A.L. lead with 18 intentional walks, matching club record established by Boog Powell ('70).

MVP Vote/Other Honors: Eddie placed 2nd to Robin Yount in the BBWAA selection of the A.L. "mvp", his highest finish ever. He had 228 points and was named on 27 of 28 ballots to outdistance Doug DeCinces (178) and Hal McRae (175) for 2nd. Yount received 27 1st place votes (Reggie Jackson got the other) and one 4th for 385 total points.

Was one of 7 major leaguers with 2 slams, one shy of Larry Parrish's ml high. . . Has 6 career slams (4 at Memorial Stadium), tying for 2nd on the club's all-time list with Gentile and Brooks, one behind Powell (see page 10 for complete grand slam list).

Al Bumbry was the 1st in '78, and John Lowenstein became the 3rd in February.

Joe is the 6th player that Baltimore has acquired or re-acquired thru re-entry. . . See page 60 for complete list.

BIRDS' FIRST GAME IN BALTIMORE IN '54

The modern American League Orioles made their Baltimore debut in Memorial Stadium on April 15, 1954 before a crowd of 46,354 including Vice President Richard M. Nixon who threw out the first ball. Behind the seven hit pitching of Bob Turley who fanned nine, the Orioles of Jimmy Dykes defeated Paul Richards' White Sox, 3-1, in Baltimore's first American league game in 52 years. Chico Carrasquel, the Chicago shortstop, was the first to bat in the new stadium and singled off Turley.

Clint Courtney won the distinction of hitting the first home run in the brand new stadium (built on the site of the previous municipally owned ballpark used by the International League O's). It was a bases empty blast off Virgil Trucks who also yielded a solo homer to Vern Stephens in the fourth and was the losing pitcher.

The Birds' starting lineup in that game was: Bobby Young, 2b; Eddie Waitkus, 1b; Gil Coan, cf; Vic Wertz, rf; Sam Mele, lf; Stephens, 3b; Billy Hunter, ss; Courtney, c and Turley, p.

Many have forgotten that the O's opened that first season on the road, at Detroit, where Don Larsen lost to Steve Gromek, 3-0, on April 13 (the Birds' first game ever). . . The next day at Tiger Stadium (Apr. 14) Duane Pillette gave the O's their first victory, a 3-2 decision over Ray Herbert.

Pitches: Fastball, slider, curve, and change.

Jim rebounded from an injury-plagued 1981 to tie for the American League lead with a .750 winning percentage (15-5) and finished 3rd with a 3.13 earned run average, his lowest era since 1978. In addition, he tied for 2nd on the O's staff in wins and strikeouts (103) and was 3rd in complete games (8) and innings pitched (227).

He also allowed the fewest runners per game in the American League, permitting just 10.23 runners to reach base for every 9 innings pitched (227 ip, 195 h, 63 bb). Jack Morris of Detroit was 2nd, allowing just 10.61 baserunners every 9 innings. Cincinnati's Mario Soto led the majors, 9.57.

After early-season problems which included a 3-week stint in the bullpen (see below), he went 14-3 after May 24, including 11 straight wins in one span to match a career high. Jim finished 2nd in the balloting for both the American League Cy Young and Comeback Player Awards.

With a career record of 263-145, he is now 27th all-time in victories.

Slow Start/Bullpen Duty: In his 1st 5 starts of the season, Jim was just 1-1 with a 6.84 era (25 ip, 32 h, 19 er). . . After his 5th outing at California on May 6, when he pitched to just 3 batters before retiring with a stiff neck, manager Earl Weaver decided to replace Jim in the rotation with Sammy Stewart.

Worked 4 times in relief over the next 3 weeks, allowing 8 earned runs in 7.2 innings (9.39 era) with a loss and a save. . . Pitched 4 perfect innings in relief of Stewart on May 14 at Seattle to record 1st save since July 19², '75. . . Picked up 1st relief loss since Sep. 10, '65 in defeat to Minnesota on May 18. . . See "In Relief" below for more details.

Outstanding Finish: Jim returned to the rotation on May 25 and was 14-3 over his final 27 starts with a 2.41 era (194.1 ip, 157 h, 52 er). . . Was also 13-2 in last 25 outings beginning June 7.

250th Win: In that 1st start back in the rotation on May 25, Jim defeated Texas, 10-3, at Arlington for his 250th career victory, all in a Baltimore uniform. . . Became the 32nd pitcher in major league history to record 250 wins, and the 1st Orioles' hurler to accomplish the feat. . . Ex-O's pitcher Robin Roberts won 286 big league games but just 42 with Baltimore. . . See page 140 for Palmer's winning milestones.

Winning Streak: After a loss to Toronto on May 30, Jim was 11-0 over his next 18 starts before being beaten at New York on Sep. 8. . . During that period, which tied the longest winning streak of his career (May 11-Sep. 1, '69), he compiled a 2.20 era (131 ip, 106 h, 32 er) with 5 complete games. . . Allowed more than 2 runs in only 5 of the 18 starts.

Was selected as the American League "pitcher of the month" for August when he was 4-0 with a 2.18 era in 8 starts. . . Was his 1st monthly award since Aug. '75.

Consecutive Shutouts: In Jim's last 2 outings of that 11-0 streak, he pitched back-to-back complete game shutouts, blanking Toronto on 4 hits on Aug. 31 and Minnesota on one hit on Sep. 4. . . Prior to that, had not hurled a shutout since Aug. 23, '78 vs. Oakland (see "Shutouts/Scoreless Innings" below).

In one-hitter against the Twins, allowed only a 5th inning single to Gary Gaetti. . . Walked 2 and fanned 7 in registering 5th one-hitter of career and 2nd versus Minnesota (see details in list below career record on page 134).

Those 2 performances earned Jim A.L. "player of the week" honors for Aug. 30-Sep. 5.

Down The Stretch: After his 11 game winning streak was snapped at N.Y. on Sep. 8, Jim was 2-0 with a 1.37 era (6 er/39.1 ip) in his 5 starts before the final game with Milwaukee. . . Had a big victory over the Brewers, 7-2, on Sep. 25 at County Stadium, allowing just 4 hits.

Final Game: With the '82 American League Eastern Division title on the line, Jim faced Milwaukee's Don Sutton in the regular season finale on Oct. 3 at Memorial Stadium. . . Palmer struggled from the beginning, allowing a solo homer to Robin Yount in the top of the 1st, giving the Brewers another run as a result of his own throwing error in the 2nd, and surrendering a 2nd bases empty home run to Yount in the 3rd.

After Cecil Cooper homered (giving Milwaukee a 4-1 lead) and Ted Simmons walked to lead off the 6th, Jim was lifted in favor of Tippy Martinez. . . His line: 5 + ip, 4 h, 4 r, 3 er, 3 bb, 0 so, 3 hr). . . Jim was the loser in the 10-2 final that gave the Brewers the Eastern crown.

Cy Young Voting/Other Awards: Jim finished 2nd to Milwaukee's Pete Vuckovich in the balloting for the A.L. Cy Young Award. . . He was named on 19 of 28 ballots and had 4 1sts, 12 2nds, and 3 3rds for 59 points to Vuckovich's 87 total points (14-4-5). . . Palmer has won the "Cy" 3 times (see below).

In addition Jim was 2nd to Cleveland's Andre Thornton for both UPI's and TSN's A.L. "Comeback Player of the Year" honors... Was runnerup to Eddie Murray in "most valuable Oriole" voting.

Odds and Ends: Was 7-4 with 2.79 era at home and 8-1 with 3.43 on the road... Recorded season high 8 strikeouts on July 23 vs. Oakland, his most k's in a game since he fanned 10 Milwaukee Brewers, Aug. 2, '78.

Tim Stoddard earned 3 saves and Tippy Martinez picked up 2 on behalf of Jim.

1982 AND MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

vs. Opponents: In '82 Jim recorded his 20th career win against Detroit, Minnesota, Oakland, and Texas... Has 20 or more lifetime victories against all 11 pre-'77 expansion American League teams (Seattle and Toronto are exceptions)... No pitcher in the history of major league baseball owns 20 or more victories against as many teams... Tom Seaver has defeated 10 National League clubs 20 times while Steve Carlton and Phil Niekro have accomplished that feat against 9 N.L. clubs.

Jim has beaten New York 29 times followed by Cleveland (28), California (25), Chicago (24), Milwaukee and Texas (22 each), Detroit and Kansas City (21 each), and Boston, Minnesota, and Oakland (20 each)... Has 7 shutouts against both Yankees and Indians.

New York... His 29 career wins (16 losses) vs. the Yankees represents a high among active pitchers and ranks 12th on the all-time list (Walter Johnson leads with 60 wins over N.Y.) but just 6 wins out of 2nd place... Is 16-7 lifetime at Yankee Stadium and 7-3 since that ballpark was renovated (starting '76).

Boston... Has made more starts (55) and pitched more innings (416.1) against the Red Sox than any other A.L. club but is 0-1 since last beating them on Sep. 16, '79... Has pitched 25 complete games vs. Boston and has worked 8 or more innings in 34 of 55 starts.

Chicago... Is 0-1 against White Sox in last 2 years but has won 13 of last 16 decisions versus Chicago starting June 16, '74.

Cleveland... Is 10-1 against the Indians since the start of '77, including 3 straight... His 2.12 lifetime era (382.1 ip, 281 h, 90 er) versus the Tribe is his lowest against any opponent... Career record is 28-11.

Detroit... Was 2-0 against the Tigers in '82 and has defeated them 9 times in last 10 decisions since losing on July 31, '76... Is 14-2 beginning '74 and 21-11 lifetime.

Seattle... Has had more trouble with Mariners than any other club as his 2-3 record and 5.31 era (42.1 ip, 51 h, 25 er) attest... Did pitch 4 perfect innings in relief to record save at Seattle on May 14 but is 0-2 lifetime in 4 appearances at Kingdome with a 7.62 era (13 ip, 13 h, 11 er)... Didn't pitch at all against M's in '78 or '79.

Texas... Won all 3 starts versus the Rangers and is now 4-0 against them since losing on July 20, '80.

For additional information regarding Palmer against other clubs, see pages 41-51.

20-Win Seasons: In '78 he became the 1st 8-time 20-game winner in the American League in 43 years since Lefty Grove turned the trick for the 8th (and last) time in '35... Palmer, Grove, and Walter Johnson (a 12-time 20-gamer, for the last time in '25) are the only 3 in the 82-year history of the A.L. to have enjoyed 8 20-win campaigns.

Jim is only the 2nd major leaguer in the last 45 seasons to win 20 that often. Warren Spahn did it 13 times for the Braves, the last in '63.

Palmer is only the 6th among pitchers who worked exclusively in the 20th century and only the 16th in the entire history of major league baseball to notch 20 wins 8 times.

The major league record is 16 by Cy Young (between 1890 and 1909 in both leagues)... The N.L. mark is 13, held jointly by Spahn and Christy Mathewson.

Other multi 20-game winners over the last several decades include: Bob Lemon and Fergie Jenkins-7 each; Robin Roberts, Bob Feller, and Steve Carlton-6; Gaylord Perry, Catfish Hunter, and Tom Seaver-5; Luis Tiant-4.

Lifetime Wins: With a 263-145 record, Jim ranks 27th on the all-time list of winners... He is 6th among actives behind: Gaylord Perry (307), Steve Carlton (285), Jim Kaat (283), Fergie Jenkins (278), and Tom Seaver (264).

There are 5 other active pitchers with 200+ wins: Don Sutton (258), Phil Niekro (257), Tommy John (237), Luis Tiant (229), and Nolan Ryan (205).

Over the last 10 years ('73-'82), Jim's 163 victories is 2nd in the majors to Carlton's 175.

Jim is also 7th all-time and tops among active pitchers in victories with one club as all 263 of his wins have come with the Orioles... Walter Johnson is the all-time leader in this category (416).

Low ERA: Jim's 2.79 era is 5th on the all-time list (since era became an official stat in '12-NL and '13-AL) among pitchers with 3000 or more innings, and 2nd among actives behind Tom Seaver.

The 5 Leaders: (1) Walter Johnson-2.37... (2) Grover C. Alexander-2.56... (3) Seaver-2.68... (4) Whitey Ford-2.74... (5) Palmer-2.79.

Jim's era is the lowest in the A.L. since Johnson retired 55 years ago ('27)... He has finished in the A.L.'s "top 5" 10 times in the past 14 seasons (exceptions '74, '79, '80, '81) and has twice won the era title ('73, '75).

Over the past 10 seasons (starting '73) Jim's 2.84 era is the lowest in the majors (Seaver, 2.86).

W-L Percentage: Jim's .645 percentage is tops in the major leagues today (200 or more decisions minimum) and is 10th on the all-time list among those who have pitched in the 20th century exclusively... The leader is Whitey Ford (.690, 236-106).

'82 was the 2nd time he has led the league in winning percentage as he also topped the A.L. with an .800 (16-4) figure in '69.

Shutouts/Scoreless Innings: With his 2 shutouts in '82, Jim now ranks 12th on the all-time list with 53 (Walter Johnson leads with 113) and is 3rd among actives behind Don Sutton (56) and Seaver (54)... Behind Palmer are: Steve Carlton and Gaylord Perry (52), Nolan Ryan (50), and Ferguson Jenkins (48).

Jim's 10 shutouts in '75 are a club record and represent an A.L. high since Dean Chance had 11 in '64.

During an 18-day period in '78 (May 24 thru June 10), Jim pitched 4 shutouts in 5 starts. Three of them were in succession which gave him a piece of the club record along with Jack Fisher ('60), Hal Brown ('61), Milt Pappas ('64) and Tom Phoebus ('67)... He also had a string of 30.1 scoreless innings in that span, shy of the club record, 36, held by Hal Brown ('61).

With his 2 consecutive shutouts in '82, he has now pitched back-to-back shutouts 6 times in his career ('70, '73-2, '75, '77, '82).

Winning Streaks: He has won 11 straight twice, 10 in a row and 9 straight once each and 8 consecutive games twice... See listing under career record for complete details.

In one 13 month period, spanning 2 seasons (from Aug. 30, '77 thru Sep. '78), Jim put together 3 7 game winning streaks, including the last 7 decisions in both '77 & '78.

1-0 Wins: When Jim beat Toronto, 1-0, on Aug. 31, it was his 1st 1-0 complete game win since June 10, '78, against Oakland... He now has a 9-3 record in cg 1-0 decisions and is 10-5 overall... In '78 during the period in which he hurled 4 shutouts in 5 starts (see above), he went the route to win 1-0 3 times.

Among actives, Bert Blyleven (13), Gaylord Perry (12), and Fergie Jenkins (11) are the leaders in 1-0 wins.

No-Hitter/Near Misses: He no-hit Oakland Aug. 13, '69, beating Chuck Dobson, 8-0, only 4 days after coming off a 6 week stretch on the disabled list (2nd start).

In '73 he experienced 2 near misses, both in Baltimore... Had a perfect game with one out in the 9th vs. Texas on June 16 (had retired 1st 25 batters) when Ken Suarez singled. Jim ultimately won a 9-1 2-hitter... Then, on July 27, a leadoff single in the 8th by Cleveland's George Hendrick was the only hit he allowed.

Jim pitched a no-hitter in the minors, at Aberdeen (Northern League) in '64, his 1st pro season.

Low Hitters: Among his 211 complete games are 59 in which he has limited the opponent to 4 hits or less... See details listed below his career record on page 134.

Club Records: See pages 7 & 12.

Cy Young: Jim is one of just 4 pitchers to have captured the award as many as 3 times winning in '73, '75, and '76)... Steve Carlton is a 4-time recipient and Tom Seaver and Sandy Koufax each won 3 Cy Young Awards... The award has been presented since '56 with individual league awards beginning in '67.

He, Koufax and Denny McLain are the only ones to have won the award in 2 straight years (McLain shared his 2nd with Mike Cuellar).

In '75 and '76 Jim was the only pitcher named on all 24 ballots (2 per A.L. city)... He polled 108 points in '76 to win handily over Mark Fidrych (51 points). In '75, he totaled 98 points to win over Catfish Hunter (74 points)... In '73 he was named on 20 of 24 ballots good for 88 points to beat out Nolan Ryan (52 points).

Jim has finished among the top 3 in Cy Young balloting 6 times: '73-1st, '75-1st, '76-1st, '77-2nd, '78-3rd, '82-2nd.

Other Awards: Was TSN's A.L. "pitcher of the year" in '73, '75 & '76, and has been named to TSN's A.L. all-star team (by vote of fellow A.L. players) as the top righthander a total of 6 times.

He was voted to the A.P. major league all-star team in '75 & '76 and to the A.P. A.L. all-star team in '77 & '78... He won 4 straight Gold Gloves as the top fielding pitcher in the A.L. from '76 thru '79.

Jim is a 2-time winner of the Sports Boosters of Maryland's "most valuable Oriole" award ('72 & '73) and has been runner-up 4 times: in '75 (to Ken Singleton), in '76 (to Lee May) and in '78 & '82 (to Eddie Murray).

He was voted "comeback player of the year" in '75 by TSN and UPI... He won the Joe Cronin Award in '76 for significant achievement in the A.L. and finished 2nd in the BBWAA's A.L. "most valuable player" balloting to Reggie Jackson in '73.

All-Star Games: Jim has been named to the A.L. all-star team 6 times ('70, '71, '72, '75, '77, '78) and has started 4 times ('70, '72, '77, '78). In his last 2 starts he didn't fare too well.

In '78 he gave up 3 hits, 3 runs (all earned), 4 walks and fanned 4 in 2.2 innings at San Diego, but didn't give up any home runs and didn't get the loss.

In '77 at Yankee Stadium he yielded 5 hits including 3 homers (Joe Morgan, Greg Luzinski and Steve Garvey) and was the losing pitcher, 7-5.

In 3 previous games ('70, '71, '72) he had pitched a total of 8 scoreless innings while allowing only 3 hits and 2 walks, and striking out 8.

Has not pitched in an all-star game in any of the 3 years that he went on to win the Cy Young... He wasn't picked to the squad in '73 and '76 and did not pitch in '75 because of a tender arm, but was on the team.

WS/ALCS: Has a 7-3 record, has appeared in a total of 16 post-season games (15 starts) for the O's, and has an aggregate era of 2.65 (122.1 ip, 36 er).

1979: Started ALCS game #1 vs. Nolan Ryan, but came out after 9 innings in a 3-3 tie... Don Stanhouse picked up the 6-3 win an inning later on John Lowenstein's 3-run homer.

In the WS, he was O's starter in games #2 & #6... In 2nd game came out after 7 for a pinch-hitter in a tie game. Stanhouse ultimately lost that one in the 9th.

He lost to John Candelaria in #6, 4-0, after giving up 10 hits and all 4 runs in an 8 inning stint.

Pennant Clinchers: Went the route to win the pennant clinching games in each of O's first 4 A.L. championship seasons... That string was broken in '79 by Scott McGregor.

In '66, Jim beat the K.C. A's Sep. 22 to wrap up the first A.L. title, then won the 3rd and final game of the ALCS against the Twins in '69 & '70 and the Oakland A's in '71 as the O's swept all 3 series.

Youngest Shutout: Became the youngest ever to pitch a WS shut-out when he blanked Sandy Koufax, 6-0, in game #2 in '66 at Dodger Stadium on 4 hits and 6 L.A. errors. At the time Jim was 20 years, 11 months and 21 days old... That, incidentally, was Koufax' last game in professional baseball.

'69-'70-'71 WS: He won opening game of '70 series vs. Cincinnati and won game 2 in '71 vs. Pittsburgh... Then, he pitched 9 innings in game #6 against the Pirates, one of the biggest games in O's history, and left with score tied 2-2. The O's ultimately won in the 10th to force the series to a 7th game with Dave McNally getting the win in relief.

Jim's only world series loss until '79 was at the hands of the Mets in '69 game #3 to Gary Gentry, 5-0.

ALCS Records: Jim holds total series records for most wins (4, tied with Catfish Hunter), most complete games (5), most strikeouts (46) and most walks (19, tied with Mike Cuellar).

CAREER SIDELIGHTS

Big League Debut/Early Career: Made his big league debut in relief at Boston Apr. 17, '65, then earned his 1st win on May 16, '65, also in relief, vs. Yankees' Pete Mikkelsen in Baltimore.

Led O's in wins (15) in '66, the Birds 1st pennant winning season... Dave McNally was 2nd with 13.

Pitched his 1st professional game at age 18, on May 1, '64 for the Aberdeen Pheasants (Northern League) at Grand Forks... He wasn't the pitcher of record in that game Aberdeen rallied to win 10-4. The big offensive gun for Manager Cal Ermer's club that night was shortstop Mark Belanger who had 2 triples and 3 rbi.

One week later, in his 2nd pro start, (May 8, '64) Jim won his 1st game and pitched his 1st shutout, a 3-hitter, also against Grand Forks, in 10 innings.

Major Injuries: Back and shoulder injuries nearly ruined his career in '67-'68. He worked in only 2 games for the O's between June 8, '67 and the start of the '69 season.

During that period, he pitched at Rochester, Elmira and Miami trying to shake the ailments, but it wasn't until a stint in the Puerto Rican winter league after the '68 season that he began to overcome his physical problems.

Since then he has been afflicted with a series of arm, shoulder and back problems, but only 3 times have the injuries been serious enough to put him on the disabled list.

1969: After recovering from his '67-'68 maladies, Jim jumped out to a 9-2 start in '69 before tearing shoulder muscles on June 26... He went on disabled list for 42 days, then, 4 days after being activated, pitched a no-hitter against Oakland.

1974: In his only losing season (prior to '81), he spent nearly 8 weeks (June 20 to Aug. 13) on the disabled list with a sore elbow.

1979: He didn't pitch for 44 days (from July 1 until Aug. 13) and saw action in only 3 games over a 10 week period (from June 3 to Aug. 13) while suffering from tendinitis in the right elbow. During that span, Jim was on the disabled list from July 16 to Aug. 9.

Strikeouts/Walks: He has fanned 10 or more batters 13 times including a career high of 13 strikeouts at Cleveland July 1, '71... He had one 12 strikeout effort in '77 vs. Milwaukee on May 24 at Baltimore and has fanned 11 Twins 3 different times, all at Memorial Stadium ('70-1, '71-2).

He has twice walked 8 batters in a game, both times in 1st appearances of the year ('66 & '70).

Home Runs: In 3863 innings spread over 539 games, Jim has NEVER GIVEN UP A GRAND SLAM HOME RUN... Johnny Bench hit one off him while both were in the International League in '67, and Fred Patek once hit one in a spring exhibition game, but never in a regular season (or post-season) game.

He has yielded a total of 290 home runs, but is in no danger of matching Catfish Hunter's A.L. record (374), let alone Robin Roberts' major league mark (502).

Losing Streaks/Seasons: Jim lost 7 in a row in '74 (7 straight starts from Apr. 30 thru June 7)... Otherwise, he has never dropped more than 4 consecutive decisions, and he's done that only once (in '78 from June 23 thru July 15).

He has had just 2 losing seasons in 17 years in the majors: 7-12 in '74 and 7-8 in '81.

Long Games: Jim has pitched more than 9 innings 19 times: 10 innings-11... 11 innings-4... 12 innings-4... He has a 5-6 record with 8 no-decisions in those 19 games... The last time he went into "overtime" was on Sep. 28, '77 when he went the route to win a 3-2 decision over Detroit in 11 innings.

In Relief: He has relieved 32 times in 539 regular season appearances with a record of 6-3 and 3 saves... Jim's 4 relief appearances in '82 were his most since '65, his rookie season, when he relieved 21 times... He came out of the bullpen on 3 occasions in '69 and once each in '73, '75, '79, & '80.

In post-season he has relieved only once, in the final game of a losing cause against Oakland in the '73 ALCS (relieved starter Doyle Alexander... Jim had started the previous day).

Batting: He has hit 3 home runs lifetime: off New York's Jim Bouton in Baltimore May 16, '65; off Dave Morehead in Boston Apr. 13, '66, and off Cleveland's Rich Hand May 27, '70 in Baltimore.

Jim has a lifetime batting average of .174 (85-for-489), but hasn't batted in a regular season game since Sep. 29, '72.

In 3 ALCS (before the dh rule) he went 1-for-14 with 1 rbi and 1 double ('70 vs. Twins) and in 5 world series he is 1-for-21, a single in '70 vs. Cincinnati... He did set an offensive record in '71 vs. Pittsburgh by drawing 2 bases loaded walks in the same game (game #2).

ROOKIE YEAR-'82

Rookie Award: Cal became the Orioles 5th "rookie of the year" (BBWAA) with a solid edge over runner-up Kent Hrbek of the Twins. Cal, who was named on all 28 ballots (as was Hrbek), polled 24 1st and 4 2nds for a total of 130 points (5-3-1 system). Hrbek collected 4 1sts, 23 2nds, and one 3rd for 90 points. The Red Sox' Wade Boggs was 3rd among the 8 players who received votes, with 10¹/₂ points.

Others mentioned were: Ed Vandeberg, Sea. (9 pts. including one 2nd); Gary Gaetti, Min. (4 pts.); Dave Hostetler, Tex. (3 pts.); Von Hayes, Cle. (2 pts.); and Jesse Barfield, Tor. (1¹/₂ pts.).

The previous O's winners were: Ron Hansen ('60), Curt Blefary ('63), Al Bumbry ('73), and Eddie Murray ('77).

Leader: Cal led all big league rookies in doubles (32), homers (28), rbi (93), total bases (284), and game-winning rbi (11, tie with Von Hayes). Additionally, he led all A.L. rookies in games (160), at bats (698), and runs (90).

He paced the O's in games, at bats, runs, doubles and triples (5), and finished 2nd to Murray in homers, rbi and gwrbi. His totals in those last two categories are records for a Baltimore rookie, as were his 90 runs.

Slow Start: After an auspicious start on opening day when he went 3-for-5 with his first major league double and home run (one on off Dennis Leonard), Cal plunged into a deep slump (4-for-55). By May 1, after 18 games, he was batting .117 (7-for-60).

Recovery: The next day, May 2, he picked up a pair of scratch hits; was beamed on May 3 (in his 2nd plate appearance) by rookie Mike Moore, Seattle (went 0-for-1 that day) but missed only one game; then his comeback began in earnest on May 6, the start of a long road trip at California.

From May 2 to the end of the season, Cal batted .281 (151-for-538) while playing in all but 2 of the O's remaining 144 games.

By Month: April-.123 (7-for-57), 17 g. . . May-.316 (31-for-98), 27 g. . . June-.300 (30-for-100), 25 g. . . July-.272 (28-for-103), 27 g. . . August-.264 (33-for-125), 32 g. . . Sept. & Oct..252 (29-for-115), 32 g.

Stretch Run: Over the last 44 games of the season (starting Aug. 20), during which the O's went 33-11 to force a final day showdown for the eastern title, Rip batted .289 (48-for-166) with 11 homers and 31 rbi. Only Murray produced more hr (13) & rbi (46) in that stretch.

vs. Yankees: Cal had 17 rbi in 13 games against the Yankees with 4 homers and a .286 average (14-for-49). . . The only other Oriole to have driven in more runs in a single season vs. New York was Brooks Robinson (19 in '70, 18 gms). . . Brooks ('66) and Boog Powell ('69) also had 17 rbi seasons against the Bombers. . . Hit 1st grand slam off Mike Morgan in Baltimore on Sep. 14 (2nd game).

vs. Other Opponents: Cal had .300+ averages against 6 opponents (see page 32). He also hit 4 homers against the Tigers (all in Detroit) and drove in 12 runs in 12 games against the Angels. He compiled his highest average vs. the Mariners-.342 (13-for-38), but, ironically, Seattle was the only club against which he did not hit a home run. . . Went 3-for-3 (.081) vs. White Sox.

Defense: Cal began the season at 3rd base (.973, 71 g, 66 po, 151 a, 6 e, 223 tc), then switched to shortstop full time on July 1 (.972, 94 g, 155 po, 289 a, 13 e, 457 tc). Despite the added pressure of switching to short, the 21-year-old rookie (turned 22 on Aug. 24) hit 20 homers and drove in 51 runs while batting .262 (90-for-343) and starting all 91 games the rest of the way. He was batting .267 at the time he took over at shortstop.

Played in part of 3 games at short before becoming the regular there. . . Played 44 consecutive errorless games at 3rd base. . . Made 3 miscues in first 11 games thru Apr. 23, then didn't make another until June 15 while handling 137 straight chances at the hot corner.

Miscellaneous: Was picked as A.L.'s "player of the week" for week ending Aug. 27 after batting .444 (12-for-27) with 4 homers and 11 rbi in 7 games. . . Earned his first major league stolen base the hard way by stealing home (on front end of double steal with Lenn Sakata) on Rangers' Jon Matlack May 31 at Baltimore. . . Grand slam—see "Yankees" above. . . Beaming—see "Recovery" above.

Reached a late-season high (after July 1) of .283 on July 25. . . Had an 11-game hitting streak from June 5 thru 16. . . Hit 11 of his 28 homers with at least one on.

Signed on 5/22/77.

Operation: Bothered by soreness in his right elbow for much of the '82 season, John underwent exploratory surgery on October 26 at Children's Hospital in Baltimore. No serious problem was found, and John underwent a therapy program on the elbow during the winter.

THE 1982 SEASON

After earning all-star honors at Rochester, John joined the Orioles on Sep. 1 and played a significant role in the Birds' pennant drive... He played in 26 of Baltimore's final 32 games, batted .314 (11-for-35), and made one of the great plays of the season with his dramatic throw at Milwaukee on Sep. 26 (see below).

Baltimore: John was used mainly as a late inning defensive replacement in center field, but he started 5 games at that position in the final 2½ weeks against lefthanded pitching... Did not commit an error in 21 outfield chances and was 1-for-3 as a pinch-hitter.

All of his offensive production came in 2 stretches... Made 3 starts in 7-game span from Sep. 14¹ thru 19 and went 7-for-14 in that period... Then, in the final series against Milwaukee at Memorial Stadium, hit safely in all 4 games (1 start, 3 as late-inning replacement), going 4-for-8 with 2 rbi and his 1st major league home run, a solo shot off Mike Caldwell on Oct. 1²... Batted .458 (11-for-24) at home but was 0-for-11 on the road.

Dramatic Throw: John was involved in one of the most memorable plays of the pennant race on Sunday afternoon, Sep. 26 at Milwaukee's County Stadium... With the O's leading, 3-2 in the bottom of the 8th inning, the Brewers had runners on 1st (Robin Yount) and 3rd (Bob Skube) with one out against Dennis Martinez. . . Manager Earl Weaver brought Tippy Martinez in to face Cecil Cooper, who could tie the game with a sacrifice fly.

Cooper lofted a fly ball to Shelby in center. John gauged the flight of the ball, retreated a few steps, and then came running in to catch the ball at full stride, using that momentum to aid his throw. He fired a perfect one-hop strike to Rick Dempsey, who tagged out the sliding Skube for an inning-ending double play to end the Milwaukee threat. Baltimore went on to win, 5-2 and cut Milwaukee's lead to two games.

Rochester: John was selected as an outfielder on the International League all-star team at the end of the season. . . Led the league in at bats (548), was 4th in hits (153) and total bases (239) and finished 6th in runs (92), stolen bases (34) and doubles (26, tied). Topped Rochester in each of those departments and was 2nd on the Wings in batting (.279) and 3rd in rbi (52) and homers (16, tied).

Was named one of the I.L.'s top 10 major league prospects by Baseball America at season's end. . . Finished 2nd among league outfielders in putouts (331) and total chances (352) and was tied for 5th with 13 assists, giving him 92 in minor league career. . . Hit in 10 straight games, Aug. 4 thru 13.

Spent 2 weeks in the Florida Instructional League last fall.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1981: He started with Charlotte but was promoted to Rochester on June 17, finishing with a composite .251 (145-for-577) average in 138 games. . . Led the entire Orioles' organization in at bats, doubles (32), and triples (12). . . Hit for the cycle against Syracuse on Aug. 6 and had a grand slam vs. Toledo on Aug. 28.

Played under Ray Miller at Caguas in the Puerto Rican League that winter.

Baltimore: Was recalled by the O's at the conclusion of the I.L. playoffs on Sep. 13 and was 0-for-2 with 2 stolen bases in 7 games.

1980: He led the Southern League in at bats (560) and was 3rd in triples (11). . . Topped S.L. outfielders in putouts (361) and total chances (398) while finishing 2nd in assists (21), the highest total in the Baltimore organization for the 2nd straight year. . . Set a Charlotte club record with a 21-game hitting streak, June 8 thru 30.

Pro Career: Signed by Lamar North. . . A natural righthanded batter, became a switch-hitter at Miami in '79 and hit a career low .201. . . Led the Florida State League in putouts (252) and total chances (282) and tied for 1st in assists (22).

Started the '78 season with Miami but was assigned to Bluefield in June. . . Batted a career high .282 and topped the Appalachian League with 11 assists. . . Also tied for league lead in assists with 12 in '77.

Overall, Ken's average was his lowest since '71, and his home run and rbi production sank to their lowest levels (for a full season, excluding '81) since '76. His average as a righthanded batter was the lowest of his career (see "Switch Hitting" below).

Batting: Ken started slowly, batting .228 (39-for-171) in his first 47 games thru June 2. Then, he rallied over the next 32 games thru July 9, batted .347 (42-for-121) in that stretch and raised his average to a season high .277. However, from that point he hit only .223 (60-for-269) in his last 77 games. . . . Despite off year, he batted .342 (41-for-120) with men in scoring position. . . . Bounced into a club high 22 double plays (Brooks holds club record-29 in '60).

Home Runs: Hit 4 in one 6-game stretch from Aug. 22 thru 27, but managed only 10 more in his other 150 games. . . . His 1st homer in '82 (in his 23rd game 5/6) was his 1st in 58 games dating back to Aug. 24, '81.

By Month: April-.206 (13-for-63), 18 g. . . . May-.248 (26-for-105), 28 g. . . . June-.286 (26-for-91), 24 g. . . . July-.313 (31-for-99), 27 g. . . . Aug.-.182 (18-for-99), 29 g. . . . Sep. & Oct.-.260 (27-for-104), 30 g.

'82 SEASON & ORIOLES CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

vs. Opponents: Batted .300 or better against 3 clubs in '82: Minnesota-.355 (11-for-31), Oakland-.326 (15-for-46), and Seattle-.300 (12-for-40).

Ken has made a career of beating up on the Mariners. During their 6 A.L. seasons, he has batted .333 (68-for-204), with 20 homers and 59 rbi in 57 games against them. At the Kingdome only, he is 34-for-103 (.330) with 11 homers and 25 rbi in 28 games.

He's also hit over .300 against the Twins-.315 (88-for-279), Red Sox-.311 (116-for-373), and Cleveland-.306 (115-for-376), and his .293 average (88-for-300) vs. K.C. is the highest among all '82 Orioles.

His home run and rbi highs are 17 and 60, respectively, both against the Tigers. He's hit 10 of those homers in Tiger Stadium.

Was 1st player to hit homer into centerfield bleachers in "new" Yankee Stadium (7/26/77).

vs. Pitchers: Here are some pitchers against whom Ken has had considerable lifetime success: Lary Sorensen, Cle.-.667 (12-for-18), 2 hr. . . Mike Moore, Sea. & Jerry Ujdur, Det.-both .583 (7-for-12), 1 hr. . . Bob Owchinko, Oak.-.500 (7-for-14), 1 hr. . . Ron Davis, Min.-.500 (5-for-10), 1 hr. . . His home run high against a pitcher is 4 vs.: Richard Dotson, Ed Figueroa, Dave Goltz, Catfish Hunter, and Dave Roberts.

On-Base Percentage: Despite his off-year in '82, Ken still boasts a .396 career on-base percentage (2953-for-7461) in the majors and .399 (1995-for-5003) in the American League.

His best year from an on-base standpoint was '77 when he reached at a .442 clip (285-for-645), just shy of Bob Nieman's club record-.445 in '56.

Designated Hitting: Has a .263 average (216-for-822) in 224 games lifetime as a dh with 22 homers, 111 rbi, and 131 walks. His on-base percentage is a modest—for him—.364 (347-for-953).

Walks: In '82, Ken drew 86 walks to lead the club for the 7th time in 8 Baltimore seasons (Bobby Grich out-walked him in '76). Despite the abbreviated '81 season in which he drew 61 free passes, Ken's average is nearly 94 per year in the A.L.

He ranks 28th on the all-time list (1127) and is 5th among actives behind: (1) Yastrzemski-1791, (2) Morgan-1710, (3) Rose-1358, and (4) Staub-1227. His A.L. total of 749 is closing in on Brooks Robinson's club mark of 860.

Ken has drawn over 100 walks 4 times in the majors, 3 times as an Oriole, including a club record 118 in '75. His career high, 123 with Montreal in '73, is an Expos club mark. He has finished 2nd in the A.L. in walks 4 times ('75, '77, '78, '79) and was also runner-up once in the N.L. ('73).

Batting Average: Holds the club record for highest average, season (.328 in '77) and has led the O's in batting in each of his first 4 Baltimore seasons and just missed the next year ('79), when Murray beat him by .00064 (though both hit .295).

Grand Slams: See page 10.

Batting Streaks: Has had 12 batting streaks of 10 or more games during his Orioles career, though 9 has been his longest in each of the last 2 years. . . His best for the Birds was 17 in '78.

"MVO"/"MVP": Has won annual "Most Valuable 'iole" award 3 times ('75, '77, '79). Only Brooks (4 times) has earned that distinction more often, while Frank Robinson and Eddie Murray have also won 3 times.

In '79 he finished 2nd in the BBWAA vote for A.L. "mvp" with 241 points (5-3-1 system) to Don Baylor (347). . . Baylor, Ken, and George Brett were mentioned on all 28 ballots, but Baylor had 20 1st place votes to Ken's 3 and Brett's 2.

In '77, he was 3rd in the "mvp" race with 200 votes behind Rod Carew (273) and Al Cowens (217).

35 HRs-'79: Ken, who hit 35 home runs in '79, is one of only 6 O's to have hit 30 or more in a single season during the club's 29 years in Baltimore. The others: Boog Powell (4 times), Frank Robinson (3 times); Eddie Murray & Jim Gentile (2 each), and Gus Triandos (once).

April '81: Ken homered in his 1st at bat of the year on opening day vs. K.C. and went on to hit .472 (25-for-53) in April with 7 homers and 14 rbi in 15 games. It was the highest average ever by an Oriole in the opening month and the highest in the majors since '73. His on-base percentage for the month was .517 (30-for-58) and his slugging percentage was .981 (52 bases in 53 at bats).

He was voted the A.L.'s "player of the month" for his heroics.

10-for-10: During that April spree Ken set a club standard with 10 straight hits over a 2½-game span, all in Baltimore on Apr. 26 (4-for-4 vs. Bos.), Apr. 27 (4-for-4 vs. Chi.), and Apr. 28 (2-for-2 vs. Chi.). . . His final hit in that stretch was a home run off Richard Dotson who then got him on a gdp next time up to end it.

Included among the 10 hits were 4 doubles and 2 homers plus 6 rbi . . . The previous club record was 8 straight hits, held jointly by Brooks Robinson (twice), Bob "Rocky" Johnson, and Don Baylor.

Flanagan HRs: Since Mike Flanagan debuted with the O's Sep. 5, '75, he has been the major beneficiary of Ken's home runs. Though Ken has hit only 2 for Mike in each of the last 2 seasons, he has hit almost one-third of his long balls in games that Mike has pitched (i.e., 44 of 146 since 9/5/75), including 15 of 35 in '79 and 7 of 24 in '80.

Ejections: Has been ejected 3 times in the A.L.: (1) by Russ Goetz on Aug. 27, '75; (2) by emergency ump Richard Heitzer for throwing helmet Apr. 13, '79; and (3) by Don Denkinger for charging Twins' Paul Hartzell after 2 high & tight pitches Sep. 1, '79.

Japan: Accompanied Earl Weaver, Rick Dempsey, Dennis Martinez, trainer Ralph Salvo, and club physician Dr. Leonard Wallenstein to Japan in the fall of '79 for a series of games between all-star teams from the A.L. and N.L.

Sep.-Oct.: Despite 2 straight mediocre finishes (.210, 43-for-205, the last 2 years), Ken still has a .293 average for Sep.-Oct. since joining the O's (245-for-836). In '80, he batted .373 during those 2 months (47-for-126), regular season only.

SWITCH HITTING

1982: It was no surprise that Ken hit better from the left side than the right for the 11th time in 13 seasons (.278 to .177), but the size of his righthanded average was. Ken hit all 14 of his home runs lefthanded, and, in fact, has not hit one righthanded since he connected off Seattle southpaw Jerry Don Gleaton on Aug. 24, '81 at the Kingdome. He's batted officially 185 times against lefties since then.

Lifetime: He is batting .297 lefthanded in the majors (1327-for-4466) with 169 home runs. Righthanded his average is .261 (484-for-1853) with 53 home runs.

During his 8 years in the American League, Ken has a .303 average lefthanded (923-for-3042) with 169 home runs and is batting .261 (314-for-1203) with 39 hr righthanded.

Best Year Righthanded: In '77 Ken hit .377 (59-for-158) from the right and was over .400 until Sep. 11. . . That year he hit .310 lefthanded. . . The only other season he hit better righthanded was in '70 for the Mets (.328 to .234, 69 games). His best year lefthanded was '78 when he hit .318 (112-for-352).

Home Runs: Ken ranks 3rd on the all-time list of switch-hitters with 222 home runs behind: Mickey Mantle-536 and Reggie Smith-314. . . Ted Simmons is 4th at 209 and Eddie Murray 5th with 165.

He is one of only 2 switchers to have enjoyed a 35 home run season ('79). The only other is Mickey Mantle who did it 6 times. . . Ken and Eddie Murray are 2 of only 5 switch-hitters to have hit 30 or more in a season, along with Mantle (9), Reggie Smith (2), and Rip Collins (1).

Ken & Eddie Combo: In '80, Ken and Eddie Murray became only the 2nd pair of switchers to produce 100 rbi each in a single season. . . The only others were Ted Simmons and Reggie Smith with the '74 Cardinals.

Natural Lefty: Though a natural lefthander (he eats and writes lefthanded), Ken batted righthanded until becoming a permanent switch-hitter in '65 (late in his amateur career).

SUMMARY OF PREVIOUS SEASONS WITH O'S

1981: After his fabulous April (see above), Ken continued to lead the league in hitting thru May 24 (.383, 49-for-128) and was among the leaders in homers (9) and rbi (31) in just 36 games.

Beginning with the 2nd game of that May 24 doubleheader in Detroit, however, he managed only 18 rbi and 4 homers in his final 67 games and batted only .221 (52-for-235) in that stretch.

1980: Led majors in gwrbi (19), batted over .300 for 4th time in career (3rd time with O's), drove in 100 runs for 2nd straight year, and set career high with 177 hits.

1979: Enjoyed his most productive A.L. season with career highs in homers (35) and rbi (111). . . Was 2nd in league in walks to Darrell Porter (109 to 122). . . Lost club batting title to Murray by .00064 on last day of season. . . See "MVO"/"MVP" above.

1978: Though slowed by effects of a Dec. 10, '77 operation for removal of a bone chip and transplantation of the ulnar nerve in right elbow, Ken led O's in hitting for 4th straight time and was 2nd in A.L. in both walks (97) and on-base percentage (.409).

1977: Set club record with .328 average, surpassing Bob Nieman's '56 mark of .322. Was 3rd behind Carew and the late Lyman Bostock in batting and was 2nd in both on-base percentage (.442) and walks (107) while tying Lee May for club lead in rbi (99). Won his 2nd "mvo" award.

1976: Was hitting only .185 (28-for-151) on June 2 (42 games), then batted .312 (123-for-393) the rest of the way, hitting safely in 91 of his last 112 games. Beat out Reggie Jackson as the O's top hitter (.278 to .277) on last day of season, but was 2nd to Bobby Grich in both on-base percentage and walks.

Played leftfield when Jackson was in the lineup defensively (in right)... Despite a 22-point drop in his average from the year before, he increased his rbi total from 55 to 70.

1975: Won the "mvo" award by a slim margin over Jim Palmer... Set a club record with 118 walks (one behind league leader John Mayberry) and led the A.L. in plate appearances (714)... Batted primarily in the leadoff position.

NATIONAL LEAGUE CAREER

Ken was Mets' 1st pick in January '67 free agent draft (signed by Clarence "Bubber" Jonnard)... Made big league debut with Mets in June '70 after being recalled from Tidewater where he was leading International League in batting (.388).

Had his 1st 2 big league hits in his 3rd game (at Montreal) including his 1st career homer (off Expos' Bill Stoneman) on June 26, '70.

Enjoyed his 1st outstanding season in majors in '73 at Montreal, a full year after he'd been traded by the Mets in the Rusty Staub deal... That year he set several Montreal club records (100 runs, 103 rbi, 123 walks) and hit .300... Played in every game and led majors in outfield assists (20).

Amateur Background: Ken was a baseball and basketball standout at Mt. Vernon High School in New York... Went to Hofstra (Hempstead, L.I.) on a basketball scholarship, but also played baseball there (1 year)... Averaged 18 points as a freshman in basketball...

Roberto Clemente Award: Ken was the '82 recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award which is presented annually by Major League Baseball to the player who best exemplifies the game both on and off the field. That selection is made by a panel of media representatives and baseball executives. Ken is the second Oriole to be so honored in the 12 year history of the award. Brooks Robinson won in '72.

He was also awarded the "Jimmie Swartz Medallion" in April for his extensive community service in the Baltimore area.

In '82 he served as honorary chairman of the Maryland Association of Sickle Cell Services and for United Cerebral Palsy of Central Maryland, Inc., and was actively involved on behalf of several other charities. For the past 3 years he has purchased a block of tickets for all Orioles Sunday games and distributed them to needy senior citizens.

Personal: Born in New York City, but moved out to Stamford, CT when he was 8... One year later the family moved to Mt. Vernon.

His brother, Fred (5 years younger) was a hurdler at Penn State and is now a track coach at White Plains New York High School (5 years)... His father, Joseph, worked for the U.S. Postal Service for many years in Manhattan... Now retired, he and Ken's mother have moved to the Baltimore area... His uncle Harvey (Buddy) Singleton was once a tackle for the Toronto Argonauts.

Ken met his wife, the former Colette Saint-Jacques of Vercheres, Quebec, while she was working at the Forum in Montreal... They were married Jan. 5, '74 and have 2 sons: Matthew Kenneth (11/24/76) and Justin Charles (4/10/79).

After spending two winters in southern California, Ken and his family sold their house there in '79 and purchased a home in Timonium (north of Baltimore City) where they now live the year around... Has spent last 3 winters working at WBAL-TV in Baltimore.

Used extensively as both a starter and in long and short relief, Sammy set career highs for wins (10), games (38), starts (12), saves (5), and innings pitched (139). He was 3-5 with a 5.40 era (63.1 ip, 78 h, 38 er) in 12 starts and 7-4 with a 3.09 era (75.2 ip, 62 h, 26 er) in 26 relief appearances.

Season Summary: Sammy was 5-5 with a 4.54 era (69.1 ip, 76 h, 35 er) in 17 games (9 starts) in the 1st half and 5-4 with a 3.75 era (69.2 ip, 64 h, 29 er) in 21 contests (3 starts) thereafter.

1st Half: He started the year in the bullpen and pitched 5 innings of 2-hit baseball to beat Kansas City on opening day (Apr. 5). . . . Thru May 4, he was 2-2 with a 4.05 era and one save in 8 games (1 start).

At that point, he was inserted into the regular rotation and was 3-3 in 9 starts between May 10 and June 22. . . . Blanked Texas on 5 hits, 6-0, on May 27 for his 1st major league shutout and only '82 complete game.

Injury: Sammy began to be bothered by sore knee in early June. . . . Lasted just 2.1 innings in a start at Milwaukee on June 10 (7 h & 6 r) and did not pitch again for 12 days. . . . Started at Cleveland on June 22 but had to leave after 1.2 innings with recurring soreness in both knees.

He was placed on the 21-day disabled list on June 25 (retro-active to June 22) and began a twice-a-day physical therapy program under Dr. Richard Schlesinger of Baltimore. The program was designed to cure his aching knees, which were a result of both tiny bone chips and the fact that Sammy's right leg was a half inch shorter than his left (forcing him to compensate in his delivery). He was fitted with a heel lift and used an exercise program to strengthen the leg muscles.

After two weeks of therapy, he was sent to the O's class A Hagerstown club on "rehabilitation assignment" to continue his comeback on July 6. . . . Started 2 games for the Suns without a decision, July 7 vs. Durham (3 ip, 3 h, 0 r) and July 11 at Winston-Salem (5 ip, 5 h, 2 r). . . . Was re-activated by Baltimore on July 15.

2nd Half: Upon his return, Sammy was used primarily in long relief thru the end of August, although he did make 3 starts in that span, going 0-2.

Then, when Tim Stoddard was lost for the season with a knee injury on Sep. 6, Sammy became the Orioles' righthanded short reliever. From that point on, he was 3-2 with a 3.22 era (8 er/22.1 ip) and 2 saves in his final 9 appearances.

Starts: He pitched only once in relief in his last 3 minor league seasons but in 4 full big league campaigns ('79, '80, '81, '82) has made just 21 starts in 131 appearances. . . . Did start twice when made M.L. debut in Sep. '78.

Is 8-11 in 23 career starts with a 4.50 era (138 ip, 137 h, 69 er) and 4 complete games.

Relief: In '82 he held the opposition scoreless in 12 of 26 relief appearances and finished 16 games... Allowed 1st batter faced to reach safely in just 7 of 26 appearances (27%) and permitted 14 of 32 inherited runners to score (44%)... Under the Orioles' formula for relief pitchers (see Tippy Martinez' biography on page 121 for further explanation), he had 26 net points, based on 7 wins, 5 saves, and 13 holds for a plus 42 and 3 losses and 10 squanders for a minus 16.

For the 3rd straight year, was more effective in relief in the 2nd half... Was 2-2 with a 3.92 era (9 er/20.2 ip) and a save in 8 1st half games and 5-2 with a 2.78 era (17 er/55 ip) and 4 saves in 18 games after the break. His career relief totals are a 22-19 record and 3.02 era (361 ip, 301 h, 121 er) in 110 appearances.

In '82 saved 2 games for Scott McGregor and one each for Dennis Martinez, Tippy Martinez, and Don Welchel.

Long Stints: Sammy worked 4 or more innings in a game 7 times with a season high 8 inning effort at Boston on Aug. 13 (matching Mike Boddicker for the longest stint of the year by an O's reliefer).

Has now pitched 7 or more relief innings 7 times in his career with the longest being an 8.1 inning performance at Detroit on Sep. 28, '81.

vs. Opponents: He was 1-0 against both California and Minnesota to improve career mark to 3-0 vs. both clubs... Defeated Chicago on Apr. 24 for 1st win against ChiSox since he beat them in his big league debut in '78 (had gone 0-4 in the interim).

Was just 1-2 vs. Detroit but has career highs for wins (5), decisions (9), games (16), and innings (65.2) against the Tigers... See page 27 for complete stats vs. each opponent.

Pickoffs: In his 5 big league seasons, Sammy has picked 12 runners off base (one scored as caught stealing), 9 of those coming at 2nd base... Less than half the runners attempting to steal against him (23 of 48) have been successful.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1981: Sammy had the lowest earned run average in the American League for actual number of innings pitched but lost the era title at season's end in a disputed decision (see "Earned Run Average Dispute" below)... Was 4-5 with 4 saves and a 1.58 era in 26 relief outings and 0-3 with a 6.89 era in 3 starts.

Earned Run Average Dispute: Despite allowing 5 runs in 1.2 innings in his last game of the year (Oct. 2 vs. N.Y.), it appeared that Sammy had won the A.L. era title in a close race with Oakland's Steve McCatty. Stewart allowed 29 earned runs in 112.1 innings for a 2.32351 era to edge McCatty, who surrendered 48 earned runs in 185.2 innings for a 2.32670 era.

However, official playing rule 10.22 called for earned run averages to be figured after rounding off the number of innings pitched to the nearest full inning. When this was done, McCatty had the lower era, 2.32258 (rounded up to 186 innings) to Stewart's 2.33036 (rounded down to 112 innings). After a review of the situation, the Official Scoring Rules Committee declared McCatty the winner with Stewart placing 2nd. The rule was changed at the '81 annual baseball meetings to determine era on actual innings pitched, effective with the '82 season.

Had Sammy won the title, he would have been the 1st A.L. era leader with a losing record (4-8) in 58 years.

1980: Was 5-5 with 3 saves and 3.46 era in 30 relief appearances and 1-2 with 3.80 era in 3 starts... Finished strong with a 4-0 mark, 3 saves, and a 1.83 era in his last 12 outings (all in relief).

1979: Also pitched mostly in long relief but also started 3 games (once every 6 weeks between Apr. 21 and July 21) and won them all.

1978: Was recalled from Rochester on Sep. 1 with Dave Ford and Tim Stoddard to help the O's thru a stretch of 5 games in 3 days against Chicago... Beat the White Sox in 1st start (see below) and lost a start to Detroit 4 weeks later in only other appearance.

Record Breaker: Made his debut the day he reported (Sep. 1) and set a big league record (in the 2nd game of a dh) by striking out 7 straight batters in his 1st game.

The record was 6, shared by Karl Spooner (Brooklyn '54) and Pete Richert (Los Angeles '64)... Sammy went 5.1 innings and struck out a total of 9 and was the winning pitcher.

Minors: Won 7 of his last 9 decisions and led Rochester in wins (13), era (3.80), and strikeouts (111) in '78... Started the '77 season with the Wings after making the jump from class A Miami, but was sent down to class AA Charlotte in June after 0-5 start.

Pitched a 7 inning no-hitter for Miami against the Winter Haven Red Sox on July 20, '76, winning 1-0. . . That year led the Florida State League in walks (86) but was tops among the Miami starters in era (2.42) and innings (182).

Signing: Was drafted by the K.C. Royals while in junior college, but did not sign. . . After not being picked in the June '75 draft, attended a major league tryout camp in Asheville where was signed for the O's by Rip Tudor.

Amateur Background: Played baseball and basketball for 2 years at Montreat-Anderson J.C. (Montreat, N.C.). . . Had the lowest era (0.36) in the nation among J.C. pitchers in '74. . . Was a shortstop and designated hitter when not pitching, batted .378, and was the "mvp" in the conference that year.

Played in the Shenandoah Valley Summer Baseball League, while in college. . . As a basketball player, averaged 15.4 points in 2 seasons at Montreat-Anderson.

Lettered four years in baseball, basketball, and football at Charles D. Owen High School. . . Was a quarterback and safety in football. . . Averaged 18.6 points per game in basketball and set a school one-game scoring record with 38 points.

Played Little League, Babe Ruth, and American Legion baseball. . . His legion team won the N.C. state championship in '72.

Personal: Bought a home in the Baltimore area (Perry Hall) in '82 but spent most of the off-season in Swannanoa. . . Hobbies: golf, hunting, and fishing.

THE 1982 SEASON

Despite missing the 1st month of the season with arm problems and the final 4 weeks after a knee injury (see below), Tim finished 2nd on the staff to Tippy Martinez in appearances (50) and saves (12).

Under the Orioles' formula for ranking relievers, he finished with 30 relief points, 2nd to Tippy's 59. Tim had 12 saves, 3 wins, and 10 "holds" for a plus 52, and 4 losses and 14 "squanders" for a minus 22. See Tippy Martinez' biography on page 121 for a further explanation of the formula.

Relief Summary: Tim finished 38 of 50 games and was scored upon in 17 appearances... Permitted the 1st batter he faced to reach base 11 times, a 22% ratio that was 3rd lowest on the club... Allowed 22 of 51 inherited runners to score (43%).

Was 1-3 with a 3.57 era (16 er/40.1 ip) and 9 saves in 33 1st half games and 2-1 with a 5.17 era (9 er/15.2 ip) and 3 saves in 17 contests thereafter... His best month was June, when he was 1-0 with a 1.13 era (2 er/16 ip) and 3 saves in 13 appearances... That included a streak of 10 consecutive scoreless outings (11.1 ip) from June 12 thru 29.

Saves: In '82 he saved 3 games for Mike Flanagan and Jim Palmer, 2 for Tippy Martinez and Scott McGregor, and 1 each for Storm Davis and Sammy Stewart.

Lifetime for the O's he has saved: 13 for Palmer, 11 for Flanagan, 9 for Steve Stone (all in '80), 7 for McGregor, 4 for Tippy, and 1 each for Davis, Dennis Martinez, Don Stanhouse, and Stewart... Is 5th on the O's all-time list with 48 saves, 3 behind Dick Hall.

Injuries: Tim spent 2 lengthy stints on the disabled list with a pair of major injuries.

Arm Problems: He began to be bothered with weakness and tightness in the muscles of his right shoulder early in spring training and pitched just 6 innings in exhibition play... Was placed on the 21-day disabled list at the start of the regular season and underwent an exercise program for the next 4 weeks.

Was sent to Rochester on Apr. 27 under the "rehabilitation assignment" program to continue his recovery... Pitched in 5 games with the Red Wings before being activated by Baltimore on May 5.

Knee Injury: Tim was lost for the season when he tore ligaments in his right knee in a fall in New York on Sep. 6... Underwent surgery to repair the damage at Baltimore's Children's Hospital on Sep. 10 and had the knee in a cast for about 6 weeks... Was placed on the 60-day emergency disabled list at that time.

He was placed on an extensive strengthening and rehabilitation program in November and made a rapid recovery from the injury... Was able to start throwing in January and is expected to be fully recovered for spring training.

vs. Opponents: Tim held Detroit (5 ip, 3 g), Kansas City (2.2 ip, 3 g), and New York (1.2 ip, 3 g) without a run in '82 and in the process, extended his scoreless innings streaks against the Tigers and Royals... Has not allowed a run in his last 12.2 innings over 11 appearances vs. Detroit (is 1-0 with 5 saves in that span), since that streak began on May 25, '80.

Was 0-1 with a 6.75 era (3 er/4 ip) in his 1st 2 major league appearances against the Royals in Apr. '78... Since then, has held them scoreless over 10 games and 13.2 innings with a win and 4 saves... For complete '82 and lifetime stats vs. opponents, see page 27.

Odds and Ends: Allowed just 4 homers, 2 of those coming against Texas on May 31... Combined with Flanagan and Tippy to pitch shutout at Toronto on May 21.

PREVIOUS CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

1981: He was 2nd to Tippy in appearances (31) and saves (7)... Preserved a lead or tie 16 times in 20 opportunities (.800) and prevented 36 of 47 inherited runners from scoring, (.766), both percentages being the best among O's relievers.

1980: Tim set a club record with 26 saves, 4th in the American League behind Dan Quisenberry and Rich Gossage (33 each) and Ed Farmer (30)... Was 5th in the competition for the Roloids "Relief Man of the Year" award with 59 points (2 for each win & save minus 1 point for each loss).

Strong Finish: Tim was particularly effective after July 21, in his final 30 appearances... In that period was 5-0 with 14 saves and a 2.04 era... Was scored on in only 4 of those 30 games.

Did not give up a run in 14 straight appearances (15.1 ip) from Sep. 6 until finally being scored on in his final outing of the year (Oct. 4)... Pitched 17 consecutive scoreless innings over 12 appearances from July 26 thru Aug. 23 (3-0, 7 svs).

Was A.L.'s "pitcher of the month" in September: 16 games, including 14 straight scoreless appearances, 2-0 with 7 saves and a 2.04 era.

Home Runs: A homerless streak spanning 55 games and 74.1 innings was abruptly snapped by California's Jason Thompson and Bob Clark in 8th inning on Aug. 30. They were only 2 homers Tim allowed all year.

Odds & Ends: He picked up a save without retiring a batter vs. Toronto on Sep. 21... He entered game with 2 out and 1 on, and worked the count to 2-2 on Steve Braun when Rick Dempsey picked Lloyd Moseby off 2nd base to end the game.

1979: Tim was O's most effective reliever in early season and was 3-1 with a 1.66 era when he suffered muscle tear under his right arm-pit on June 23... Pitched only once in next 11 weeks (including 5 weeks on disabled list) before returning to action in September... Had lowest era on staff (1.71) and fanned 47 in 58 innings.

ALCS/WS: He did not see action in '79 ALCS, but did appear in each of the last 4 games of the world series.

Was winning pitcher in game 4 at Three Rivers Stadium... O's trailed 6-3 when he came on in 7th... He went on to pitch 3 scoreless innings, and the Birds rallied for 6 runs in the 8th to win, 9-6.

Tim contributed to the O's uprising with a single to left that scored Billy Smith with 5th run of the big inning... It was Tim's 1st basehit in pro baseball (he was 0-for-9 in the minors), and it came on his 1st big league at bat.

1978: After an impressive effort in spring exhibitions, Tim came north with the club, but was ineffective in 7 appearances and was sent to Rochester in May. Rejoined O's on Sep. 1, but pitched in only one game thereafter... Led Puerto Rican League with 1.86 era while pitching for Frank Robinson at Santurce.

1977: Tim was signed to a Charlotte contract by the late Orioles' Director of Player Development Clyde Klutts, 11 days after the White Sox released him in spring training... Started 18 of his 1st 20 games at Charlotte, but from July 21 on, he pitched exclusively in relief.

White Sox: He was signed originally for Chicago by Walt Widmayer... Had been selected previously by Texas in June '74, but chose to remain in college.

Was called up to Chicago in Sep. '75 after his rookie season at Knoxville... Appeared in 1 game, and pitched 1 inning vs. the Twins on Sep. 7... Went to spring training with Chisox in both '75 & '77.

Started in the '76 Southern League all star game vs. Atlanta after compiling a 5-2 record in the early going at Knoxville.

RALPH SALVON, TRAINER

Ralph Salvon is in his 16th year as Orioles' head trainer, third in seniority among A.L. trainers behind Freddy Frederico of Milwaukee and Bill Behm of Detroit.

Ralph joined Baltimore's major league staff in '66 as an assistant to the O's veteran trainer Eddie Weidner. When Weidner retired in '68 after 52 years with the ballclub, Ralph succeeded him.

He worked in the Orioles' minor league organization from '54-'55 and '59-'61 and also trained in the St. Louis Browns, Kansas City A's, and Houston Astros systems. Currently a resident of Phoenix, Md., Ralph also serves as trainer for the O's basketball team in the off-season.

MEMORIAL STADIUM—A BRIEF HISTORY

Construction of Baltimore Memorial Stadium began on the site of old Municipal Stadium in 1949. However, when the original Baltimore NFL franchise left town after the '50 football season, work on the new facility was suspended until '52.

Despite the construction the International League Orioles continued to play their home games here on 33rd Street (thru '53) as did the current Baltimore Colts franchise when it re-located from Dallas (Texans) prior to the '53 football season.

The new stadium was completed essentially in October, '53, but refinements continued on thru the early stages of the '54 baseball season, the A.L. Orioles first in Baltimore.

The original Municipal Stadium was built for football and completed in 1924. However, when old Oriole Park (29th Street and Greenmount Avenue) burned down on the night and early morning of July 3-4, 1944, the Orioles moved into the big ballpark (in those days home plate was in what is now dead center field).

Baltimore Memorial Stadium was built for $6 million on 28³/₄ acres of city owned property and financed by two city bond issues.

Over the years, there have been some changes made. In '54, the distance from home plate to the fence in dead center was 450'. That has been whittled down gradually to its present 405'.

The Orioles dugout was originally on the first base side, but when some 2,600 field boxes were installed in front of the original boxes in '61 (prior to that there was an 8' wall between the front row of the boxes and the field, and Baltimore led the world in foul territory), new dugouts had to be constructed and the home team moved over to third base.

In 1964 additional upper deck sections were added, increasing the capacity by another 2,600 seats. In 1970 (mid-season) the new scoreboard was installed. In recent years the old splintery wooden benches (without backs) have been completely replaced by chairs and non-wooden benches with back rests, and a 35th row has been added to the upper deck.

In 1980, six new towers, housing a new ticket window and additional ticket office space, storage areas and rest rooms, were completed in the latest Memorial Stadium renovations.

JIM HENNEMAN'S SIMPLIFIED MAGIC NUMBER CALCULATING SYSTEM

For trailing club—add games won plus games left, then add one. Subtract number of games won by first place team. That's the magic number.

ORIOLES SET A.L. RECORDS FOR CONSECUTIVE SHUTOUTS (5) AND CONSECUTIVE SCORELESS INNINGS (54) IN 1974

The Orioles pitching staff set two A.L. records in early September, 1974 by putting together a string of five straight shutouts and by blanking their opponents over a stretch of 54 consecutive innings. The scoreless streak actually started in the 9th inning of a game in Kansas City on September 1. Dave McNally gave up his only run in the 8th and then pitched a scoreless 9th while beating the Royals, 7-1. The streak ended six games later in the 9th inning on September 7 when Ross Grimsley working on a 3-0 lead gave up a two-run home run to Cleveland's Charlie Spikes. Grimsley, who was the winner anyway by a 3-2 score, was relieved at that point by Bob Reynolds. That also ended another string, of six straight complete games, but extended the Birds' winning streak to 10.

Date	Opponent	H/A	Score	Consec. Scoreless Innings	Pitcher	Hits Allowed
Sept. 1	Kansas City	A	7-1	1 (9th)	Dave McNally-cg	4
Sept. 2	Boston	H	1-0	9	Ross Grimsley-cg	3
Sept. 2	Boston	H	1-0	9	Mike Cuellar-cg	2
Sept. 4	Boston	H	6-0	9	Jim Palmer-cg	3
Sept. 6	Cleveland	A	2-0	9	Dave McNally-cg	3
Sept. 6	Cleveland	A	1-0	9	Mike Cuellar-cg	5
Sept. 7	Cleveland	A	3-2	8 (1st-8th)	Ross Grimsley	4

During the 54 inning skein the O's out-scored their opponents, 14-0, and out-hit them 37-20... Mike Cuellar won two of the five straight shutouts, both by 1-0.

The major league records of six straight shutouts and 56 consecutive innings which the O's came very close to at least tying were set by the 1903 Pirates (June 1 thru 9). The previous A.L. record of 47 consecutive innings was held by the 1948 Cleveland Indians and the mark of four consecutive shutouts had been accomplished four times, most recently by the Orioles' foursome of Hal Brown, Billy Loes, Connie Johnson, and Ray Moore between June 24 and 28, 1957.

ORIOLES' "HALL OF FAME"

The Orioles' "Hall of Fame" was created in '77 by the Oriole Advocates in cooperation with the ballclub to honor the outstanding players, managers and coaches to have represented the Orioles during the modern major league era, from '54 to the present.

Since that time, 7 players have been inducted, by vote of selected writers, announcers and veteran members of the Oriole Advocates.

Brooks and Frank Robinson ('77) were the first two chosen, followed by: Dave McNally ('78), Boog Powell ('79), Gus Triandos ('81), Luis Aparicio ('82) and Mike Cuellar ('82).

The 1983 selection(s) will be announced sometime in March.

To become a member, a candidate must be mentioned on 75% of the ballots cast. To qualify for nomination, he must have spent at least 3 seasons with the Orioles and can no longer be with the club in the same capacity in which he is being considered.

Each time a new member is elected a full size replica of his Orioles' locker is placed on permanent display in the Hit 'n Run Club at Memorial Stadium.

Allen Barrett and Jack Buckley, both past presidents of the Oriole Advocates, were instrumental in making the Orioles' Hall of Fame a reality. Buckley and fellow Advocate Bill Tabak are serving this year as co-chairmen of the Hall of Fame Committee.
